

For your shopping convenience THE JERUSALEM POST BOOK DEPT. ts open Sun. - Thur, 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. Fridays 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. 16 Haray Kook St.

Downtown Jerusalem Tel. 02-241282

OLUME LXIII: NUMBER 19251

WORLD OF

Norman's

Masters

Catastrophe

It's ALL in the

WORLD OF SPORT

* ***

8 gr. 2 2 2

. ي ي

ie.

3 C

. در م

THE JERUSALEM

TUESDAY, APRIL 16, 1996 O MIS AN 27, 5756 C THE LEGEN AND T

US begins diplomatic push to stop fighting day undertook what it called "intense efforts" to soothe the Israel-Lebanon crisis, with Secretary of State Warren Christopher telephoning Prime Minister Shimon Peres. Lebanese Premier Rafik Hariri, and Syrian Foreign Minister Farouk Shara in a bid to bring an end to the Hizbuilah attacks.

Meanwhile, senior Israeli officials indicated last night that the "ball is largely in Syria's court," for President Hafez Assad must take decisive steps to rein in Hizbullah.

It is too early to negotiate," Peres said on a visit to the North, hut added that he is open to diplomatic initiatives. He has repeatedly called for Hizbullah to

THE Clinton administration yester- stop its attacks and, at the same time. made it clear he does not think the Lebanese government has the capability to physically stop them.

The Jordanian news agency Petra quoted King Hussein as issuing a stern warning to the ambassadors of the five UN Security Council permanent members and the "troika" of the European Union.

"The escalation of violence in Lebanon is threatening the peace process," he was quoted telling the ambassadors of Britain, France, the US, China, Russia. Spain, Ireland, and Italy. Prime Minister Abdul-Karim Kahariti will today bring a letter from Hussein to Peres expressing Jordan's view of these events and discussing means of putting an end to the state of tension, Petra said.

DAVID MAKOVSKY HILLEL KUTTLER, and agencies

Israeli and American officials described Christopher's calls as an initiative to reach an arrangement among the three sides that would halt hostilities, but refused to describe what might be in the offing. "Obviously our goal is to see what steps can be taken now to restore calm to the border and to minimize the violence which is affecting citizens on both sides of the border," White House spokesman Mike McCurry said.

Peace team coordinator Dennis Ross also met with Ambassador to the US Itamar Rabinovich.

"We're Irving to get understandings that will result in no more Karyusha attacks on northern Israel." an administration official said. "There are certain different addresses, and one of them is certainly Syria."

The official indicated that the US is not pressuring Israel to restrain its attacks on Beirut and the southern part of the country, stating: "Israel has said it would stop its attacks when [Hizbullah] stops." "The Americans contacted us," a senior official in the Prime Minister's Office said. "It was their initiative, not ours. They have not put together a concrete plan yet, but they are checking the possibility of renewed understandings between Israel. Syria, and Hizbullah on the parameters for fighting.

The official made clear that the US. and not others, will mediate any negotiated settlement to halt the fighting.

There were unconfirmed reports that Iranian Foreign Minister Ali Akbar Velyati was flying to Damascus, a sign taken by senior officials in Jerusalem to mean that Teberan wants to stiffen Syrian resistance to any US-brokered diplomatic settlement.

In a Le Monde interview held after his talks in Damascus over the weekend, Hariri confirmed that he has asked Syria and Iran to use their influence on Hizbullah.

"We have asked the Syrian state, and according to the information I bave, it will do so if Israel respects the accord." he said.

At the same time, Hariri said that Peres is staging the attacks in Lehanon to (Continued on Page 3)

IAF hits Hizbullah strongholds and power station in Beirut

IN 220 sorties yesterday, the air force destroyed 15 buildings sheltering terrorists, seven vehicles helonging to terrorists, and two terrorist squads which had fired Katyushas into the North, Deputy Chief of Staff Maj.-Gen. Matan Vilna'i said at a press conference last night. The IAF hit a Hizbullah headquarters in southern Beirut and the Hizhullah high council huilding in western Beirul, Israel Radio reported last night.

Aircraft also knocked out a second power station. leaving parts of the city's easiern sector without electricity. Hospital sources said at least eight people were wounded in the Beirut raid.

An IDF spokesman said the attack was in response to KatyuARIEH O'SULLIVAN and news agencies

ment of Lebanon that if this doesn't cease, we will continue to hit their infrastructure," said Brig.-Gen. Shmuel Zucker, a divisional front commander.

Hizbullah continued to fire Katyusha rockets into northern Israel in small, ineffective barrages, which caused light injuries and minor damage. However, the IDF has still ordered residents to remain inside shelters, as Operation Grapes of Wrath enters its sixth day.

In the attack on Hizbullah's stronghold in southern Beirut. two Apache helicopters reportedly came in from the sea and rocketed the Mraije neighborhood Anti-turned fire and recorded at least one direct hit, the army said. The air force said that all air-ple эпent

up-

the

ule

'ar-thu

ion

OVtha

пds

.ays

the hed

ded

oti-

.≞ to

: on пз-

ion.

ers. 15." 1 in dis-rec-

AP)

Lup

issal

tirsi

26, sted

cab-nd is it of

Kac-

cted

Jert-

8 but

h the n by цm зrael

on ιр.

OB

_____ _____ and

Ŀ.

20

:r

of ٠D

m

10

20

craft returned safely to base. Yesterday evening, IDF airctaft and artillery poured concentrated fire on 10 villages north of the security zone which had been used to fire Katyushas.

"Every Katyusha will provoke determined retaliation from the IDF," an army statement said. Artillery also struck Nabatiyeh and surrounding villages. A gas station went up in flames and re-ports from Lebanon said a Hizbullah-run hospital was also hit. Military commanders said that removing the residents of over 100 villages in south Lehanon has given them greater ability to attack Hizbullah.

Paratroopers from the bonor guard light memorial candles at last night's Yad Vashem ceremony, which began Holocaust Martyrs' and Heroes' Remembrance Day.

structure" in the North. 'We are warning the govern-rected at them from two ground vehicles. The helicopters reed before the operation - fire into (Continued on Page 3)

Yad Vashem ceremony opens Holocaust Day

PRESIDENT Ezer Weizman warned Israel's enemies last night that "if they wear our patience too thin, [they will suffer from] the long arm of the IDF."

Speaking at the state ceremony at Yad Vashem in Jerusalem marking the opening of Holocaust Martyrs and Heroes Remembrance Day, he said: "Those who arrogantly suggested in Beirut that the inhabitants of Kiryat Shmona should seek refuge in the shelters are now taking shelter themselves. They who think that Jewish hlood may be spilled with impunity have forgotten that what occurred once will oot occur again. "Israel is a free nation, a strong unforgettable. Never again will the Jewish people be left totally defenseless in the face of its enemies."

Noting that "the more intelligent of our neighbors have been persuaded to terminate the state of war and follow the path of peace," Weizman said: "There are still hostile elements who are consumed with hatred and seek to kill Jews simply because they are Jews.

Prime Minister Shimon Peres, who avoided mentioning the fighting in Lebanon, said that

BATSHEVA TSUR

"Israel is a nation that despises nation which can defend itself ... The lessons of the Holocaust are anything that Hitlerism represented ... The Jewisb code of ethics will ensure ... that fanatic fringe elements which take the name of Zionism in vain will not be permitted to deflect it from the course chartered hy those visionaries, the fathers of Zionism. "The State of Israel," be continned, "was established in spite of the Holocaust. It was the Jewish people's response to the Nazi strategy of destroying the Jews as a nation. But for six million victims destined by the Zionist vision to be citizens of the state, it was established, tragically ... 10 years too late." The ceremony - which was attended by Britisb Defense Minis-

Following a musical interlude, six torches were lit symbolizing the death of the six million and honoring those who sought life in the period immediately after the war. the Warsaw Ghetto, spoke on behalf of the survivors.

Khaled, Hawatmeh can attend PNC meetings

JON IMMANUEL

THE government bas allowed airplane hijacker Leila Khaled and Nayef Hawatmeh, heads of the Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine, to enter the the Palestinian autonomous areas for the coming Palestinian National Council meeting.

The permission was given without conditions, reversing earlier conditions that they sign a statement opposing terrorism. Khaled has recently made statements in support of violence. The Likud slammed the decision, saying it gives a kashrut certificate to the worst kind of murderers.

The Palestinian Authority threatened to postpone the meeting if all 460 known PNC members are not allowed to participate in its meeting scheduled for next Monday. A second meeting to change or annul the Palestinian Covenant is expected to be held about a week later, but before the May 7 deadline.

Both Palestinian and Israeli official sources agree that 87 mentbers have yet to receive permits. but Israeli officials say that is be-D cause the last list of 60 only arrived yesterday. The list includes George Hahash, head of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine, who bas said he will not come. A separate list includes 96 observers, who did not vote.

The participation of Khaled, who attempted to hijack an El Al airliner in 1970, and Hawatmeh indicates that few PNC members and observers, if any, will be barred by Israel.

Khaled, who lives in Beirut, arrived at the Allenby Bridge Sunday without warning and returned to Amman after being told she would have to sign a statement. The PA was to have given Israel 10 days notice of her arrival.

The Syrian-allied PFLP-General Command, under Ahmed Jibril, and A-Saiqa, which was formed hy Syria, have not sent lists of members to the PA and apparently have no wish to attend, although they have 30 PNC members.

The absence of PA President Yasser Arafat's opponents from the meeting will oot increase or decrease the chances of his gaining the required two-thirds majority for revoking the existing anti-Israel Covenant, since an absolute two-thirds majority, some 306 votes, is required. More than 306 members have already received authorization to (Continued on Page 3)

ter Michael Portillo and French Foreign Minister Herve de Charette - began with the lowering of the national flag to half-mast as an IDF honor guard presented arms and Yad Vashem International Chairman Yosef Burg lit the beacon.

Wanda Rothenberg, a fighter in

(Continued on Page 3t

March COL Index up 1%

Jerusalem Post Staff

THE Cost of Living Index rose by I percent in March, in line will expectations, but well above the pace required to meet the government annual inflation target, the Central Bureau of Statistics said yesterday Since the beginning of the year, inflation has risen by 2.6%, with th annual pace estimated at 11%-12%. The government set its 1996 inflation target at 8%-10%, and Prime Minister Shimon Peres later said the economy should aim for "European-style" inflation, well under 5%, by the end of the decade.

The most significant contribution to the increase came from fruits and vegetables, whose prices rose by 11.9%, which accounted for 0.5% of the index's climh.

The Ministry of Agriculture attributed the high fruit and vegetable prices to the closure on the territories and called on the government to decrease demand for produce originating from there.

Relatively steep price rises, averaging 1.8%, were also recorded in the education and culture category, which includes print and broadcast media and domestic tourism services.

Housing prices, on the other hand, rose a mere 0.1% and did not contribute to the general rise.

In response to the cost-of-living rise, the Histadrut said it would seek compensation for the wage erosion suffered by salaried workers.

"The government must take into account the fact that wage-earners cannot continue to suffer," Histadrut Chairman Amir Peretz said.

Agency emissary stabbed in Budapest

Jewish school in Budapest stahbed the school's Israeli principal yesterday morning. The inspector, Ahmed Bur, later told police that after hearing on the news that Israelis were killing Moslem children in Lebanoo he had decided to kill an Israeli.

Rabbi Yisrael Tauh, a Jewish Agency emissary serving as the principal of the Masoret Avot School in Budapest's Jewish quarter, was lightly wounded in the neck and hands.

Bur, who had worked at the school for some six years, hurst

AN Afghani health inspector for a into Tauh's office early yesterday morning with a 30-centimeter-long knife he had bought the previous day. Secretaries in a nearby office heard Taub cry for help and summoned several of the older students, who broke up the struggle. Bur then ran towards the school's gate, stabhing and lightly injuring a teacher on the way. At the gate, two security guards caught him and handed him over to the police.

Jewish Agency chairman Avraham Burg sent a letter warning all Jewish agency emissaries to take (lrin) safety precautions.

OPERATION GRAPES OF WRATH

The Jerusalem Post Tuesday, April 16, 1996

UNIFIL officer seriously wounded by Hizbullah

DAVID RUDGE

Grapes of Wrath.

us," said Goksel.

Goksel said the wounded officer was evacuated by belicopter to UNIFL'S hospital at the force's headquarters in Nakoura, inside the security zone. The IDF Spokesman said that Hizballah activities had been identified near a UN position in Lebanon. He said that as a result,

UNIFIL had been requested to prevent such incidents. The announcement did not give the location where Hizbullah gunmen had been spotted or other details. "Bafere receipting officially we

"Before reacting officially, we are awaiting more precise infor-mation from the IDF regarding these claims, which are not new to

A UNIFIL officer, bowever, noted that with so many raids by

Netanyahu: Political action

AN UNIFIL officer was seriously wounded in a elash with Hizbullah, when troops from the force's Fijian battalion tried to prevent gummen from setting up a Katyusba launcher near a UN position north of the security

2

The incident occurred shortly before the IDF issued a statement calling on UNIFIL to prevent Hizbullah using its positions as cover for their activities, in an effort to avoid IDF retaliation.

UNIFIL spokesman Timur Goksel said the firefight occurred in Siddikin, east of Tyre.

"Armed elements were setting up a Katyusha rocket launcher near a UN position in the area," be said. "The Fijians intervened. A patrol was sent to the area, and the soldiers asked them to desist. There was a confrontation and one of the Hizbullah people opened fire, seriously wounding a Fijian officer.

"The Fijian soldiers surrounded the Hizbullah people and there was an exchange of fire, which developed into a standoff." UNIFIL officers said that later in the evening, as a result of nego-

the North yesterday.

rebuild its base.

will be one that "will destroy

Hizbullah's infrastructure in be able to attack our settlements.

as well as a political operation against Syria that will prevent it from allowing Hizbullah to tiations, with the aid of Lebanese

Army, the Hizbullah squad with-drew. Goksel said the UN would lodge a strong protest with the appropriate authorities. The UN position nearby has been swamped with refugees who have been unable to flee north-fired on Sunday and a further 50 so far today, and around 2,000 rounds of artillery today by the IDF," said the officer. "There have also been around 30 raids by Israeli aircraft in various parts of south Lebanon up to early evening. There were 54 incidents of firing close to UN positions, including bombs, on Sunday and about 20 such incidents so far

In addition, more than 9,000 refugees bave taken shelter inside or on the perimeter of UN positions. These include several bundreds of people who have found refuge at the UN's offices and bases in Tyre.

the IAF in south Lebanon and heavy shelling by artillery the force's troops were themselves having to go into bomb shelters. The officer said a Katyusha rocket had hit the force's headquarters on Sunday and badly damaged a workshop. Two more rockets fell close to the UN complex yesterday. "More than 90 Katyushas were wards because of Operation

"With all this going on, we bave enough on our hands trying to keep our own troops alive."

Hizbullah members with explosives strapped to their chests, calling themselves the 'Brigade of Martyrdom-Lovers,' yesterday chant an oath of allegiance and vow to kill themselves to take vengeance on Israel and the United States. The IDF said troops are on alert for suicide attacks.

Soldiers in Lebanon balance pride and angst

ARIEH O'SULLIVAN

security zone. The dull thud of the hits echoed back across the rugged hills. Then a large explosion sounds from the direction of the Hasharon.

about 19, have only been here for about six weeks - enough time in this front line position to turn them into combat veterans. "I was here last week when Uri council is to stop immediately the Isracli aggression against

Lebanon," Ambassador Samir

Monbarak told reporters late yesterday before addressing the

He said be also would ask the council to condemn the Israchi action and to arrange a humanitarian relief program for Lebanon. A resolution on Lebanon appeared unlikely, particularly moshav faim. But I don't have time to count the days till then. I just want to get to tomorrow with all my men in one piece."

and you are not used to it. You see it in the movies and on TV, but now it was for real. It makes us more paranoid and we start thinking about life," said Cpl. Iran. The battalion commander, 32-year-old LL-Col. Dror, said he is

The country still has not taken political and economie action against Syria to force it to withdraw its support from Hizbullah, Netanyahu said. He suggested that Israel ask the US to pressure Syria to stop supporting Hizbullah. His briefing from OC Northern needed against Syria OPERATION Grapes of Wrath Command Mai.-Gen. Amiram must not end the way Operation Accountability ended - with an Levine yesterday on the situation in south Lebanon convinced him that the IDF is capable of under-mining Hizbullah, Netanyahu agreement that allows Hizbullah to attack the IDF and Israeli settlements, Likud leader Binyamin said, adding that be hopes the Netanyahu said during a visit to government is equally capable. He said be is not worried about He said he hopes the operation the prestige the operation would bring to Prime Minister Shimon Peres and that if the government conducts the operation "correct-ly" it will receive the Likud's south Lebanon so that it will not support throughont.

Asked about Likud colleague Ariel Sharon's and Tsomet leader Rafael Eitan's calls for widening the security zone. Netanyahu replied, "I think these decisions are tactical decisions which must be left to the IDF commanders. 1 think what is necessary is an understanding that no govern-ment, past or present, and certainly not our future government. is interested in occupying one square meter of Lebanon. We are there only for security reasons."

Yisrael Ba'aliya leader Natan Sbaransky also visited the North soaransky also visited the North yesterday, meeting with 400 immigrants living in Kiryat Shmona as well as with Kiryat Shmona Mayor Prosper Azran and Regional Council Head Aharon Valency.

Kiryat Somona councilman Michael Nudelman, second on the Yisrael Ba'aliya list, accompanied him.

"We support the government's use of force finally," he said in a statement. "But it is the government's job to guarantee that agreements are adhered to constantly. Enforcing adherence cannot be just a pre-election exereise. Our party insists and demands that israel's partners to negotiations fulfill their commitments." (Itim) and Rishon Lezion municipalities, for instance, said that more than dren from Kibbutz Sassa at a local from Aramsha village in the North.

hosting six families, 30 people, 17 of whom are children, from Kiryat Shmona, "and today we've taken them to the Safari animal and Tzapari bird parks," said general

The Eilat Hotel Association is putting up 70 families from Kiryat

Shmona in seven botels "with more expected," said EHA general

"Four salvoes of katyushas landed right by our house," said Eliahu Wahaba, 74, of Kiryat Shmona, who left the beleaguered city at 2

a.m. Monday morning in order to from Egypt in 1954, and this is the first time be has left the city because of rocket attacks, "and I wouldn't have left now except that my wife isn't well. I don't know

He arrived in Kiryat Shmona

catch the 5 a.m. bus to Tel Aviv.

manager Zvika Spies.

manager Moti Inbar.

177-022-5949.

The Sharon Hotel in Herzliya is

Col. Zion, perched atop a rampart in an IDF position in south Lebanon, "we can see where the Hizbullah terrorists are moving. The brigade commander pointed to a hazy ridge some 2,500 meters to the northwest and said a squad of gunmen carrying a Sagger mis-sile had been spotted. Flanked by his radiomen, the colonel ordered a Merkava tank onto its firing ramp. "Describe the target to me," he said in his elipped army tone.

"FROM where I'm standing," said

Roger. Fire." The tank let off four rounds, which seconds later slammed into the far hillside and exploded.

"Direct hit," said the colonel as he elimbed back down. "They are trying their best to shell Kiryat Shmona and Nahariya, and we are doing our best to stop them." The Merkava retreated to cover behind a screen of gray smoke. Overhead, a pair of Apache attack helicopters paced across the sky in search of Hizbullah targets.

Artillery from surrounding positions pounded away at houses and other Hizbullah targets north of the mortar round burst on the trenches" instantly killing St.-Sgt. Uri Friedman, 20, from Ramat lages have fied northward and the IDF says anyone seen moving is considered Hizbullah and a target. "Whoever moves there is for us :

a fifth-generation sabra from Kfar Tayor, is both master and protector of his soldiers.

"I'm always on them to keep their flak vests on to wear their heimets," Ran said. "I've got sin months left before I go back to my was killed. This is fearsome shuff.

Suddenly people are running around with blood on their faces

Since Operation Grapes of Wrath began, the inhabitants of these vilgate, where another Merkava was stationed. Incoming or outgoing? An enlisted man named Lior smiled, cocked his bead to the side and said: "Naw, that was one of ours. You should have been here this morning. We were hit by morthe enemy," said Col. Zion, the brigade commander. tars and even a Katyusha." That round missed the position, hitting the ruins of a 2,300-year-old Hellenistic temple just beside the ramparts instead, knocking Cpl. Golan, the platoon sniper, said he is proud to be serving in a combat unit and feels like he is defending the state. over a column which had stood for over two millennia. The soldiers on position Karloum live in a constant state of alert. Since it overlooks the villages of Yatar, Kafra, and Majdel Zun -noted Hizbullah bases and Katyusha launching sites - the position has been a favorite Hizbullah target. Over the past nine months three soldiers have died there - the latest last Wednesday, when a Hizbullah trained for this for a long time." Dror said. "I'm not looking for a medal. My Position commander L1. Ran, 22 motio is: Wherever you can con-tribute you should. I'm combat fit so I am here," he said. The Nahal soldier, most aged glad the army had decided to act after months of restraint. The father of two from Reut said his troops have carried out ambushes and reconnaissance patrols, and is now allowed to open fire on Hizbullah terrorists without the encumbrance of getting higher approval. "There is relief. We have find temporary homes

MORAN Albo, 15. arrived in the Tel Aviv area with 74 children, ages 10-15, in two buses from Nahariya vesterday morning. She came not because she was afraid, but "because I'm a youth counselor, so they suggested I come with the kids," she said from the Ramat Aviv Gimmel bome of Liora Cohen. The other children were staying in other homes in the 「「おおろう」の人の、「ない」の「いう」

for wc

7

- J. le 4 Fr

- AK:60-

P1 20 20

The C

11100

R qi Qi

- REIS

U A T R

-Fi bild

HELEN KAYE

Those fleeing the North

The Cohens are one of the more than 1,000 Tel Aviv families who responded to a request by the Prime Minister's Office to offer shelter to families from the North, and similar offers have been flooding in from all over the country. Spokesmen for the Ramat Gan hotel. Tel Aviv is looking after more than 100 Beduin children

Kibbutz Yizreel mourns the passing of its friend

ERIC LUCAS

and offers deepest condojences to the family

We mourn the passing of our dear friend and offer our deepest condolences to the members of his family.

ROBERT CARR

> His Chevra from Young Judaea, Camp Hatzofeh and Hanoar Hazioni

In great sorrow we announce the passing after a serious illness of our dear wife, mother and grandmother

JUDITH (DITER) AKSELRAD

(née Sabath) Born August 28, 1922 in Radauz Bukowina, died aged 74

The funeral will take place today, Tuesday, April 16, 1996 at the Savyon cemetery at 3:00 p.m. Shiva at the Akselrad home, 10 Rehov Uri, Tel Aviv

> Husband: Son and daughter-in-law: Daughter and son-in-law: Grandchildren:

Majer Akselrad Michei and Sherii Akseirad Margit and Motti Sztrum Anthony, Simon, Jonathan. Netanei, Alana, Natalle

500 families had volunteered, "but so far there have been no takers." The UN Security Council, con-Both cities are sheltering chilvening early yesterday to discuss dren in hotels or schools. Rishon the Israeli elosure of the territowas expecting 70 children from ries, immediately became entan-Kiryat Shmona yesterday, and Ramat Gan is putting up 35 chilgled with the hostilities in Lebanon.

A discussion of the closure had been scheduled for the morning, while the meeting on Lebanon was not expected to begin until last night. In the words of one Israel pundit yesterday, "This morning we'll be condemned about collective punishment and then tonight we'll be condemned for our 'acts of aggression.' However, the tone was set by the morning's first speaker, Dr. Nasser Kidwa, the Palestinian observer at the United Nations, who said, "We condemn the Israeli attacks on Lebanese villages and cities. "We reiterate our solidarity with the Lebanese people in their steadfastness and determination to bring the occupation to an end."

Egypt called on Israel to withdraw from Lebanon and then assailed the closure of the territories. Saying there have been both Palestinian and Israeli extremists, Ambassador Nahil Araby said terror cannot be exploited to impose collective punishment.

deal with acts of aggression.

Ya'acobi castigated the Palestinians for snarling the issue

AACI offers to host Anglos

THE Association of Americans and Canadians in Israel is offering to find housing for any Anglo Saxon in the North who wants to flee the Katyushas. AACI is calling on all of its members who want to help to contact its offices. David London, head of the AACI's northern region, said more than 20 families have already offered short-term housing to those fleeing the Katyushas.

The AACI office in the North can be reached at (04) 8384319. Arich O'Sullivan

MARILYN HENRY NEW YORK

council

at Security Council debate

ebanon overshadows closure of Lebanon with the elosure, which he insisted is not collective punishment, but a security measurc.

For its part, the US regretted that there was a meeting on the closure at all. "Such a discussion cannot help the peace process," said Madeleine Albright, the American envoy. "It can only polarize that already difficult situation and distract us from the focus of our real challenges: to combat terror, guarantee security, ease the economie dislocation of the Palestinians."

The Security Council was not expected to issue a resolution or a presidential statement on the closure, a prospect to which Kidwa seemed reconciled. The Beirut government is seeking an immediate cease-fire and Israeli withdrawal.

"What I am asking from the because of American support for Israel. However, a statement by the president of the council was possible.

"Hopefully the council will not take action," Ya'acobi told reporters early yesterday. "This is self-defense." Jerusalem hopes any statement would be balanced by blaming Hizbollah for the attacks and holding Lebanon's government responsible for controlling its territory, sources said.

02-24128

The Continuing Search for Perpetrators of the Holocaust The renewed interest in the efforts to prosecute the perpetrators of the Holocaust was sparked by revelations that Allied countries such as USA, UK, Canada and Australia had afforded a postwar haven to thousands of Nazi collaborators. Etraim Zuroff, director, of the Israel Office of the Simon Wiesenthal Center and coordinator of the Center's research on Nazi war criminals, discusses in his book how Nazi-hunting was revived in the seventies, how it was carried out in the eighties and whether it can continue in the nineties.

Foreword by Rabbi Marvin Hier. Published by KTAV. Hardcover, 374 pp.

JP Price NIS 139 Incl. VAT, p.&h. in Israel

	To: Books, The	Jerusalem Post, PO	B 81, Jerusalem	91000	:
	Please send me check payable t	a copy of Occupation The Jerusalem Po	tion: Nazi Hunte ost, or credit card	r. Enclosed is my details	- 1 - 1
	🗇 VISA	ISRACARD
I	CC No

Name
City	Code ID No
Tei.(day)	Signature

bow long we'll stay. I don't know how to thank the people here. I have no words." The phone number to call to host children is is

The Egyptian envoy then challenged the council to take some action, saying its silence would weaken its ability in the future to

Israeli Ambassador Gad

분승은 방울에서 가지?

Street Low

Ince

and the second

-- / · · · · · · · · ·

201 - C. S. A.

Maria (1997)

.

1100 1

6 T. T

1.44

100

1.41

a service and the service of the ser

The Jerusalem Post Tuesday, April 16, 1996

New York survivors commemorate Holocaust

SURVIVORS gathered here Sunday to commemorate the Holocaust in a two-hour ceremony which featured liturgical music, speeches, a communal recitation of Kaddish, and three sets of candle-lightings.

The event was not a community-wide commemoration. Unlike virtually every other major American Jewish community, New York's commemoration is organized exclusively by the survivors. This has led to some awkward situations in which communal leaders have privately gruanbled about the program, but refuse to air their grievances publicly for fear of upsetting the survivors. The effect is that the commemoration, organized by the Warsaw Ghetto . Resistance Organization/American Gathering of Jewish Holocaust Survivors, becomes an event for survivors, not for community remembrance. Some 3,000 people filled MARILYN HENRY NEW YORK

Temple Emann-el, the 150-yearold Reform congregation on Fifth Avenue. Some Orthodox leaders had refused to attend because it was held at a Reform synagogue. The event was somber and celebrity-free, unlike last year when President Bill Clinton, then foreign minister Shimon Peres, and Ashkenazi Chief Rabbi Yisrael Lau participated. One million people will be com-memorating the Shoah this week in the US, said Benjamin Meed, the organization's president. Yet that also was a sobering bit of information, because that number represents only 20 percent of the American Jewish community and doe not take into account what doe not take into account what had been expected to be the major impact of the US Holocaust Memorial Museum. The recent terror attacks in Israel and the current hostilities in Lebanon were prominent in the speeches of the dignitaries.

Representative Tom Lantos of California, a survivor from Hungary, said he rejoiced that there is a State of Israel, "with a might unmatched in the region, that will see to it that peace returns to Kiryat Shmona."

"We must support Israel as it moves to smash the terrorists from its midst," said New York Governor George Pataki. Noting that it has been 50 years since the Noremberg trials, Pataki said that the world must condemn terrorists, who are "guilty of crimes against humanity."

We will have "the ultimate Jewish revenge," said Avraham Burg, head of the Jewish Agency, "the revenge of peace."

Meed told Burg to take a message back to Israel. "We are with you," Meed said. "We will remain forever with you."

Bereaved fail

A MOSLEM family's unique act of humanity and bravery during the Holocaust has developed into a saga which has spanned more than half a century. When Zajneba Hardaga of

BATSHEVA TSUR

Sarajevo forged an unflinching bond with the Jewish people by opening her door to three families in danger of being annihilated by the Nazis, she could not have imagined the impact it would have on her children.

Today her daughter, Sarah (born Aida) Pacanac, is an archivist at Yad Vashem and an Orthodox Jew.

"I am just another link in the chain my mother started 50 years ago," Pacanac said yesterday. In 1941, the Hardagas agreed to hide their neighbors, the Kabilios - as well as two other Jewisb families - in their home, even though Nazi headquarters were across the street. Tova Kabilio-Grinberg, who was three at the time, never forgot - and in 1985 sbe arranged to have the family recognized hy Yad Vashem as Righteous Gentiles. Members of the family visited Israel at that time and planted a tree by the Avenue of the Righteous.

STOL

Then, in the summer of 1992, when the figbting in Sarajevo was at a peak, Kahilio-Grinberg managed to contact her former saviors, although most of the telephone lines in the besieged city were down. The Hardagas told her that the conditions in Sarajevo were appalling.

Kabilio-Grinberg immediately invited members of the family to stay with her in Jerusalem. One of Hardaga's daughters and her children managed to board the last plane out. The story, first pub-lisbed in The Jerusalem Post, made headlines around the world. But Hardaga, an amputee who was then 73, remained in Sarajevo, where ber condition deteriorated from lack of food and medication. In November 1993, families helped their survival

Later, at a Jerusalem ceremony where prime minister Yitzhak Rabin awarded the family Israeli citizenship, the feeling was enhanced.

"You are our sister," Absorption Minister Yair Tzaban told the Righteous Gentile and she responded: "My family will repay your kindness.'

Hardaga, a devout Moslem, did not stand in her daughter's way.

"Mother (who died nine months after her arrival in Israel] was a superb psychologist and educa-tor," Pacanac said. "She believed in freedom of choice. When we started to study Judaism, she did not intervene ... I was always interested in Judaism and we had many Jewish friends. I liked the way the Jews stuck together both in sorrow and in joy. It felt right to me to be Jewish, like a body with two hands."

A year ago, before Pessah, the Pacanacs were formally converted. In May, Sarab's husband, now known as Moshe, had a brit mila. The following month, her daughter Esther celebrated her bat mitzva. Then, in September, Sarah and Moshe were remarried in a Jewish ceremony. Moshe, who suffers from multiple sclerosis, has also been given part-time work at Yad Vashem's computer department. Their story is to appear in the Yad Vashem magazine later this month.

The family lives in Jerusalem's Kirvat Yovel quarter - about equidistant from the Grinbergs and from their new friends in Bayit Vegan with whom they study and spend Shabbat. Esther has transferred to a religious school, where she excels in Torah studies.

plc

Эп

ent up-the ulu

'aT-

thu

ion

0V-tha nds

ays the

hed

ded

oti-

e to

: on na-

ion

suc-

ers. 15, "

1 in dis-

rec-

AP)

kup

issal

firsı

26,

sted

cabıd is it of

Nac-

cted

lert-

3

JUC

1 the ר by srael

:m

B۵

4

. p.

51 8

ЗВ

_

und

Sarab says she is grateful for getting work at Yad Vashem, where she can "make a contribution" to the people who took her family in.

After experiencing the hell in Sarajevo and being a refugee, she says, "I learned never to take any-thing for granted."

selves to take revenge on Israel The IDF said troops were on

"Now they have very high motivation to carry out these attacks and we are deploying against that

Hizbullah also tbreatened to too," Zucker said.

250,000 survivors live here

THERE are some 250,000 Holocanst survivors living in Israel, about 164,000 of them 65 or older. This was found by a study con-ducted by the Association for the Planning and Development of Services for the Elderly in Israel (ESHEL) and the Joint-Israel. Of the elderly survivors, 30 percent are 65-69; 46% are 70-79; and 24% are 80 or older.

About 50,000 survivors have arrived from the former Soviet Union since 1989. Jerusalem Post Staff

Settlers' council censures members who talked with PA

HERB KEINON

THE Council of Jewish Communities in Judea, Samaria, and Gaza last night censured the three members of its board whomet in secret with Palestinian Authority representatives over the. last two years, but stopped short of kicking them off the council. Council spokesman Ahron Domb said after a three-hour

Even so, council sources said

Harel, Elitzur, and Waldman all spoke at the closed meeting and Explanations ranged from trying to pave the way for future meet-themselves.

Binyamin

mes of a few

Authority."

to calls to change the structure of the council, now run by a direc-torate that includes the heads of the local and regional councils in the territories, and a small number of public figures elected in the 1980s.

One restructuring plan is to hold elections for the slots held by the public figures and to allow meeting that the council "meetuvocally rejects the meet-Israelis inside the Green Line who identify with the settlement representatives of the Palestinian the council, to vote as well as settlers. Another suggestion, first The members who met with the raised by Ma'aleh Adumim Mayor Benny Kasriel three Palestinians were its chairman, months ago, is to have the council Yisrael Harel, Nelauda editor Uri Elitzur, and Rabbi Eliczer run solely by the heads of the local and regional councils in the Participants said that yesterterritories. Waldman, Harel, and Elitzur, all day's meeting dealt with the issues involved in the controverveterans of the early Gush Emunim campaigns, are all public sial discussions with the Palestinians, but not the three par-: figures on the council. ticipants. This is to be dealt with A small group of protesters call-

in Munich Olympic massacre damages bid

MUNICH (Renter) - Five rela-tives of Israeli athletes killed by Palestinian terrorists at the 1972 Munich Olympics failed in court yesterday to secure damages from German authorities, whom they accuse of bungling a rescue bid. The court declared the suits to have been withdrawn after the relatives failed to post bonds to ensure that their legal costs would be covered.

The same court in October threw out a damages claim by 22 other relatives of the 11 athletes killed by the Black September group, ruling that the cases were already covered by a 1973 compensation agreement.

Those cases are now going to appeal. Two remaining cases will be heard on May 6.

The suits, with claims totaling 40 million marks ($27m.), have all been directed against the German national government, the State of Bavaria, and Munich city authorities.

and her children, the Pacanacs, (Continued from Page 1)

or near villages - no longer exists. We are freer to fire at what we shas. Four children were lightly believe are terrorists or what we injured in Western Galilee. think is about to become a launch of a Katyusha," Zucker said. ground near a synagogue. The minutes.

But soldiers at one position in south Lehanon said that they

Hizbullah has vowed to turn northern Israel into a "fiery hell"

and fired fresh harrages of Katyu-

(Continued from Page 1)

bolster his position before next position to disarm Hizbullah as want us to do is make the occupa-

In a meeting with ambassadors

based in Israel, Foreign Ministry

Director-General Uri Savir said said.

'[The Israelis] are occupying long Israel stays in the country.

Bond forged between two

Sarah Pacanac, a refugee from Sarajevo who converted to Judaism after moving here, hugs her daughter Esther in front of a memorial at Yad Vashem, where she warks. (Isaac Harari)

Jewish."

HIZBULLAH

Another rocket slammed to the at a rate of about one every 20

most of the Half a

after the authorities removed ber boarded a rescue convoy orgafrom a convoy that was leaving nized by the American Jewish the war-torn city, the head of Joint Distribution Committee. Sarajevo's Jewisb community, "On the way to Zagreb [from lvan Cerejsnes, intervened. He where the refugees left for Israel], I had made up my mind that I would become Jewisb," Sarah Pacanac said yesterday. "I had a made an impassioned plea, through the Post, for Israeli government intervention. This was kind of feeling of belonging, as if On February 5, 1994, Hardaga one of my ancestors bad been and the US.

alert for suicide attacks.

: ! . -y , 1 , . - 1 Waldman.

)SUIC ate

2.10

· · · -

· · ·

1.000

.

RA

Netanyahu and Palestinian represcatatives, to not realizing the depth of the opposition to the move, to not understanding that . some of the Palestinian partners in the discussion were ranking members of the PA. Yehuda Lieberman, head of the Karnei Shomron Regional later.

explained

ings between

Council, said although calls to remove the three were heard immediately following revelations of the meetings, any changes at the council would likely wait until after the Knesset elections. The meetings with the ing for the removal of the three protested in front of the Menorah Hotel in Jerusalem during yesterday's meeting there.

Palestinians has given momentum

(Continued from Page 1)

"What they did was irresponsible," said one protester, Hebron activist Moshe Ben-Zinna. "It is immoral for them to speak to murderers, and it is inconceivable that they would do this at a time when the Right is saying it is immoral to talk to murderers."

Among the Palestinians involved in the talks (organized by Joseph Alpher, director of the Israel/Middle East Office of the American Jewish Committee) were Mahmud Dahalan, head of the Preventive Security Services in Gaza, Sufian Abu Zaydeh, head of the PA's Israel desk, Hassan Asfour, a high-ranking negotiator in the peace talks, Khalil Shkaki, head of a Nablus think tank, and Yazid Sayig, a Cambridge profes-SOL

HOLOCAUST

IDF cantor recited "El Ma'ale Rahamim."

will participate in the ceremony.

The main memorial ceremony at Yad Vashem's Hall of Rememian workers allowed into Israel from 3,000 to 10,000. The minimum worker's age was lowered

CELLULAR PHONES

Rentai/Sales

From 6 shekels/day only monthly rate bat in: 950 shekels/day yat

deo City, 43 Jaffa Rd., Zion S

02-234539

from 45 to 40.

brance will take place at 1 p.m.

We send words of encouragement from this ceremony to the people of the North, to the citizens of Kirvat Shmona, to our soldiers, and wishes for a speedy recovery to the wounded," she declared. "The land is not yet er Shevah Weiss, public figures, quiet, but there is much room for organization representatives, surbope." vivors, and pupils and delegations from around the country

Following "The Partisans" Song," the chief IDF chaplain read a memorial prayer. Then the audience rose silently to its feet as a survivor said Kaddish, and the

HAWATMEH increased the number of Palestin-

(Continued from Page 1) attend. But doubts about permits for others threatened to reduce participation below the required two-thirds, as some participants threatened to stay away in solidarity with those barred by Israel.

The closure, and possibly the operation in Lebanon, could also influence the PNC vote. In a confidence-building meakilled two athletes and look nine others hostage as they broke into Isracli team quarters at the have not fled and are hiding in Olympics in a spectacular attack their homes. intended to focus attention on "I can tell you that we tried not their campaign against Israel. to hit them," said one soldier.

Police mounted a rescue attempt at Fuerstenfeldbruck Airport outside Munich after the gunmen and hostages were taken there by helicopter, but all nine captives died in the shootout, along with five Palestinians and a policeman.

month's election. He said the Ruling on the first 22 cases, the Lebanese government is not in a court said a statute of limitations had passed in 1975, rejecting relatives' arguments that it was not until 1992 they finally saw reports part of our country. What they of the police rescue operation which allegedly showed it was culpably bungled. Legal technicalities prevented tion easy. We cannot do this," he them also reaching a verdict on the other seven suits in October.

Holocaust memorial in Prague synagogue

PRAGUE, Czech Republic (AP) - A unique memorial listing all the available names of Czech Jews killed by Nazis in World War II was unveiled yesterday in Prague's 15th century Pinkas synagogue.

Three teams of artists and calligraphers needed almost four years to restore some $0,000 names listed in red oil paint inside the synagogue's light yellow walls. Dates of birth are colored

The Shioto Carlebark Foundation Province

Produced by the Shlomo Carlebach Foundation, this is a beautiful tribute to the memory of the "Singing Rabbi", released in time for his Yahrzeit. The Sweetest Friends is a set of two audio cassettes. The Gift of Shabbos includes Elivahu HaNavi, Dovid Melech, Ylsm'chu, Yibineh HaMikdash and more, and the Shuvah includes Tzur Yisroel, Od Yishama, Niggun and Shamor V'Zachor, among others.

JP Price NIS 45, incl. VAT, p & p in Israel

REMEMBER THE SINGING RABBI ...

To: JP Music Club, The Jerusalem Post, POB 81, Jerusalem 91000 Please send me _____ sets of The Sweetest Friends, at NIS 45 each. Enclosed is my check, payable to The Jerusalem Post. D2-241282 Credit card orders accepted by phone/fax.

Name
Address
City	Code
Tel. (day)	Signature
Please list gift recipients' n For overseas alimail, pleas	ames and addresses separately. 1e addi NIS9 per address.

blast and very minor damage was could see that a small number of people, particularly the elderly, caused.

sev yard absor

swift in coming.

By last night, Hizbullah had succeeded in firing some 50 Katyushas into Israel. But they came one or two at a time, signifying the difficulty Hizbuilah is having larger and more accurate barrages.

DIPLOMATIC

matic settlement could be worked out based on strengthening the US-broketed understandings reached in the aftermath of Operation Accountability, according to a statement issued by his office.

Those understandings on based upon the principle of essentially containing fighting to the security zone, and keeping Lebanese civilians north of the area and Israeli citizens south of the area out

Interviewed on Channel 2, Peres said Israel would have to remain in the security zone for the time being. He said the fate of treated for shock after the hit Israeli embassies and interests attacks. In Lebanon, 50 suicide bomb-of negotiations with Syria.

Israel found support for its pofense Secretary Michael Portillo.

with the Palestinians, that it is the right of every country to have Portillo blamed Hizhullah for the current escalation of violence. "The civilians have been put in danger by Hizbullah, by terrorists who have been operating within civilian areas, firing security and defend herself."

zen peñole

This was far less than on Sunday, when Katyusbas were hitting worldwide. Its deputy leader, ers with explosives strapped to Sheikh Nacem Qassem, said, their chest were shown on Hiz-"We will not give them safety and bullah TV. Calling themselves security for free. Let them take precautions and measures and let the "Brigade of Martyroom-Lovers," they chanted an oath of allethem know they are in danger giance and vowed to kill them- 'anywhere and at any time."

> their rockets from the very center of villages.

"I don't believe that israel the zone would be decided as part wishes to kill any civilians and for that reason, civilians have been withdrawing for their own security. But of course when terrorists sition from visiting British Deoperate in this way, civilian lives are put in danger, which is one of While touring the North, Portillo said, "We understand that Israel the reasons that we condemn has worked tirelessly to achieve terrorism Hizbullah peace with her neighbors and unreservedly."

At the request of French President Jacques Chirac, who recently visited Lebanon and favors an enhanced role for France in the the region, Foreign Minister Herve de Charette arrived in Jerusalem and beld talks with Peres and Foreign Minister Ehud Barak

ORDER BY PHONE OF FAX ORDER BY PHONE OF FAX <td< td=""><td></td></td<>
Address
-	Code
Tel. (day)	ID No,
Signature	ويتحديك الأراك المالية المتحد فيرتعوني ويوادي ويواديها

he sees the next few days as cridcal in deciding whether a diploof harm's way. 6,000 youths to march in Poland WARSAW, Poland (AP) -

About 6,000 Jewish young people from around the world will march from the Auschwitz death camp today to gas chambers where the Nazis murdered 1.5 million Jews. The participants - students from Israel, the US and 36 other countries - visited the Warsaw Ghetto Memorial last night.

WORLD NEWS

ومستعمد مراد الدين توجز موقوم كالجارين

Oldest survivor to visit Titanic site

BOSTON (AP) - The oldest survivor of the sinking of the Titanic wants to visit the site this summer. and throw a rose into the ocean where her father went down with the ship 84 years ago.

"It could be a sort of remembrance for my mother," said Dorothy Kendall, daughter of Edith Haisman, 99, who was a passenger on the ocean liner that sank on its maiden voyage after hitting an iceberg.

Kendall said she and her mother, who lives in Southampton, England, plan to be on the cruise ship Royal Majesty. which will leave Boston on August 25 to take passengers to the site of the sinking about 400 miles off Newfoundland.

Passengers will be able to watch recovery of artifacts and a small section of the Titanic on closed circuit television.

The ship, two miles below the surface, was located in 1985 by oceanographer Robert Ballard. Kendall said her mother, who will need a nurse for the trip, was not quite 16 when the boat, headed from England to New York, sank on April 15, 1912.

Haisman is alert and remembers the sinking, her daughter said.

Kendall said Haisman's father put her and her mother in a lifeboat

"He (Edith's father) was talking to the Rev. Carter and smoking a cigar," Kendall said. "That was the last time she saw her father. He said, 'I'll see you in New York.

Kendall said her mother remembers a man jumping into the lifeboat after it was launched and a ship's officer yelling at him. "I've got a good mind to shoot you." "She saw the ship go down from half a mile away," Kendall said. "The lights were on, and the band was playing.

"The next morning she saw bodies, a lot of bodies in the water, some in their pajamas, some in vests, some only in underpants. "She had nightmares for years, but she's got over it," Kendall said She said her mother married in South Africa and had 10 children.

Pavarotti's new love is bored by opera

Szymon Serafinowicz, 85, leaves Dorking Magistrates' Court yesterday after being committed for trial for murdering three Jews during World War II. Britain's War Crimes Act was invoked for the first time yesterday. See adjacent story. (Reuter) linton on Asian heal-and-build

PRESIDENT Clinton headed into Asia yesterday on a mission to heal and advance relations hetween the United States and its main military allies in the region, South Korea and Japan. In South Korea, his first stop today, Clinton will try to bring "ultimate reconcilation" to the Cold War's last frontier.

In Japan, he holds from today through Thursday what his Defense Secretary William Perry calls the "most significant summit since the end of the Cold War" as the United States seeks to defuse anti-US feelings without compromising Asia's security needs.

The last leg of the president's weeklong, around-the-world trip takes him to Moscow for a nuclear safery and security summit featuring Boris Yeltin, as well as leaders of Britain, France, Germany, Italy, Canada, Japan and Ukraine.

Watching the trip closely is China, which says it hopes Clinton's trip into its backyard will not bring "new problems".

Returning to an area he last visited three years ago. Clinton's eyes this time are fixed more on military matters than booming US trade with Asia.

"It (Clinton's trip) sends a message to the entire region of our continued interest and committment," a White House official said before Clinton left.

The president's first task is to reassure South Koreans that the United States still stands firmly behind them and will not make a unilateral peace with communist North Korea

But Clinton told reporters accompanying him that he wanted also to bring "ultimate reconciliation" to the two Koreas.

News agencies TOKYO

Sirens wailed across South Korea and air force fighters posing as communist invaders streaked over cities in case Pyongyang tried to disrupt meetings.

Tension on the Korean Peninsula has risen sharply since Pyongyang announced it was ahandoning its obligations under the armistice agreement that ended the 1950-53 Korean War, then followed with three troop incursions into Panmunjom.

North Korea's Korean Central News Agency, which has said the United States is trying to rule Asia, described the exercise as part of Seoul's "war fever".

In Tokyo tens of thousands of police took to the streets yesterday for a massive security sweep on the eve of the state visit.

Armored police vans cruised central Tokvo, helicopters patrolled key areas, and officers comhed train and subway stations. Security was particularly tight at sites where Clinton's itinerary will take him, including areas close to Imperial Palace and the government guesthouse, both in the center of town.

Police said yesterday a small unexploded firebomh had been found on a road near the Parliament building. Police said the gasolinefilled bottle could do little damage if went off and was probably left by someone trying cause a "nuisance.

At police checkpoints, officers pulled over cars to check trunks and stopped pedestrians for spot checks of briefcases. Even baby carriages were being inspected.

The heavy security measures slowed traffic to a near-crawl near Haneda airport, where

Clinton is to arrive this afternoon. With more than 22,000 officers mobilized, it was the biggest police alert in Japan since the deployment of 25,000 police to guard a summit meeting of the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation forum last November in Osaka. Clinton could not attend that meeting because of a hudget standoff with Congress, so his state visit to Tokyo was delayed until now. Because of the postponement, he now has a new counterpart - Prime Minister Ryutaro

Hashimoto, who took office in January. The opening of the trial of doomsday cult leader Shoko Asahara was at one point set for this week, when it would have coincided with Clinton's stay. It was hastily rescheduled for nextweek.

Even so, authorities were jittery about Aum Shinri Kyo cult. Most of its leaders are in jail, but a handful remain at large.

Police were also preparing to watch a rally being staged in Tokvo by citizens' groups supporting an Okinawan landowner demanding the return of his land from the US military Okinawa had erupted in anger last September with the rape of a 12-year-old schoolgirl, in which three US servicemen were convicted. The attack galvanized longstanding opposition to the US military presence."

However, some of Okinawa's anger was alleviated with word from Japanese officials and Defense Secretary William Perry that the US military would give back to Okinawa about 20 percent of the island property it uses for training.

The land return is the biggest since the United States relinquished control of the island in 1972.

Stage set for first British war crimes trial

ceived the news "with interest"

but reaction was generally low-has every confidence in the fairness of our criminal justice system and in the ability of our courts to ensure justice," said Neville

Ngaler, chairman of the Board of Deputies which represents Jews in Like many Byelorussians who opposed Russia's communist rule,

Serafinowicz became a volunteer member of the police force set up by the Nazis during their occupa-

After the war, Serafinowicz came to Britain with his Polish-born wife. He settled in the southern county of Surrey where he made his living as a carpenter until following an investigation hy a spe-trial under the 1991 War Crimes

Act, which allows British courts to prosecute war criminals even though they were not British citizens when they committed their crimes and their offences did not

The war crimes unit has investigated around 350 cases since it was set up in 1991, but many of the suspects have died and many more have been told they are no longer take place on British soil.

cial police war crimes unit.

He was charged in June 1995

He was the first person to face

non, which began in 1941.

Britain.

his retirement.

"The British Jewish community

DORKING (Reuter) - An elderly refugee from the former Soviet Union will face Britain's first war crimes trial after magistrates ruled yesterday he should answercharges that he murdered three Jews during World War II.

Magistrate Peter Badge said 85year-old Szymon Serafinowicz, a retired carpenter, must face three charges of killing unnamed Jews in the former Soviet republic of Belarus between 1941 and 1942. when the region was under German occupation.

Serafinowicz, frail and bent, appeared bewildered by the proceedings and had to turn his head to hear the ruling.

The charge sheet accuses him of murdering unnamed Jews between November 1941 and March 1942 in villages of Mir, Kryniczne and Dolmatowsczczyzna when the region was under German occupation. Defense lawyer Nicholas Bowers said Serafinowicz continued to maintain his innocence. "He has instructed me to prepare a full and vigorous defense to those charges. He is in fact looking forward to establishing his innocence before a jury."

After the ruling, the court clerk read out the indictment and asked Serafinowicz if he understood what was going on.

Serafipowicz, a small man wearing a cap and an old jacket, said merely, "Yes."

Currently, the unit is carrying out inquiries into another 11 war The case is expected to be heard later this year. Britain's Jews recrimes suspects.

Zhirinovsky vows not to support Yeltsin

MOSCOW (AP) - Vladimir Zhirinovsky, an ultranationalist candidate for the Russian presidency, said yesterday that he would not throw his support to President Bo-ris Yeltsin if a run-off ballot is required after June's election.

Zhirinovsky, one of four officially registered candidates, said he would not consider supporting Yeltsin or Communist candidate Gennady Zyuganov if he is knocked off the ballot in the first round of voting on June 16.

"I'm not tossing my votes to anyone," Zhirinovsky told the Interfax news agency.

Zhirinovsky said he was Russia's last hope.

Fulfilling at least one campaign "A choice between Yeltsin and Zyuganov is a catastrophe for Ruspromise, Yeltsin signed a decree yesterday on raising pensions to eck for

Fabled Trojan gold goes on show under investigation.

the integrity of the Russian govermment and drag this country out of crisis.

The Communist leader has been leading in the polls, but recent public opinion surveys show the president is narrowing the gap.

The only other candidate officially registered with the Election Commission so far is former Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev.

"Yeitsin, meanwhile, was taking his campaign yesterday to the southern city of Krasnodar near the Black Sea. It was the president's second foray into the Russian heartland in two weeks in his quest for a second term.

ia." he said. "Only I can maintain offset losses due to inflation.

MILAN (AP) - The other woman in Luciano Pavarotti's life says she prefers rock music to opera.

"At the beginning we had a lot of prohlems because 1 was bored to death by listening to opera," Nicoletta Mantovani told the Italian newspaper Corriere della Sera in an interview yesterday.

D.(12)W to

DI Je be fe Te nc ar ar

=

JE tei 42 Fa

At Ke 60

| P| (7 (2)

T/ he 02

RI

qı aç

R EI SE

Name_

City_

Address_

Tel. (Day)_

Ms. Mantovani, Pavarotti's 26year-old secretary, also said she feels much better since her relationship with the tenor has come out in the open.

"We love each other ... the last year was hell ... because I don't like to tell lies." she was quoted as saying. "Since the truth has been revealed I'm happy."

Last month, Pavarotti and his manager-wife Adua agreed to a separation after 35 years of marriage. They have three daughters. They acted after an Italian gossip magazine published photos of the tenor and his secretary walking arm-in-arm and kissing on a Caribbean beach.

From Shabbat candles and holders, with halah cover,

that fits into any suitcase.

Please send me Shabbat Travel Kits.

□ Visa □ Eurocard / MasterCard □ AmEx

the Havdala candle -

JP Special price: NIS 109

spices, and grace after meals, to conveniently packed in a pouch \mathbb{Z}^{L}

To: The Jerusalem Post, POB 81, Jerusalem 91000, Israel

CC Number _____Exp.____

Enclosed is my check, payable to The Jerusalem Post, or see my credit card details:

Mikud

Signature____

OKLAHOMA CITY (Reuter) -Devastated by the Oklahoma City bomb attack, wounded survivors and relatives of the dead struggle to cope with a year of agony before the eyes of the nation.

As they prepare for the first anniversary of the blast that killed 168 people, many say they are assaulted more and more hy the hrutal details of last April 19 and the days and weeks that followed.

Some say they fear Friday's memorial services will force them for the first time to confront emotions they have huried until now. "I've tried to be overzealous, to just be thankful to he here. Now, all of a sudden. some things just hit me," said Arlene Blanchard, 29, an Army recruiting officer who was knocked unconscious by the blast that killed

A unique gift from Jerusalem...

Take Shabbat with you wherever you go!

Oklahoma bomb anniversary revives painful memories

several friends. "This (the anniversary) is going to be a hlow-my-mind day," said Blanchard, who has burn scars on her back but dismisses them as "vanity wounds" that she says do not compare to the emotional scars. One year after the bombing, she has left the army and says she is prone to mood swings. She laughs louder and cries for no apparent reason.

Painfully aware of life's fragility, some survivors and rescue workers who toiled for days to remove bodies from the ravaged Alfred P. Murrah huilding say they now find themselves constantly hugging their children, spouses and friends.

Psychologists say others have coped less well, turning to alcohol, suffering acute depression or feeling unable to communicate properly with anyone who was not inside the federal building when the blast tore it apart. While charity groups have arranged psychological therapy for survivors and family members, each bas his or her own way of coping and of trying to rebuild their lives. Bud Welch visits the downtown site of the bomhing every day because, he says, it is where his 23-year-old daughter was last alive. Pulling out photographs of Julie's graduation from bigh school and Marquette College, Welch sounded like any proud father. boasting of her kind heart, her ability to speak several languages and how she had sent off applications for graduate school Shortly after her death, one of the colleges telephoned to offer Julie a spot on its programme. As he recounted the story, Bud

C 02-241282 Fax: 02-241212

I O VISA

CC No.

Name

City_

Tel (day)_

Welch stopped and said simply: "She was the best friend I ever had in my life. We were extremely close.

The memories of lives lost and the bomb itself bave intensified in recent days but some believe the anniversary - and going through the pain attached to it - is a key part of the healing process. "It's a hurdle we bave to get over," said Paul Heath, a survivor of the blast and a psychologist with the Veterans' Administration. "Once we get by the anniversary, we will see an upswing in people's lives".

The anniversary memorials will hardly be private. Visiting government dignitaries, a new security operation and an army of reporters will once again put the mourners on centre stage. Some say their wishes are heing ignored.

FLORA OF ISRAEI

BEAUTIFUL PLANTS OF THE BIBLE

From the hyssop to the mighty cedar, over 100

despite German objections

MOSCOW (AP) - One of the most famous archaeological finds in history, a stunning collection of gold from ancient Troy, was unveiled vesterday as Russia stepped up its clash with Germany over World War II "trophy" art.

The Trojan Gold, also known as King Priam's Treasure since its discovery over a century ago, had lain in Pushkin Museum vaults for half a century since the victorious Red Army scooped it up in Berlin.

The treasure goes on public display for the first time today to the chagrin of German officials who have been negotiating without success for its return.

Amhassador Ernst York von Studnitz, speaking at the museum's news conference, did his best to couch Germany's displeasure in diplomatic terms. But he stated clearly that the opening should have been done in cooperation with the Germans, who still possess the majority – albeit less glittering part – of the collection. "I think it is a step towards normalcy that these things, after 50 years in hiding, are surfacing again," he said in an interview afterward. But, he added, "I would not say that this is a matter of rejoicing."

The German Embassy issued a statement lamenting that the problem has arisen "when German-Russian relations are especially close and built on trust and when Germany regards itself as the best partner of Russia."

The stunning haul of gold from the ancient Greek city of Troy was excavated by German amateur archaeologist Heinrich Schliemann in 1873 and sent hack to Berlin. He was convinced at the time that it belonged to Priam, king of the city that was featured in Homer's epic poem, The Iliad.

The treasure from the site, which is now in northwestern Turkey, was later determined to date to about 2500 BC, long before Homer. The Pushkin stunned the world in 1993 by revealing it had the long-lost treasure. · · · · · · · · · 12.2

Section .

photographed in c		has the thread of the second sec			· · · ·	· · · · · · · · ·
300 OF Mon desc Atthe of wi prov Com	Darom. Softcover all WILD FLOWER ISRAEL e than 140 colorful p ribed and photograp ough not close to cal ild flowers in this cou ide a wide sampling veniently indaxed by nd, fits in a backpack	burn, 47 pp. RS bages of 300 wild fit phed in their native taloging the entire untry, Azaria Alon d of Israel's flora. y color. Softcover, s k. Published by SPI	sites. range loes	SYRIA AND ISF From War to Per Moshe Ma'oz examine relations between Isra throughout the Middle demonstrating its cruc the strategic posture of for the fate of the Pate and for the prospects Middle East peace set Published by Oxford U 1995. Hardcover, 262 JP Price NIS 1 plus NIS 6 p & h	eace-making as the history of el and Syria Eastern conflict, sal importance for of both countries, setinian problem, of an overall ttlement. Jniversity Press, pp. 49
To: Books, the Jerusal Please send me FLOR/ Enclosed is my check fo	IN ISRAEL PACKA	AGE	Post, or	To : Books, The Jerusalem Please send me Syria and NIS 155 payable to The Je UVISA DISRACARD	d Israel by Moshe Ma erusalem Post, or crev	toz. Enclosed is my ch
credit card details.			!	CC No		Eva
CC No.	SRACARD I	DINERS Exo.	:	Name	•
Name			!	Address
Address			i	City		0-1-
City		Code		Tel. (day)	ID No	Code
Tel (day)		ID No.		Signature

lŷr

lish

VOWSDE

Veltsin

.

:1

• •

1 2120

1 up hather

 $_{\rm F}<21^{-1}$

-re- 42

 $< 10^{\circ}$

21.8

÷.,

Sec. 17.

- s : [

4 trial

The Jerusalem Post Tuesday, April 16, 1996

WORLD NEWS

German critics slam new US book on Holocaust

BONN (Reuter) - Hitler's Willing Executioners, the highly touted new American book claiming to explain the Nazi slaughter of the Jews, is getting slammed by German critics who reject it as a starkly one-sided study of the Holocanst.

Scathing reviews of the controversial book by Harvard assistant professor Daniel Jonah Goldhagen are now appearing daily in Germany's leading newspapers after the first excerpts were published in German last week.

Two bastions of German journalism, the Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung and Der Spiegel, joined the chorus yesterday to dismiss the book's main argument that pre-Hitler Germany was a society "pregnant with mnrder" and just waiting to kill all the Jews in its midst.

"We don't dispute the horrors." Der Spiegel's publisher Rudolf Augstein wrote. But to say thar all Germans wanted to kill Jews was "at best ignorant, if not in fact malicious".

The Sueddeutsche Zeitung's Josef Joffe asked: "If history poisoned all Germans to be a people of eliminationist antisemites, why aren't they that way today - and forever?"

Some reviewers hinted the book could harm German-American relations by stirring up a deeply negative view of Germany in the United States.

But all agreed the controversy showed Germany was still haunted by the wartime slaughter of the six million, even if last year's 50th anniversary of the end of World War II suggested the issue was slowly retreating into history. In 461 angry pages, Goldhagen argues German antisemitism was nniquely bloodthirsty and that millions of ordinary Germans eagerly took part in or supported the Holocaust.

His forceful prose skilfully portrays the virulence of anti-Jewish hatred and the horrors of police-led pogroms and concentration camp death marches in the last days of the war.

Goldhagen, 36, the son of a Holocaust survivor, says his is a pioneering work because it disproves earlier theories about the Holocaust being the work of sadistic Nazis or frightened Germans simply carrying out orders from above.

The German reviewers, all historians and wellknown commentators, say the book rehashes old discredited theories about the Nazi era and has little original research behind it.

Most historians long ago discarded initial postwar views about inherently evil Germans to focus on the tragic effect racist ideology had on a society weakened by hyperinflation, depression, a wartime defeat and political radicalisation.

"Goldhagen's book has little to do with scholarship and proof," wrote Frank Schirrmacher, cultural editor of the Frankfurter Allgemeine.

"Goldhagen is making a myth out of the Holocaust. If yon believe the book's thesis, the Germans' path into the 21st century can only be viewed with skepticism and fear."

The wave of unusually prompt and hostile reviews faulted Goldhagen for not comparing Nazi genocide to more recent cases of mass murder in Cambodia, Rwanda or Bosnia and not studying the motivations of the Poles, Ukrainians and others who helped the Nazis slaughter the Several reviewers wondered why such a sweeping indictment of the Germans was attracting so much attention now in the United States.

"Maybe this reflects an uncase many Americans have about a reunited Germany," Volker Ullrich said in the weekly Die Zeit.

"If you want to get heard in the fierce media market of the nineties, you need gaudy theories." historian Norbert Frei wrote in dismissing the book as a media event.

The Frankfurter Allgemeine's Schirrmacher said the fact that an academic study with such shortcomings could arouse such attention in the United States was itself a cause for concern.

"Goldhagen's book leaves questions unanswered, including one about the intellectual condition of a society that considers such theories 10 be intellectual progress," he wrote.

Nohle Mohapi, the first witness before the Truth and Reconciliation Commission is sworn in at its first hearing yesterday. The commission will examine abuses of human rights under Apartheid. Mohapi was testifying on the death of her husband. (Reuter)

Bomb threat interrupts hearings into Apartheid secrets

Indonesian army officer kills 15 in shooting spree

JAKARTA (Reuter) - As Indonesian army officer ran amok at a remote airport in Irian Jaya yesterday and shot dead 15 people, including at least 10 soldiers and a New Zealander.

Twelve people were reported. in hospital with gunshot wounds following the dawn shooting spree at Timika airport.

Local sources said the attack occurred after an aircraft carrying the bodies of two soldiers believed hacked to death by jungle tribesmen at the weekend maderces, as saying the two soldiers had been. Soeyono, speaking on staterun TVRI television, said the death toil from the Timika shoot-. ing rose to 15 during the day. He said the attacking officer was a second lieutenant but gave no further details. Antara named the foreigner as Michael Findlay and added the dead included a lieutenant-colonel, a major and a captain. Sources close to the army said they understood some special forces officers were among the

MONROVIA (Reuter) - West

African peacekeepers patrolled the wreckage-strewn streets of Liheria's capital yesterday but made no attempt to balt the Men carrying boxes of goods came and went from a thieves' marker which has sprung up near the mosque. One militia checkpoint was adorned with a garden statne of a Greek town, and a reporter inside the Barclay Training Center har-racks said mortar fire had resumed towards midday after a

Gunshots rang out around looting.

goddess.

confirmed.

A military spokesman, Colonel Sutan Iskandar, said earlier, when the toll was 14, that the dead included 10 soldiers.

Iskandar, said four civilians, including a New Zealander with Indonesia's Airfast airline, were among the dead.

The identity of the 15th person to die was not clear.

Sources close to the nearby Tembagapura hospital, where the injured were being treated, said earlier that up to three surviors had crities condition. The sold in isolation and under dead. This could not be McMoRan Copper and Gold Inc of the United States.

Residents said Timika and the surrounding area, overlooked by jagged peaks and surrounded by jungle, was tense after the shooting. The airport was operating normally.

Jakarta-based diplomats said there was no apparent link between yesterday's shootings and rioting by local tribespeople last month in Timika, a mining town of about 50,000 people.

Io_ karta, following yesterday's shootings. Business sources said earlier they believed the lieutenant had been assigned to escort the bodies of the two soldiers killed at the weekend at Mapunduma, a remote village. One Timika resident said: "A soldier at the airport got mad after learning that one of the two dead soldiers had been his friend. He then fired his gun into the people standing there."

should surrender.

off the streets once ECOMOG peacekeepers deployed around racks estimated some 15,000 10

there. "We're surviving as best

20,000 people were sheltering

Taylor says Johnson is holding people in the harracks as hostages, hut the reporter said people had taken refuge there were afraid to venlure out.

when the fighting began and

"There are no hostages here,

they are refugees and displaced.

They could go but they are afraid. If you go 50 meters from here you could fall into the hands of another rival group and no one knows what plans they

US embassy officials said they had flown out about 1,800 foreigners in a six-day airlift

The reporter inside the har-terrorists," the harracks.

we can," he said.

have for you.'

operation.

reporters.

A bomh threat disrupted historic hearings vesterday aimed at digging up the secrets and healing the wounds of the killings, torture and disappearances of apartheid-era South Africa.

An hour after opening the hearings of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission with a prayer.

Archbishop Desmond Tutu halted testimony and informed a packed auditorium that a bomb threat had been phoned in and police would conduct a security sweep.

This is one of the kinds of things we will have to deal with," Turn apologized. "It makes all of us aware that there are some people who will stop at nothing to prevent this commission from doing its work."

Tutu, who clearly regarded the General Socyono said the mili- ' threat as a hoax, noted that potary had sent investigators to Ti- lice had thoroughly searched the Iding before the hearin Most of the crowd eventually shifted to another room for drinks and food as two police dogs sniffed the chamber for threats had been phoned to police and one to a newspaper. The callers appeared to be different people.

DONNA BRYSON EAST LONDON, South Africa

Tutu told police he wanted a 24-hour guard on the building to ensure security: "Otherwise, we are going to keep allowing this to happen. I will not allow further interruptions.

The hearings and live television coverage recommenced about 45 minutes after they stopped.

Earlier, the Nobel Peace laureate led the 17-member panel in a prayer seeking "wisdom and guidance as it commences the important work of redressing the many wrongs done.

She testified about the death of her hushand. Mapetia, whom police harassed for his leading role in a black students' organization. The testimony coincided with the 20th anniversary of Mohapi's death in police custody. An offi-cial inquest at the time rule he had hanged himself with a pair of "I have never been happy dur-ing the past 20 years," said Mrs. Mohapi. "After I heard about these hearings I wanted to come and give evidence to find out what happened to him, because he never killed himself." Mrs. Mohapi testified in a calm voice how she herself was tortured, placed in solitary confinethreatened w th death by police. Ironically, the state intelligence agency also tried to recruit her as an informer. The commission hopes to ease strain on the victims. Before the hearing started, a staff member brought in two large plastic bags stuffed with tissues to give people who wept.

The governing African National Congress issued a statement urging all South Africans to support the commission. But the ANC's chief black rival, the Zulu nationalist Inkatha Freedom Party, announced a boycott.

Inkatha leader Mangosuthu Buthelezi said the commission would not be impartial in uncovering facts of the ANC-Inkatha fighting that has killed thousands over the past decade. President Nelson Mandela says the hearings are essential to the reconciliation he has preached since white minority rule ended in 1994. Though politically motivated crime on both sides are to be examined, the focus will be on the old security forces. "If we are going to have naonal unity a guard at the hospital for a leg wound, was a member of the special forces. by Antara, said the officer "ran amok at Timika airport". Earlier, he described the officer as suffering from depression or acute stress. Timika is a main gateway for Tembagapura, a mountain town ron by PT Freeport Indonesia, 82 percent owned by Freeport-

3

Peacekeepers deploy in Liberia

Fund compound on Sunday night, and only the offices of French aid organisation Action

Internationale contre la Faim in the former French emhassy re-

Thousands of Liberians are camped in the relative safety of a US housing compound close to the emhassy, sleeping under plastic sheeting surrounded by looted goods, including fridges

The barracks bave been the target of mortar fire since fighting crupted 10 days ago when Liberia'a coalition government tried to arrest Krahn warlord

Roosevelt Johnson on murder rangements for the transitional government which sacked him

Charles Taylor, leader of the country'a biggest militia and a vice-president on the ruling

from the cabinet last month.

mained untouched.

and sets of china.

bombs. Police Senior Supt. Rene Hackart rold reporters that uled to testify yesterostly relauves of anu-apartheid activists who went missing or were allegedly killed hy the security forces.

Nohle Mohapi, a former secretary to slain anti-apartheid hero Steve Biko, took the stand first.

these proceedings must be successful," Tutu told reporters. "There are many praying for us."

To reward those involved in rights abuses who make full disclosures, the commission can recommend amnesty. (API

Unabomber suspect wrote threats to woman date

NEW YORK (AP) - Theodore Kaczynski wrote a threatening letter to a woman he hriefly dated, Time reported yesterday. Kaczynski, the man suspected of being the Unabomher, said he had considered harming her before changing his mind. investigators told the magazine.

The woman, who met Kac-"As a government, we are not going to negotiate with these zynski in 1978, had been his su-Taylor told pervisor at an Addison, Illinois, factory. Kaczynski's brother. He said he and other militia David, also was a supervisor leaders would pull their gunmen there.

After the relationship ended,

Kaczynski wrote crude limericks and posted them at the Foam Curring Engineers plant, investigators said. When Kaczynski refused 10 stop, his brother fired him.

The Washington Post identified the woman as Ellen Tarmichael. of Aurora, Illinois.

In another development, the Post reported yesterday that the FBI found the names of approximately 25 University of California-Berkeley mathematics professors in Kaczynski's cahin. The paper says the campus police chief, Capt. William P. Foley, recounted being told of the list last week and asked for the campus address of those on it so federal officials could contact them.

The Post quoted John W. Addison Jr., a professor emeritus and chairman of the math department when Kaczynski was on the staff in the late 1960s, as saying: 'We don't know what this is. It may be a list of his favorite teachers. But it's disrurhing for everybody.

said that Kaczynski's breakup with the woman and his dismissal came three months after the first Unabomher attack on May 26, 1978. Kaczynski, 53, was arrested two weeks ago at his remote cabin near Lincoln, Montana, and is being held on a single count of possessing bomh components.

Authorities closed in on Kaczynski after his brother suspected he was the Unabomber and alerted authorities.

THE WAY WE WERE

Seadia Gelb's new book provides a

· . . .

nhie

ses

TRN

ош

ner

. in ព្រ-

'n

in a

Law enforcement officials have

Russians begin phased withdrawal from Chechnya

GROZNY (AP) - A regiment of Interior Ministry troops pulled out of Chechnya yesterday in the first stage of a phased withdrawal of Russian troops from the hreakaway republic, news reports said.

The regiment, which had been deployed in the village of Kargalinskaya, about 90 km north of the capital. Grozny. departed for Dagestan yesterday morning, the ITAR-Tass news agency said.

Gen. Vyacheslav Tikhomirov, head of Russian forces in the breakaway republic, announced that the first stage of the withdrawal would be completed over the next six weeks. ITAR-Tass said.

The second stage will last from June to October. with more troops being redeployed across Chechen borders. In the third stage, troops will be returned to their home hases, Tikhomirov said. -

Yesterday's pullout was in keeping with a peace plan proposed last month by President Boris Yeltsin, who is running for re-election in June and is Separatist leader Dzhokhar Dudayev has made total Russian troop withdrawal from Chechnya a precondition for talks, and his representative in Moscow reiterated that stand Sunday.

Tutakov, told the Interfax news agency.

Dudayev's other demands have included direct under pressure to resolve the Chechnya war.

"If federal troops leave tomorrow, talks will begin tomorrow as well," the representative, Vagap talks with Yeltsin and the firing of many of Yeltsin's top ministers - demands the Kremlin has ignored. Federal troops in Chechnya came under fire from separatist forces 11 times since Sunday, Interfax said.

This volume presents a comprehensive, up-to-date overview THE ANDHON BOLL REPORTER LINEAR of archaeological research in the Land of the Bible. Each 20 period is presented against its historical and biblical ARCHAEOLOGY background, and various aspects of the material culture are discussed. Illustrated with hundreds of line drawings, maps, photographs and charts, this book is an invaluable reference source for students and scholars, as well as for those interested in expanding their knowledge of the Bible and its world.

Published by Doubleday, hardcover, 555 op.

JP Price NIS 109 plus NIS 9 for mailing in Israel

OF THE LAND OF THE BIBLE 10,000-586 a C-L by Amihai Mazar

forecasts cannot be released in the three weeks hefore an election, but rumors of secret polls suggesting the center-left was in the lead have abounded.

National Alliance and a former D'Alema said the center-left was out in front.

.

lull overnight and during the charges. morning. He said one person had heen Johnson said he would agree to a truce provided the militias killed and 20 wounded when a withdrew from around the haraheil hit an old school where refracks, that African peacekeepugee familiea were camping. ers deployed throughout the city City streets were littered with and mediators re- examined ar-bullet casings and wreckage. ECOMOG peacekeepers in camonflage gear patrolled or sat at street corners. A hloated body lay near the side of one street.

Aid workers said gunmen had looted the Save the Children council of state. said Johnson Italian parties seek killer election punch was just being provocative.

ROME (Reuter) - Italy's illtempered election campaign entered the home straight yesterday with rival politians turning on the venom in a last push.

Weary Italians will vote on April 21 for the third time in four years as they struggle to end the turmoil wrought by the destruction of the old governing class in a hlaze of corruption.

Leaked secret opinion polis indicated more confusion after the vote and, in a bid to pull clear, center-right leader Silvio Berlusconi questioned the democratic credentials of the centerleft Olive Tree coalition.

.

"Are we sure if the Olive Tree alliance wins we will have the chance of truly free elections again?" the former prime minister asked at a weekend rally. Stun by the attack, the centerleft charged that media tycoon Berlusconi had entered politics at the behest of Bettino Craxi, a reviled former prime minister living in self-imposed exile in Tunisia beyond the reach of scandal probes. "Berlusconi's Forza Italia party was a great political idea but I've always suspected that Craxi rather than Berlusconi was hehind it," said Massimo D'Alema, whose ex-communist Democratic Party of the Left (PDS) is the largest group in the Olive Tree.

Berlusconi's allies on the right sought to play down his charge against the left, with the leader of the hard right National Alliance, Gianfranco Fini, saying he

"The right has spent the last month heing provocative, now they've got a few days left to say something serious." D'Alema told reporters. Tensions hetween the two sides have risen in the wake of a number of leaked and contradictory opinion polls. Under Italian law, voting

Publio Fiori, a member of the gov rument minister, told a rally in Rome that Berlusconi and bis allies were now ahead, while sometimes funny, sometimes sad but always honest perspective of life in the kibbutz. Creative illustrations drawn by tellow members of Kibbutz Kial Blum and by relatives and friends from Israel and abroad, add a special dimension to the anecdotes which only a longtime member of a kibbutz could tell. Softcover, 160 pp. JP Price: NIS 42.00 incl. VAT, p. & p. For overseas airmall, please add NIS 15.00 建油菜医菜等 To: Books, The Jerusatem Post, POB 81, Jerusalem 91000 Tel 02.241282

Please send me copies of R Almost One Hundred Years of Togethemess at NIS 42.00 each. Enclosed please find my check payable to The Jerusalem Post
Name
Address
City
Code
Tel. (day)
Signature
*Please list gift recipients' names and addresses separately

ť

2

ST

OPINION

0

Tuesday, April 16, 1996

 ILEG © 96 |

ical memory alone

We are aware of our origins and our history, we must also be conscious of our future objectives in creating a humane society composed of Jewish communities

ingathered from 102 countries. We have attained physical, economic and social security, and are no longer engaged in the struggle for survival. In this rapidly changing world, it is our duty to shape the identity of our society and enhance its Jewish significance, to develop values both particular and universal, and to give profound thought to the relationship between Israel and the

Diaspora communities, and th

Our collective memory unites us in a profound feeling of partnership and belonging. But for it to have rei-evance in the future, we must imbue the feeling with morality and culture, cultivating a meaningful existence that draws inspiration from our prophets, from the values of justice, and from the historic experience of our people in the community of

Now that peace in our region is within reach and the world is onen

The writer is minister of science and the arts. The above is a speech

Britain, but I am not anti-British.

pollute every level of society with anti-Zionist or antisentitic messages. One dare not imagine the venom should the Oslo Accords

Many NGOs trampet anti-Israel

resolutions while disregarding newer, less negative resolutions;

this is precisely how the YWCA representative defended her speech.

States' interests do change, and some have moderated their stance toward Israel. But these NGOs, insulated from such worldly concerns as political reconciliation, have raised anti-Zionism and anti-semitism to an unassailable moral plane which pressures UN delegates and persuades a global andi-

Jews and Jewish groups have generally supported the NGO community, but NGOs must be warned that their statements to the UN and global audiences are no less important than what they say at the symposia and events cosponsored by Jewish groups. Well-meaning friends, often maware of what their own bureaucracies are spawning in ...

New York and Geneva, should be

The Jewish community can help banish anti-Zionism and anti-semitism from civilized discourse

by challenging not only extremist groups but also the mainstream organizations invited to its ban-

The writer, chairman of United Nations Watch, is former US permanent representative to the UN in Geneva and a past chairman of the Conference of Presidents of Major

American Jewish Organizations.

المكذا ون الأس

quets and conferences.

informed.

fail.

nations.

Israel's international relations.

The Jerusalem Post

False figures

ry the Romanies, whom English speakers more commonly call "gypsics," have suffered persecutions second only to the Jews.

Prussia decreed Romanies were "vermin" that could be hanged without trial. In 17th-century Bohemia and Moravia their bodies were hung along the country's borders to discourage others from entering. And up until the middle of the last century, Romanies were frequently ensisted in what is now Romania. Worst of all, they were the only other group besides the Jews subjected to mass extermination by the Nazis.

Echoes of the Holocaust remain. Unbelievable as it may sound, some local mayors in Hungary and Romania have cited what amounts to extermination as the solution in the "Gypsy problem"; in the Czech Republic, a local police chief has said people are getting "nostalgic" for Hitler. In Slovakia Prime Minister Vladimir Meciar has spoken of the need to "reduce the Romany population."

A NUMBER of journalists and international organizations have recently begun to take notice of the Romany plight - a welcome rrend given the notorious lack of concern the international community has traditionally shown these people, who, at between six and eight miltion (two thirds living in Central and Eastern Europe), now com-prise Europe's largest stateless minority.

But accompanying this is a dis-turbing trend: the great exaggeration of the number of Romanies mardered by the Nazis.

Caroline Moorehead, writing recently in the London Daily Telegraph, says "up to a million died"; the same figure is cited by Sian Powell in The Australian. Denise Hamilton in the Los Angeles Times mentions a figure of 1.2 million.

The world is at last taking note of the Gypsy plight under the Nazis - at the price of others," in that order.

TOM GROSS N the course of European histo-

Some examples: In 1725,

in the West there may not be the same kind of outright racism, but there is widespread hostility, often compounded by astonishing ignorance.

A recent reference in Britain's Guardian referred to the victims of Nazism as "Gypsies. Jews, and downplaying Jewish suffering

The new false figures are now

DAVID BAR-ILLAN, Executive Edutor JEFF BARAK, Managing Editor ALEC ISRAEL, Associate Editor, Copy DAN IZENBERG, News Editor DAVID BRINN, Night Editor SAM ORBAUM, Features Editor THOMAS O'DWYER, Foreign Editor JUDY MONTAGU, Op-Ed Editor AMOTZ ASA-EL, Business Editor F. DAVID RADLER, Chairman, Board of Directors YEHUDA LEVY, President & Publisher

Founded in 1932 by GERSHON AGRON

THE JERUSALEM

AVI GOLAN. Executive Vice President, Marketing & Adventiging PAUL STASZEWSKI, CPA, Vice President, Finance YOSSI HORN. Vice President, Production STANLEY SCHRIGER, Circulation Manager BENZION MILLER, Tet Aviv Office Manager

EDITORIAL OFFICES AND ADMINISTRATION The Jerusalem Post Building, PO.Box 81. Romema, Jerusalem 1910001 Telephone 02:315666. Fax 02:389527. CIRCULATION - 02:315610. Fax 02:389017. ADVERTISING - 02:315608. 02:315637-40 Fax 02:388408. TEL AVIV: S Rehov Hamasger, PO. Box 28398 (61283) Telephone 02:6390335. Fax 03:63902.7. HAIFA: 20 Nordau, Hadar Hacarmel, Telephone 04:9653166. Published daily, except Saturday, in Jerusalem, Israel by The Palestine Post Ltd. Printed by The Jerusalem Post Press in Jerusalem. Registered at the G.P.O. Of the Jerusalem Post 1996. Reproduction, or storage in a retrieval system, or in any other form is prohibiled without permission. Editors: 1932-1955 GERSHON AGRON, 1955-1974 TED LURIE, 1974-1975 LEA BEN DOR, 1975-1989 ARI RATH and ERWIN FRENKEL, 1990-1992 N. DAVID GROSS. PYTERNET EDITION: http://www.jpost.co.Jl General E-mail: jpedt@jpost.co.il Editorial E-mail. editors@jpost.co.il Subscriptions INTERNET EDITION: E-mail: subs@jpost.co.il

Holocaust moral

ORE than a half century after the end of World War II, world awareness of the Holocaust is greater than it has ever been. It is studied in universities and taught in high schools in several countries, particularly in the US, and it has generated a vast body of literature authored hy snrvivors, scholars, and fiction writers.

The Holocaust has also become the archetypal example of the consequences of antisemitism - and a prime target for antisemites. The denial and debunking of this unique phenomenon m history is a rite of passage for today's Jewhaters and bigots.

No one foresaw the Holocaust. Even Ze'ev Jabotinsky, the one Zionist leader who in the 1930s persistently warned East European Jews of an imminent disaster and vainly urged them to emigrate to the nascent Jewish national home, could never imagine the enormity of the catastroohe. And even now, what happened defies comprehension, rendering the most valiant attempts to translate the horror to communicable language a hopeless exercise in trivialization

That Israel exists today is not, as many would have it, due to the Holocaust. But it is more than

tinian Authority areas, Prime Minister Shimon

Peres said that he would rather have them here than in Syria. His reasoning is that, under the rule of Yasser Arafat, who is presumably committed to eradicating terrorism, they will be less harmful than in Damascus, where "the armed struggle" is supported and encouraged by the

the extremists now coming to participate in the projected meeting of the Palestine National Council (PNC), or it will be they who will radicalize the self-rule territories is open to conjecture. But it is difficult to imagine that

Naif Hawatmeh, leader of the Democratic Front

for the Liberation of Palestine (DFLP), or Leila

Khaled, the notorious failed hijacker of an El Al

airliner and unregenerate anti-Israel propagandist, will enhance the cause of peace. If anything, their rhetoric should only inflame the

Whether it will be Arafat who will moderate regime.

FIT TO ALL CON OF COME OF COME

DE Je 6 (Te no an an

Ξ

Ji

Al Ke

PI to cz

17 16 05

RAZI

likely that, had the state been in existence before the war, many European Jews would have been saved. Now that the state is a major regional power, it is assumed that a repetition of the Holocaust is impossible - probably a reasonable assumption. But the combination of irrational fanaticism and non-conventional arms in neighboring countries makes all assumptions conditional on constant Israeli and world vigilance.

Nor has the lesson of the Holocaust been absorbed widely enough to signal the decline of antisemitism. If anything, the virulence and passion of today's hatred among Islamic fanatics - not only in the Middle East, hut in Europe and America - are all too reminiscent of the ferocity of Europe's deadly disease in the 1930s and 1940s.

If there is a danger Israel must beware most, it is the peril of fatigue. No one comes by war weariness more honestly than the people of Israel. But no one can less afford its inexorable consequences: wishful thinking and a distorted view of reality. If there is one Holocaust moral which must never he forgotten, it is that the alternative to a realistic view of the world is death.

The PNC gathering

THEN questioned about the wisdom of reflects the developments in the international, letting terrorist leaders who have not Palestinian, and Israeli arenas. renounced terrorism enter the Pales-

It envisions a republican state united with the Hashemite monarchy. And it defines "Palestinian" as anyone who lived in the British mandate of Palestine and all those born anywhere to a Palestinian father after 1947. This includes all Arabs now living in Israel. Jordan, and the territories, and all descendants of the Arahs who once lived in this country.

What it does not do is mention the covenant, let alone its repeal.

Moreover, the language of the document does not include an outright declaration of recognition of Israel. It merely says that "The coexistence between the Palestinian and Israeli peoples is a question of inevitability, which assumes the commitment of both peoples to the security of each other and respect of each other's traditions, customs, and circumstances." And "The Palestinian state will commit itself to respect the Israeli state and the Palestinian people commit to live in security and peace with the Îsraeli people."

With all due understanding for Palestinian

It has taken the community of mankind 50 years to understand that the Holocaust of European Jewry was not the catastrophe of the Jewish people alone but, to no less a degree, a disaster and a monstrous crime that has left its mark upon the entire buman race. It has taken the community of nations 50 years to realize that the Six Million who were massacred by the Nazis were not an integral part of the millions of people who lost their lives during World War II in the struggle between national forces battimg over control of land and fighting for lebensroum. The six million lews were casualties in a different category: victims of a deliberate, cold-blooded policy of harred, racism and evil rooted in racial arrogance and contempt for the other simply for being other, a policy of dispossession and destruction of those who are different for the simple reason of their difference. The Nazis systematically organized and calculated the massacre of Europe's Jews. It was history's most horrifying manifestation of the collective capacity to cast off all morality and all inhibitions, to dispense with all considerations of good and evil. It was a manifestation of total rejection of the very image of man and God.

The Holocaust was the most terrihie tragedy ever to befall the Jewish people: but above all it was a mark of Cain branded forever upon the brow of all mankind. From this point on, any theory of morality, any system of ethics, any code of law and legality will have lo relate to the events and lessons of the Holocaust, to what evil human

Tn the two decades since the UN

General Assembly passed its nolorious 1975 resolution equating Zionism with racism, most Jews have demonstrated little interest in this international body. Even

SHULAMIT ALONI

Holocaust & renewal

by hatred of those who are different. As far as we Jews of Israel and the Diaspora are concerned, in the 50 years that have passed since we were able to rehabilitate ourselves, we have risen up out of the ashes to provide a safe haven for our uprooted people. We have established a strong, advanced and sovereign state which has become the focus of the

WAR, KATYUSHAS, EVACUATION

OF KIRYAT SHMONA, INFLATION ... DOESN'T IT MAKE YOU NOSTALGIC FOR THE OLD MIDDLE EAST?

> By imbuing our collective memory with ethics and culture we will create a Jewish continuity to be proud of national, cultural and religious consciousness of the Jewish people.

In the building of our state and the rehabilitation of Jewish communibefore us and we - Israelis and the Jewish people, at large - are open to the world, the time has come for the ties abroad, we have always carried with us the memory of the Holocaust, that most terrible atrocity intellectual leaders among us, writers, artists and scientists; to usher in a new Renaissance that will influagainst our people, and of the Six ence our dialogue with the rest of the Million who were murdered; and we world, contributing to a richer, better and more ethical culture, one to have passed that memory on to our children and grandchildren, teaching them never to forget, to fight to which our younger generation will be proud to belong. ensure it never happens again.

HOWEVER, neither the people of Israel nor the individual in Israel already seething and embittered PA population, chafing under the burden of the closure.

Israel is hoping that the PNC will convene before the deadline of May 7 and quickly repeal the PLO Covenant, or at least the 28 clauses (out of 33) which call for Israel's demise. Government experts say that Arafat has the needed clout to get the necessary two-thirds majority to pass the repeal. If the government is keeping quiet about its expectations, it is because it wants to spare Arafat the embarrassment of seeming to follow Israel's diktat.

Yet a document circulating in PLO circles and among Israelis negotiating with the PLO is far from being a rejection of the covenant. Intended as a constitution of the Palestinian state, it declares in its preamble that it complements the Palestinian people's struggle, and

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir. - I refer to Yehudit Keshet's letter of March 31, "Provincial pet-tiness." We agree that President

Clinton is unwavering in his support for Israel and we indeed appreciated his visit to Israel in the wake of the most recent wave of terrorist attacks. However, Mayor Olmert believed that, as Jerusalem was the center of the terrorist attacks, both recently and just six months ago in Ramat Eshkol, it would seem fitting that the president would want to pay a visit to the city which bore the Minister's Office several suggestions including: visiting a high school which lost eight students;

visiting the injured in the hospital;

or visiting one of the explosion sites

When Mayor Olmert met with President Clintoo on the morning of his visit and told him how important

he believed a visit in Jerusalem would be, President Clinton understood and altered his schedule on the Mayor Olmert offered the Prime brunt of the attacks.

- but all were rejected.

enough.

CLINTON'S VISIT

opportunity.

albeit too late.

aspirations as defined in this document, it hardly constitutes a repeal of the covenant. It has long been rumored that Arafat would circumvent the need to persuade such rejectionists as Hawatmeh and Khaled to repeal the covenant by simply devising a constitution for a Palestinian state and declaring that it replaces the covenant.

But the government has insisted that only an explicit repudiation and repeal of the covenant by the PNC will meet the conditions set out in the second Oslo agreement. And it must be hoped that Israel will insist that these conditions be met. Anything short of that can only indicate that the Arafat is either unable or unwilling to make peace with Israel on behalf of his people.

of Israel.

AN EYE FOR AN EYE

terms with its moralistic attitude that criminals will not be executed regardless of what beinous acts they have commined against the citizens

Considering the many recent

Sir, - It is time that Israel come to when the GA repealed "Zionism is Racism" in 1992, the Jewish community took little note. Today, with states lining up to support the peace process and recognize Israel, the UN can seem irrelevant. Yet it continues to broadcast and inspire intense animosity toward Israel and Jews, with vigorous belo from bundreds of the 1,600 nongovernmental organizations (NGOs) which enjoy consultative status on the UN's Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC). NGOs are independent, privately-funded groups representing international memberships engaged in humanitarian and religious work around the world.

ECOSOC commissions and conferences form the congress between states and the "civil society" which NGOs embody, and many use this platform to condemn Israel or lewish interests.

A recent example is the UN's annual November 29 meeting for Palestinian solidarity. The World Young Women's Christian Association representative, speaking for "1,200 member organizations" of the NGO Coordinating Committee oo Palestine, dismissed the peace process as "a mirage." The Coordinating Committee and the UN Secretariat had just denied the World Jewish Congress, also an NGO, the right to speak in support of Israeli PLO negotiations.

The UN's anti-Israel machinery endures despite the peace process, reinforcing the anti-Israel NGOs. Through speeches and intense lobbying, NGOs help shape a cr.llective UN spirit which often colors diplomats' votes. Their audience reaches millions worldwide who take UN pronouncements - even NGO speeches - at face value.

NGOs publish thousands of titles annually in every language which, with TV, radio, conferences, speeches and now Internet, allows them unprecedented and unparalleled global access. They use public beings are capable of when driven lives by physical security and histor- she is due to make tonight in the US.

Ill will, civilly conveyed

MORRIS B. ABRAM

opinion to affect policy decisions of leaders and diplomats. Last year the UN Secretary General lauded NGO's as the "key" to "a great global movement."

One notable anti-discrimination group advertises mostly anti-Israel utles like "Applying the Anti-Apartheid Principles to the Middle East" and "History of Discrimination: Israel in Palestine."

The UN goes on spreading hatred of Israel and Jews, with vigorous help. from hundreds of NGOs

Another NGO, Middle East Watch. issued a 1993 report on Israel's treatment of Palestinians, with the unsubstantiated title, "A License to Kill."

The International Commission of Jurists, comprising distinguished judges and lawyers, verbally and publicly attacked the UN's Special Rapporteur on Israeli Practices in the Occupied Territories, who had tried to end his mission in view of the peace process. And it issued a well-publicized report declaring that the Israeli government "openly endorsed torture."

NGOs were supposed to repre-sent "the peoples" of the United Nations, free from the fetters of state propaganda. Yet volumes of today's worst anti-Israel diatribe flows from some NGOs themselves, including "friends" of the Jewish community.

ANTI-ZIONISM often masks antisemitism, and occasionally the mask drops. In a UN meeting last spring, the representative for a prominent church organization called a Jewish speaker "Judeo-Nazi." The "Judaization" of the Middle East has been seriously debated by NGOs in ECOSOC's appearing as "fact" in the mainstream media, even though there is no historical evidence whatsoever Human Rights Commission. to support them. Antisemitism first evolved from While exact figures for the total religious to racial hatred, and now it numbers of Romanies murdered by the Nazis are not known, a figure of wears a political disguise. The late Martin Luther King, Jr., said, "When people criticize Zionism, 200,000-220,000 is generally accepted by most historians. they mean Jews; we are talking antisemitism." And Swedish states-

Although some have suggested that as many as 500,000 died in the war, man Per Ahlmark doubts anyone these calculations include Romanies who died not as a result would believe this statement: "I am against the existence of Great of deliberate genocide but in fighting on the front, or in air raids and Many NGOs are evenhanded on other bombardments. the Arab-Israeli conflict. But others

ĥ

-U

No serious historian has suggested anything greater than this num-

Nazi policies regarding the Romanies were inconsistent. Some types were targeted for extinction: others (while often very badly treated) were spared death. For this reason most historians have drawn a distinction between the wholesale murder of Romanies and the Nazi campaign to kill every single Jew, the Holocaust.

Though the journalists who cite these incorrect figures may be unaware of the fact, they originally stem from deliberate falsification. The phenomenon of inflating previously accepted statistics of Romanies murdered by the Nazis originated in the 1980s in Germany. It was done by bogus "research" groups trying to mini-mize the Jewish "share" of suffering and death in the Holocaust.

But recently even bona fide advocates of Romany rights have sought to promote their case by downplaying Jewish suffering and implicitly or explicitly attacking leading Jewish Holocaust historians like Professor Yehuda Bauer and the late Lucy Davidowicz for ignoring the Romanies.

In an age of increased revision-ism and Holocaust denial, playing around with the figures is dangerous. It makes the instorical evidence of what the Romanies actually suffered seem less certain, and ultimately detracts from their rightful case.

The writer, now working for The Jerusalem Post, served as UN special advisor on Czech Romanies from 1993 to 1995, based in Prague.

Jerusalem.

Municipality Spokesman

HAGAI ELIAS

spot to include a visit to the Beit

Hinuch High School. Following the visit, President Clinton told Mayor

Olmert that he was grateful for the lowed the municipality staff to help in preparing for the president's visit once the city was promised that the lives of the city's residents would not be disrupted. In addition, once

President Clinton changed his schedule to include Jerusalem students oo his agenda, Mayor Olmert lifted the ban preventing students from attending the Tel Aviv event,

Finally, the municipality has received hundreds of leners from city residents complimenting us for cleaning up the city. It is a pity that your correspondent filed a complaint that Jerusalem "is looking dirtier and shabbier" in the context of a letter regarding Clinton's visit.

For the record, Mayor Olmert al-

Sir - AI last, in Aharon Megged's image of the decent Arab." Why article ("Words to a wimp," March does no one say: "you people are 22), we find an expression of our murdering ours, wantonly and savpain and our shame, of our lack of agely. When you and other leaders self-respect, of disappointment at take concrete action against them, we can distinguish between you our own government's blind, naive, wrong headed "serenade" of the we will know exactly who are our Arab foe, ao expression of frustraenemies and who are our friends. tion at finding the galut still within Until then, expect collective punishus here. He states the case eloquentment, because there is collective ly, and yet he does not go far guilt. When you point to Hamas, you insult our intelligence. We don't The Arab deputy mayor of Taibe believe you. Don't these cowardly complains on the day after the adolescents ever take off their bombing: "You are damaging the masks? Don't they come out of Netanya houses in the morning, return somewhere at night? Don't they have neighbors who see them, know them? You know who they are and where they are. When you take no steps to curb their murderous acts.

expect the Arabs to grasp our anguish and our pent-up fury?

MENAHEM GRANOFF

bombings and the slaughter carried out by Arab lerrorists, it is my belief that a change in policy has to be made. Israel must let it be known that whenever a terrorist killing occurs, at least two of that organization's prisoners in Israeli detention centers will be executed for each Jewish victira. Peace treaties and the sanctity of human life offer no deterrence to the kiltings. The sealing-off and demolition of homes of Hamas terrorists has proven ineffective.

Israel was able to carry out the death sentence against Eichmann for the genocide against Jews. I see little difference when Islamic terrorists are killing Jews.

LOUIS BOXER Key Largo, Florida.

EXPRESSION OF PAIN AND SHAME

you participate in them." When no one rises to passionately demand respect for the blood that is being shed, how can we possibly

Ha Lar seren pa

False

igure

ALARDAN DEPARTURE

1.214

5% (3%)

2 - 12 - T

್ಷ ಮಾಡಿ ಮಾಡಿ ಮಾಡಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಮಾಡಿದ್ದಾರೆ

. 1⁷⁴

1.50

. .

. .

- - -

.

.

___

.

.-

*

1 S. C

. .

< 1.

e (k)

1.15

4.10

.

1.5

٠,

.

-- *

÷.,

· · .

1.19

.

5.55

a. • • • •

· • · 🛬

1.122

The Jerusalem Post Tuesday, April 16, 1996

Straight Gin and a mixer of pop-soul

DAVID BRINN

CONGRATULATIONS I'M SORRY Gin Blossoms (Helicov)

HIS is rock 'n' roll as the alternative rock god meant it in be - accessible, jangly guitar chords, a hig beat, and angelic harmonies. Based in Tempe, Arizona, this five-piece band aften sounds like early REM with the addition of Roger McGuinn as lead vocalist.

A follow-up to its blockbuster 1993 hreakthrough New Miserable Experience, Congratulations I'm Sorry hasically treads water, but when you're swimming in such an mtoxicating river, who cares? The band has admirably taken up the songwriting slack left by the death of main scribe Dong

Hopkins, with the only noticeable shortcomings being the lyrics, which lack Hopkins's alcoholfueled cynical insights into human nature.

The five-way collaborative effort "Follow you Down" is an exuberant piece of music, up to par with the previous album's hit single "Found Out About You.". Thankfully, the band has pared down the the country and Cajun experiments of the last album and sticks to what it does best. In a perfect world, this is the music you'd be hearing on the radio. every day.

IAM []. Ke' (Hed Artzi) 1 24.20 This striking yet erratic debut by Ke' (as in Special K) solves the 1.2.24 musical question of what happens if you cross George Michael and. and the second second Tracy Chapman, A 23-year-old who grew up in مند و الرا محمد ا both the US and Europe and who possesses a gorgeous female-pitched voice similar to Chapman's, Ke' has adeptly complemented the white pop-soul genre best represented by Michael.

Ke' is one serious fellow. There's not one lighthearted song here, and even the title: I AM.I.

the words to James Taylor's "Fire and Rain" in "Holding On," one of the many songs with choruses that will embed themselves in our minds.

Defying musical genres, Ke' sounds like he's digested the complete history of pop and spat it back as his own. Of course, there's good and bad in that. Who needs songs that sound like the Hues Corporation or, more hlatantly, a cover version of Melanie's Lay Down? But more often than not, Ke' strikes the right chords, musically and emotionally, and his truly amazing vocal ability is something to marvel at.

Tasteful without being too slick, mellaw without being boring. Ke's debut is a refreshing reminder that pop does not need to be pap.

Rock and roll confidential It's been almost five years since I listened to a record out of ohligation.

That five-year span is really like a few decades in the MTV-dominated star-making machinery of pop music, where careers are made and fade in the course of a few months. Fads and trends have come and gone that I'm not even aware of. And that's fine with me. More important is the long line of connections that have kept rock 'n' roll vital and fresh, long after it should have been declared DOA. What I find most tantalizing is digging out the musicians and performers who are making those connections, and in the process constantly reinventing the form. Does writing about rock 'n' roll have any meaning? The debate whether it's a valid art form has long become irrelevant: Those who think it is build halls of fame: those who don't, listen to Michael Bolton. I've long given up trying to justify my 30-year-old obsession with noisy guitars and threepart harmonies.

Great rock 'a' roll should

Ke' shows off a prodigious if sometimes overly eclectic talent.

ARTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

Ballet: 'Don Quixote' gets a Russian accent

ORN in Siberia to a pair B of prisoners, it's little wonder that choreographer Boris Eifman most closely identifies with the ballet Don Ouixete. While he tilted at Soviet windmills during his career with the St. Petersburg Ballet Theater. Eifman, unlike the delusional knight, often hit his target.

Now the 50-year-old choreographer is bringing his company here, and those who are expecting to see the traditional Russian hallet version of Don Quixote are in for a surprise.

"The story takes place in a contemporary insane asylunt, where one of the inmates dreams he is Don Quivote," explains Eifman in a phone conversation from his St. Petershurg apartment. "He wants to fly away from this place. A doctor tries to make him normal, but he has an imagination. He cannot be normal, and this is a problem because actually only crazy people have such ideas.

"I ani a Don Quixote, too, 1 remember when I looked like that one crazy person. I had ideas but no possibilities. It's the story of the artists and intelligentsia hefore perestroika."

Eifman founded the company in 1977, but its first decade was a lough battle for survival. "In the first 10 years we had hard times. We created new ballets, but at the time the Soviet Union was very conservative, so we had problems with the Ministry of Culture. 1 created new Russian ballets, new forms, new ideas, and we enjoyed success with new young people, but we could not travel because we were not granted permission. We toured a lot only in the USSR."

MICHAEL AJZENSTADT

Things changed only with the political thaw in Russia. "After 1988-89, we got our freedom and began our second life. We started to tour all over the world with our 55 dancers. We your much more than perform at home. Our life is improving now."

Elfman, who is the sole creator for his company, explains the secret of its success is that we mix Russian soul, Russian passion and a kind of classical hallet with modern dance. We find new kinds of hallet: we mix the traditional classical with the modern."

It's ragas to riches: Guha and anti-'War Requiem'

ROUR outstanding Indian musicians, the singer Sumitra Guha and three instrumentalists, gave us a fascinaving entree into a very different classical tradition.

of the tahla (hand drum), a zitherlike string instrument, the fourstringed tanpura, and the sarangi (or esraj) - a stringed instrument played with a bow, like a violin. but from the kncc.

CONCERT ROUNDUP demanding hut securely within the natural grasp of youthful musicians,

The Intimate contact between VIOLA da gambist Jordi Savall, with his Capella Reil de Catalunya, in the Authentica conductor and orchestra, the noticeable results of this collaboseries, brought to life the music of ration, and its members' obvious the 16th-17th centuries, mostly by joy of playing were a delight to Spanish and Italian composers. behold. Haydn's Symphony No. 6 The human warmth that these sounded fresh and vibrant. The technical polish was remarkable artists instill into this ancient even in the decidedly tricky solo music, the emotional immediacy. episodes of woodwinds and horn. but also the good-humored playfulness and the intensity of Ben-Haim's "Music for Strings" - a refreshingly energetic and expression, do not let one realize that these works are so old. The joie de vivre of some impeccably transparent canon and a convincingly projected Mediterranean mood expressed the young players' involvement with Israeli mainstream music. Soloist Yuval Zoran (19), a disciple of Benjamin Oren, conveyed in Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 2 the youthful energies and fleeting lyricism of the young composer. Lively spontaneity. sensitivity to emotional content, and seemingly effortless technique were encouraging indica-tions of a budding musical talent. Jerusalem Music Centre, Mishkenot Sha'ananim, March 29. Ury Eppstein

Leningrad Conservatory in the faculty of choreography, and after graduating was invited to work with the leading companies in the former Soviel Union. "I worked in the Kirov and Bolshoi

ns

-ii- зe

and for television too." He felt stifled, however, always subservient to other people's ideas. "I was not allowed to do what I wanted, I had to work in traditions I wanted to change." Now Eifman can do what he of modern and classical gives a new effect for the hallet. You can see traditional Russian ballet and what is new, two kinds of Russian ballet and a lot of humor

too. It's a funny ballet, especially in the madhouse."

Eifman studied at the

wants, and he does not see himself in competition with the more famous Kirov Ballet from the same city. "I did some things for the Kirov, hut after '77 l stopped working for them. I have a good relationship with them, but our artistic ways are different. Kirov is a museum devoted to the classical style." The St. Petersburg Ballet Theater presents Boris Elfman's version of Don Quixote tonight in Netanya, Wednesday in Jacustan Thursday in Tel Aviv Jerusalem, Thursday in Tel Aviv, Friday in Karmiel, Saturday in Beersheba and next Sunday in Haifa.

Of the three major new ballets Eifman has created in the past few years, Don Quixote, in a way, is the least revolutionary, yet the most personal. "I mix theater of the absurd. classical and modern dance. It looks like classical, and this mix

Guha's accompaniment consists

Seated in the lotus position, the ensemble presented a two-hour concert consisting of four pieces. each one of considerable length.

means I Am Nothing. But don't let his dour self-analysis stand in as ng nota the way of some perfectly crafted pop. He would have been called a Section I I I I sunning singer-songwriter back in the old days. He even identifies 1993 - A. (1993 - 55 with the genre by neatly co-opting :::::T

inspire, offend, provoke joy or anger and make you laugh, sometimes all at once. Heartfelt Paul Simon lyrics aren't any more valid in this form than the Ramones singing "beat on the brat with a baseball bat." Above all, great rock & roll should make you want to get out of your seat. Never underestimate the importance of the back beat. As long as scruffy teens still continue to gather in garages and plug in to amplifiers, there lies a chance of a rock 'n' roll spark catching fire. The ultimate thrill in rock 'n' roll."

....

reviewing records is discovering that spark, whether it be in a new artist, or a grizzled veteran. There'll be lots of side roads and even dead ends, but I hope you'll join me on, as Ian Hunter aptly put it, the "mighty long way dowo

Director makes a virtue of gimmickry

THEATER REVIEW

NAOMI DOUDAI

THE JEW SUSS

By Paul Kornfeld, Hebrew, Neri Gavrich-Sevenier, Direction, Robert Woodruff, Sess, Roni Toren, Costumes, Tova Kleiner-Sadan, Lighning, Felice Ross Bar-Lev, Music, Ori Vidinlavsky, Hobrew inle, Hayehudi Zuss. The Beershebe Municipal Theater at the Beersheba Authorithm.

Shahtai Conorti The Duke _____ Shahtai Conorti Chief minister _____ Alon Aboutboul - Doron Tabori The Jew Suss -Master of Ceremonies _____ Gil Alon The Duchess _____ Lanj Shahaf The Duchess Sarit Winograd A Countess

ISAPPOINTMENT in this production must be measured against the high expectations it had aroused in everyone concerned. After its American director brought such kudos to Beersheba with his version of the Jacobean drama The Changeling, last year, no one doobted that with Jew Suss he would surpass himself again.

His scintillating effects last year railway station, with costumes equally unaccountably fluctuating earned him so much admiration. betweep period and modern dress. that the present production was Unaccountable they are unless allotted a prime slot in the coming vnu can crack the symbolic Israel Festival long before the preconundrums on which, together miere. Since 1827 the theme of the with intellectual theatrical acroohsequious Court Jew has been batics and metaphors. Woodruff. 3 variously treated in theater and director's director, is obviously novel form. Feuchtwanger's besthooked. seller novel of 1925 was followed However, while the transfer of hy many interpretations, Goebbels's antisemitic propaganda film among them. Knrafeld's restless, carnal choreography and bizarre make-up) only serve to destroy the play's impact on the audience.

Jacobean poetry in daring visual imagery worked well for The Changeling, it abscures the deep-1930 version was first performed er significances of Jew Suss. Here the welter of erotic and esoteric Woodruff's interpretation of the gimmicks (sodomy, rape, nudity.

latter is a stylized, surrealized And if only that were all! Due to adaptation, unaccountably set in a a lack of polish in manners and mannerisms (which results in a lack of authority in the actors(Shabtai Canorti's ioane decadent despot excepted t, the dramatic climate is not remotely reminiscent of a German court of the post-Thirty Years War era.

Another unexplained element is the intrusion of choruses, sung and danced, in what is a halfachieved musical. Starting out from heavy, serious bistoric hindsight this show merely serves to blur the fine line between subtle. poetic surrealization and blatant eye-hoggling showbiz.

Indian musical theory divides the octave into 66 microtones, of which only 22 are actually employed. The 22 tones are derived from seven hasic tones. which have their equivalent in the European diatonic scale.

In classical Indian music each raga (or piece of music) expresses a single emotion. Of Guha's ragas, the first expressed tranquillity and peace, the second the mood of spring and the last two devotion (to the deity). ZOA House. Tel Aviv. April 2

Benjamin Bar-Am

JUDGING from the applause, the Israeli Philharmonic Orchestra's performance of Britten's War Requiem, conducted by Kurt Masur and Mendi Rodan Ichamber ensemble) was a big hit.

Brinen brings the requiem from the liturgical to the most immediate human level. This piece exposes the futility, pity and hopelessness of war in terms of human pain and resignation. The powerful impact of Britten's nusic, conveyed often by its disquieting calmness, in combination with Wilfred Owen's poignant poetry. transmits the sincerity of the composer's identification with his message.

Canadian Edith Wiens's lumisoprano expressed nous anguished pleas and deep grief with equal force. The pure. intense tenor of Britain's Nigel Robsoncreated a profoundly disturbing experience, and the Swedish baritone Hakan Hagegard, with his warm, mellow voice, evoked the ultimate, chilling stir in I am the enemy you killed, my friend ... Let us sleep П/Ж.

The enthusiastic playing of the IPO, the glorious singing of the Prague Philharmonic Choir, and the Ankor children's celestial amhience made for a truly inspired performance. Jerusalem International Convention Center, April 7.

Ury Eppstein

instrumental pieces, mostly dances, is straightforward and infectious. The virtuosity of Savall's gamba, often considered drab and lackluster, is sparkling. Scheidt's moving, sorrowful Courant dolorosa for harp (Andrew Lawrence-King) and Antonio Martin's fascinatingly delicate Canarios counted among the instrumental highlights.

Moniserrat Figuera's glamorous, seductive soprano expresses the desperate sorrow of Monteverdi's Nymph's Lament no less iotensely than the deliciously capricious Do not praise her charms. Carlos Mena's caressing countertenor creates a striking male counterpart of the high human voice. Musical drama, stylized yet poignant, at a time when opera was sull a novelty, was impressively performed in Monteverdi's works from his Books of Madriguls. Long as the program was, the audience did not feel like leaving when it was all over. Nor did the artists, as they proved with their large number of encores.

Jerusalen Theater, April II Ury Eppstein

CONDUCTOR Mendi Rodan's wisdom was reflected in his selection of pieces for the Jerusalem Rubin Academy Chamber 13 Orchestra's concert in the Youth at the Center series - not too

AN all-Vivaldi program in the Beersheba Sinfonietta Classical Series No. 5, conducted by concertmaster Yaron Prensky and featuriog soloists from the ranks of the orchestra, turned out to be the season's most successful hoxoffice draw.

Performances of the four concerti and two sinfonias by the 18thcentury Venetian master were zestful as well as musically wellinformed. The concerto for four violins captured the feverish intensity of the Italian Baroque in brilliant instrumental figurations. Whence this popular appeal? Perhaps the attraction is in the music's optimism. spontaneily and clarity. Beersheba Conservatory, April

Max Stern

Ň

nhk

SCS

768

າມຕ

ΠØſ

. in бíΠ

î٦.

va-

in a

Tapping into	o an American	tradition	agair
A ments for meaningful and	DANCE REVIEW		steps. slippings

DORA SOWDEN

FTER five successful and successive "festivals," could Avi Miller surprise $\boldsymbol{\Gamma}$ us with his Sixth Annual Jazz Tap Dance Festival? He could, and he did.

The performance he brought to Jerusalem at the Gerard Behar Theater on April 8 (after a dehut in Ra'anana) topped the lot. Four extraordinary dancer-teachers came from the US to demonstrate that tap dance is not only alive and well, but reaching out and developing new ways - something essential to all art forms not only in "steps" (as tap dance is called here) hut in the whole approach to body movement. To whatever wonder the visitors offered in footwork, they added a flexibility and expressiveness that raised their skills to an art beyond mere toe-and-heel dexterity. There were no mere athletic acrobatics. Individual in their styles, the four had a happy grace and made the audience happy, too. which is particularly important in these times. Four musicians wove their syncopations oo piano, saxuphones, double bass and drums as though they had been playing for them forever and knew exactly where and when to stop and change.

in Berlin.

The intricacies of the dancers' choreography was full of trills and shadings, leaps and slides and the myriad embellishments that such dancers can give to new steps, giving "voice" to their solos.

Barbara Duffy, who opened the program, had the mobilitico of conscious mastery in her intricate vocabulary. Van "The Man" Porter knew how to interlace humor in his fabulous facility of stops and steps. slippings and slidings. Lisa Hopkins fin a spangled top) showed her elegance and expertise in her own manner. Ira Bernstein, a joy to watch, seemed to be saying that anything anybody could do, he could do better.

Of the Israelis, Avi Miller himself and Ofer Ben proved they could hold their own with style and method, while others (including Zvia Brumer) increased the sense of achievement.

The musicians were Eli Magen. Arale Kaminsky. Amikam Kamelman and Yaron Gottfried.

Code

PINK PANTHER Screen Saver Entertainment - on CD-ROM Enjoy the hippiest, coolest cat in cartoons - on your computer!!! · Fully enimated cartoon screen savers * Cool wallpaper * Guest appearances * Unforgettable Pink Panther theme music Produced by Asymetric Entertainment Works on Windows - 3.5" disk JP Special Price NIS 99 incl. p&h in Israel To: JPMart, The Jerusalem Post, POB 81, Jerusalam 91000 Please send ma The Pink Panther on CD-ROM Enclosed is my check, payable to The Jerusalem Post. Credit card orders accepted by phone/fax. Name Address. Citv

Tel. (day).

TOWER RECORDS' TOP 15 THIS LAST WEEKS ON WEEK WEEK CHARTS TITLE ARTIST RABIN - GOODBYE FRIEND VARIOUS ARTISTS 3 #1 2 RITA SHLOMO ARTZI TWO SHLOMO ARTZI VARIOUS ARTISTS TAKE THAT TV SOUND TRACK ALANIS MORISETTE DANNY LITANI VARIOUS ARTISTS ABBA OASIS RAMI KLEINSTEIN NURTI GALFONTE BEST OF DREAM MUSIC GREATEST HITS お丼ち粘打 21 12 11 #8 #9 #10 NEW 14 8 17 10 ∌]] 昇]2 NURIT GALRON VARIOUS ARTISTS SLEEPW #13 GOLDEN HEART 14 NEW MARK KNOFLER #14 Towar Records' top-selling albums for the previous week. RE - re-entry #15

Tel (day)_

HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY

Tuesday, April 16, 1996 The Jerusalem Post

I was guarded by angels

Chief Rabbi Yisrael Meir Lau remembers the horrors of the camps, and the miracles

T was 1945. I spent the first 10 days of the year in the Liabor camp of Czestocbowa. where the inmates worked mainly in the nearby munitions factory. I was then seven and a half years old. My brother, Naphali (Lavie), 11 years older. was with

In November 1944, when we arrived in Czestochowa from Piotrkow (Poland), the city of my birth, the camp officer gathered the prisoners, among them a sprinkling of children. I stood in line next to the Jewish group leader. The smallest one there. I surreptitiously gathered up diri and stones and prepared a little mouod under the delusion that, if I stood of it, my short stature would not be conspicuous.

It was clear that the children. not productive, were to be liquidated and the sentence was about to be carried out. My protest at that time, my maiden speech, is engraved upon my memory.

I claimed that children are dcfinitely useful, and there is no reason to dispense with us as a labor force. I said that I had worked in the glass factory in Hortensja, where I delivered carts with hottles of water for the workers at the furnaces. Eight hours at a stretch. I tugged carts of water from the snow outside to the furnaces inside (and got rheumatism). I said 1 knew how to polish boots.

I managed to stay alive, at a price of course - father's Schaffhausen pocket watch as a ransom.

We subsisted alternately on potatoes and a few grams of bread a day, and slept on the damp eatth. Early in January, we heard Russian artillery fire. We were afraid that we d be caught in the German-Russian crossfire. Then came the announcement: we were to assemble in the lot hythe huilding. Within a few minutes we were released. It had been decided to transport us to Germany,

ANOTHER SELECTION. Men go here, women and children go there. Naphtali realized there was a reason for that and hid me behind his back. The down pillow my mother had strapped to my back to serve as a blanket stuck out. The officer noticed it, came over behind me, grabbed me by the neck. lifted me up, and tossed me two or three meters in the air toward a group of women and children.

We plodded to the train in the snow. It was piled so high that I saw nothing but mountains of snow that those in front of me had trudged up with their feet.

We heard shots. David Feiner, a relative of the writer Katzetnik (Yehiel Dinor), collapsed to the right of me and did not get up. The soow turned red from his blood.

We arrived at the train, which consisted of cattle cars. Naphtali saw them lift me into one of the front cars. The men were squeezed into the rear of the train. He reasoned that if they separated the men from the women and children, then on the way they would separate the two sections for different destinations.

He and two friends from Piotrkow who were with him figured out how to open the doors. Thereafter every time the traio stopped Naphtali crawled underneath along the tracks and rails. counting the cars and shouting. "Lulek." then rushed back to his car.

He went through this routine three times. On the fourth try hc reached my car, and continued shouting "Lulek." I rushed toward him, my cheeks streaked with tears.

He hurriedly pulled me underneath the train, filled his cap with snow for drinking, and we crawled toward his car. His two friends pulled us inside and closed the door.

That's when we burst out cring for the first time.We arrived in Buchenwald, Weimar (in castern Germany), without knowing where we were.

Since my brother suspected that only the grown-ups were going into the camp, and the children would he shot, he put me in a sack, placed it over his shoulder and entered the camp. Naphtali took me out of the suck.

In the inspection room at the entrance were guards equipped with dogs, clubs and rifle butts.

"Schnell! Schnell! Hurry up!" We had to strip, toss our things in a pile, and submit to head shaving and disinfection.

An interned Czecb doctor was giving anti-typhus inoculatioos to all who entered. He asked my age. "Thirteen," I replied. Then he turned to Naphtali. "Better tell the truth," he cautioned. "Otherwise, he'll die on the spot from the injection."

"Seven and a balf," admitted Naphtali. The doctor looked around to make sure he wasn't being observed, discarded half of the contents, and injected the rest into my arm. I felt angels were watching over me moment by moment in this crucial year. We were transferred to block No. 52, cootaioing mostly Jews. I was given the smallest pajamas they could find, and Dutch wooden clogs.

The snow and the cold of January 1945 were simply beyond description. Anyone who stalled on the way would be splashed with water that immediately turned to ice. The trousers were transformed into grating tarpaulins that dug into the flesh.

ONCE AGAIN 1 was blessed with divine grace. Through Naphtali's efforts 1 got into hlock No. 8, which housed Russian prisoners.

There the conditions were much improved, and included soup every day. One impris-oned officer, Fyodor from Rostov, adopted me. He got me a fur hat and crocheted me with ear muffs.

One day I saw a group of "musclmen" (still-breathing skeletons) moving toward the gate. Tolck (Naphtali's nick-name), who had difficulty shuf-fling along, came up to me. "Lulck," he said. "They're taking mc. We'll never see each other again. You're a big hoy already. I don't see that this hell will ever end. No one will come out of it alive.

"But if a miracle should occur and you do survive, you should know that there is a place called Eretz Yisrael and you have an uncle there." This was the first time I heard the words Erctz Yisrael.

"Remember to say that you are Lulek Lau from Piotrkow. Your uncle will find you. Shalom, Lulek.

And then he added, "Repeat after me: 'Eretz Yisrael' - that's a place where they don't kill Jews." And then, crawling through the snow, be returned to his place. That was on April 6. On April 11 we heard cannoos approaching. They were General Patton's forces. Two American. planes circled io the heavens, and before nooo two American jeeps entered the camp. The people were runniog from the camp toward the forest, eveo though Germao sectries were sull standing with machioe guns to mow down escapees.

A beap of bodies had piled up at the gate. My block was near the gate, so I also ran. Theo I stumbled from exhaustion hehind a pile of bodies...

FORTY YEARS later, at a state ceremooy in Maryland, in the presence of presideot Reagan, the American chaplain Hershel Schechter, who was among the first to enter Buchenwald, described the scene: Behind a mound of bodies was a living pair of eyes. He grahhed his revolver in panic and circled the pile of hodies. Then he saw a Jewisb child, grabhed him and hugged bim. "How old are you?" he asked, with tears in his eves.

The child disliked uniforms. At first there had been blue shirts, then brown, then green, and now uniforms again, and a steel belmet. "How old are you?" asked the rahhi, crying. "What difference does it make?" I answered. "In any case, I am older than you." The rabbi smiled through his tears. "Why do you think you are older?

"Because you laugh and cry like a child." I answered. "I haven't laughed for years, and now I can't even cry any more

"So tell me, who is older?" They dressed me in a Hitler Jugend uniform from the warehouse, the only serviceable clothing there. Naphtali lay feverish from typhus, close to death.

A few days later, the Russian officer, Fyodor, was about to take me hack with him to Russia, and I came to take leave of Naphtali, He arranged to have people guard me to prevent the officer from taking me.

A month after liberation, Naphtali recovered from typbus, and I recovered from chicken pox under quarantine.

We were sent to a convalescent camp run by a French-Jewish health organization in Ecquis, not far from Paris.

Someone from our town reported to my brother that our mother had perished in Ravensbruck toward the end of succeeded in reaching Israel the

Kaddish - my first words in Hebrew. We were in the first group of Youth Aliya that came to Israel after the war. We arrived in Atlit in mid-July 1945, just before Tisha Be'av. in great confusion. Once again, we were sequestered behind a fence. And then, in Atlit, a new brother came to life for me, Yehoshua.

It turned out that my oldest Naphtali had never meationed in order to spare me anguish, had.

whose existence

that appeared in Ha' aretz. Some additional details were provided by Rabbi Lau's brother. Naphtali Lavie, whose book Am K Lavie is due to be released this fall by Cornwall Publishers, in the US.

the British guards let him enter and

This article was translated and adapted by Ida Myers and Shira Leibowiz Schmidt from an article

Two weeks later we were free - emprace us.

this time for ever.

the war. previous year. Naphtali told me about it. Our brother, who had read the list Then he taught me to say of arrivals in the newspapers, came to the camp. After some entreaties.

brother.

I would collect the songs that came from the soul'

concentration-camp prisoner who had seen the Dody of his murdered child destroyed in a Nazi crematorium appealed to another inmate: Write a song to preserve the memory.

For the man who had just arrived at the Sachsenhausen concentration camp outside Berlin, Aleksander Kulisiewicz wrote, "Lullahy for My Little Son in the Crematorium" in 1942:

"Here he lies, my ooly little boy

Tiny fists pressed in his mouth How can I cast you into the flames?"

Kulisiewicz, a Polish journalist with a passion for music. wrote 54 songs during the five years he was interned at Sacbsenhausen for publishing an anti-Nazi article. He memorized hundreds more during illegal songfests, and after the war devoted bis life to collecting music from other survivors.

Before bis death in 1982, be compiled the survivors' songs and memories in a 2,200-page manuscript that is being published in Germany.

"I told myself while I was still in the camp that others would collect political documents about the prisoners who were killed. I would rather collect songs and lyrics that came from the soul," Kulisiewicz told an interviewer several years before be died.

In Sachsenhausen, as well as Bergen-Belsen. Dachau. Auschwitz and other Nazi camps, the songs were a vehicle for prisoners to record their experiences. But they also helped prisoners cope with the miseries they suffered, said Guenter Morsch, director of the Foundation of Brandenburg Memorials, which oversees the preservation of Suchsenhausen. "Very simply, they tried to remain buman beings, and singiog was a survival tactic." Morsch said.

They sang about home, about life before prison. Their repertoire included love songs, travel songs. patriotic songs. While prisoners sometimes composed their own lyrics and music, they mostly sang traditional folk songs. Collecting the songs became a near-obsession for Kulisiewicz. said bis son Krzysztof, a translator who later helped his father answer letters from their bome in Cracow, Poland.

Kulisiewicz's job as a regional reporter for the government press agency in Poland allowed him to travel and visit other former prisoners. Later, he was able to trace others abroad with the help of survivors' organizau ons.

He stashed the reams of noies and tapes he collected alongside jackets and ties. filling 10 wardrobes in the cramped apartment he shared with his family.

The gallows at the Sachsenhausen concentration camp.

"I just remember piles. piles from the floor up to the ceiling." Krzysztof Kulisiewicz said. "He just turned his own life, and ours as well, into archives."

Kulisiewicz's devotion to the project took a toll on his family and eventually cost him his marriage, his son said. "At some point, my father simply gave in to the past. ... He thought be bad some kind of debt to pay, [that] he owed in to those who died in the camps," said the younger Kulisiewicz. "We could understand it, but at some point we stopped being able to tolerate it."

When bis father died, Krzysztof Kulisiewicz sought a custodian for the vast archives, comprising 100,000 pages of text and 50,000 meters of tape. They ended up at the Holocaust Memorial Museum io Wasbington.

Kulisiewicz's original 2,200page manuscript, containing 374 songs, remaios in Germany and is to be published in German at a rate of two volumes a year. The project is sponsored by the Foundation of Brandenburg Memorials, the University of Regensburg and Volkswagen. The first collection, a volume of songs and accounts from prisovers at Sachsenhausen, is due out in the fall. out in the fall. For better, and for worse, music was a part of life in concentration camps.

Prisoners were forced to sing at roll call or on work detail, and those who did not sing loudly enough risked a beating, Morsch, the memorial foundation director, said.

Nearly every camp had a prisoner orchestra. The best known was at Theresieustadt in the former Czechoslovakia, where concerts and other cultural activities by the prisoners were staged for foreign visitors. Most of Theresienstadt's mmates were eventually sent to death camps in Poland.

Secretly and defiantly, prisoners formed their own choruses and bands, using smuggled instruments.

At Sachsenhausen, Polish conductor Rosebery d'Arguto formed a Jewish choir that serenaded prisoners with Beethoven before they were packed into trains beaded for Auschwitz, where d'Arguto himself perished. Prisoners also produced song books on pilfered paper. Sachsenhausen inmate Miechocel Orlof illustrated his with drawings of red-roofed houses and men walking by the sea. Another prisoner, known only by his number, 34770, continued the book after Orlof's death on April 27, 1943, adding songs and drawings of a trum-peting elephant, a fighter plane, a tropical island.

But the fear of discovery was so strong that explicit lyrics like those Kulisiewicz wrote in memory of the three-year-old son of Aaron Liebeskind were relatively rare. Only three in the Sachsenhausen song book, published on the 50th anniversary of the camp's liberation last year, could be called camp songs.

The people very seldom sang about life in the camps. That was far too dangerous," Morsch said.

To Kalisiewicz, however, the risk brought strength. In his manuscript, Kulisiewicz described what it was to be a concentration-camp prisoner and to sing. "Everything trembled. My heart wanted to burst from my chest. I felt that we are alive, and that we are Poles, and that here in this horrible place we should sing a song. And not be destroyed. We will not be destroyed."

The address for the Foundation of Brandenburg Memorials, which is publishing the songs, is Strasse der Nationen 22, 16515 Oranienburg, Germany. (AP)

Through silence and tears, they reveal the anguish faced every day

HE survivor and I face each other. As the camera rolls, I ask questions to help hint recall fragments of a vanished world.

Do you remember the Jewish community in your town when you were small? How did your family celebrate High Holy Days? What did you hope to do with your life? Did you have a nickname?

1 am a volunteer interviewer for The Survivors Of The Shoah Visual History Foundation, established two years ago hy filmmaker Steven Spielberg. The goal is to videotape testimonies from Holocaust survivors. Interviews are digitalized in an archive and will be accessible through a computer network.

Some survivors have no one to tell. Others have kept their stories from their families. Perhaps it's easier to confide a secret to a stranger. We don't judge. One of the most difficult tasks is to hear painful testimonies and remain detached enough to steer the interview in the direction it must go. We have been given guidelines for our work. Generally, one-fifth of the interview is devoted to prewar experiences: three-fifths to wartime and one fifth to postwar life.

In pre-interview research, 1 learn about a survivor's past. On my own, I research the historical data and double-check significant dates and locations. Accuracy is important. Sometimes, an older person's memory for dates and spellings can fail.

PETER GREENBAUM

During the interview, my goal is to gather as much information as possible about the survivor's own life. When did he or she first sense danger? Where was she? What did she see? What happened to her family and friends? This project is a tapestry of stories and every survivor's memory is precious.

Sometimes, I am afraid of what I might hear. I can't appear upset, stop an interview or distract the survivor. She shouldn't have to see me struggle with my composure, while she wrestles with hers. I am also careful not to press too hard when she pauses.

In the course of a Holocaust survivor's testimony, silence can communicate pain, loss, bewilderment and disbelief. It completes a thought at the end of one recollection and stills the voice at the beginning of the next.

One energetic, composed man in his late 80s easily recalled his youth in Poland, describing his family life, hobbies, friends and work. As we wove our way through his story to the outbreak of war, his voice became quiet. He shared his worst memory: the moment his two-year-old son was pulled from his arms by a Nazi soldier. The survivor was silent for a long time.

The second s

He seemed to be a man with a firm hand over his emotions. It uniterved me to see him cry as he recalled his last sight of his son. Through his silence and tears, he revealed some of the anguish that he lives every day. His pain provoked an urge in me to fill the silence with words. Instead, we sat quietly for a moment and then moved on.

I believe survivors can share their stories with me because I am a stranger. And I have not become friends with those I have interviewed; On each occasion, however, the survivor I interviewed has reached out to embrace me when we

The Jerusalem Post Tuesday, April 16, 1996

on a piece of paper A project at Yad Vashem gives each victim a written memorial, David isaacson reports

Eternity

Jer in listo

Ber, post

rial

18. Bran

÷.,

.

~ .

· • •

 $V \in \mathcal{J}_1$

· ` ` ` *

 $\mathcal{F}_{\mathcal{F}}$

••

....

 $\leq c_{\rm c}$

• 7:-

. . .

- . .

-

· :

арана (11) С 11 ара

: - ـ ـ ·

The second second

-7

 $\sim 10^{-1}$

1

.....

WS not eltsin

 $\cdot \mathbf{n}_{e}$

上

Ror Joe Schachter, time is ranning out. A recently-retired Yad Vashem worker. he wants its Hall of Names to include the personal details of as many Holocaust victims as possihle, to give them "paper cemeteries" in lieu of proper burials. For this he needs survivors, their rela-tives or friends, to fill in "Pages of Testimony."

Two relatively recent events have given impetus to the project. The huge success of the movie Schindler's List prompted more survivors to "come out" and record the deaths of loved ones; and, on a far greater scale, the immigration of Jews from the former Soviet Union has led to a "resurgence of interest" in filling the ball's Pages of Testimony.

In the past 18 months, school-children in Karmiel and Kiryat Gat - cities with large Russianimmigrant populations - have been making house-to-house inquiries about Holocaust victims. This pilot project, which Schachter hopes will go nationwide, has resulted in 23,000 pages – each page representing an individual – of testimony. Furthermore, Schachter says, the project has taught the youngsters about the Holocaust, and given immigrants the feeling "that someone cares."

The Hall of Names, where he still works on a part-time, voluntary basis, is Yad Vashem's greatest representation of the enormity of the Holocaust, Schachter says. "We can name more than 3 1/2 million victims - based on Nazi documents, postwar interviews in Russia and Western government documents - but this is not what we're trying to achieve in the Hall of Names." The project goes beyond merely creating a com-plete record of the victims.

vivors] can't fill in the papers," he says, in reference to the unend-ing trainna suffered by those who lived onder Nazi rule. "I try to encourage them to do it for the Jewish people and for them-selves. Once they've done it, they often feel great relicf. They've given [the deceased] eternity on a piece of paper."

IN 1984, Schachter was a worried man: A fire or some other tragedy could have wiped ont all of the Hall of Names' Pages of Testimony. So, with the support of an American foundation, be decided to commit all the information to microfilm. For three years he volunteered his time to index names and places, crossreferencing Hebrew and Latin spellings and dates, and deleting uplications.

It was an immense job. The name Schwartz, for example, "has 150 variants." And the pages filled in by sprvivors were in numerous languages. But, Schachter says, the problems were even greater in the early days of the state.

"In 1955, government teams went from house to honse getting survivors to record information. In four out of five cases, they were told to go away. 'I can't handle this; maybe [the presumed dead relative] is still living.' was a typical response."

Another reason that survivors were reluctant to divulge Holocaust stories was, Schachter says; the "why-didn't-you-fightback attitude of macho Israelis." This led to the tragic situation where Holocaust survivors in the Jewish state were far more likely. to suppress their memories than were their counterparts elsewhere.

Only after the Yom Kippur War . Which made israelis feel less allto Holocaust victims, did 'coming

AND A DESCRIPTION OF A

HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY

In the Hall of Names office, Rabbi Schachter shows a Russian-language Page of Testimony which was filled out by a relative of the deceased. (Debbie Taylor-Zimelman) learned better how to mourn and admit to sorrow."

Schachter himself escaped from Vienna and arrived in New York in 1941. Ordained as a rabbi, he spent 20 years as a student chaplain and director of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundations at the University of Illinois in Chicago and at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. He initially went to Yad Vashem to look for details of his own family and found that there were very little.

HIS MASTER'S degree in psy-chology undouhtedly helps in his work at Yad Vashem.

Citing a typical situation, he says: "An individual comes to the desk and asks what happened to Uncle Yankele, We're 80 percent confident that we don't know the answer." This does little to ease the anger and depression of one "who couldn't bring himself to come here for 30 years. The person here has to be a psychologist: he has to realize that for survivors, it happened yesterday, not 50 years ago."

Sometimes a survivor needs to unload his anger [at Yad Vashem]" he says. "He might bare his arm [to show his tattoo]. You become like a sponge; but there's only so much you can take."

Those whose faith has been destroyed often ask him how he can still believe in God. "I tell them. 'I have no answer, you must find your own answer.' "But, he points out, in theodicy, proper memorials. But many isur- past 10 to 15 years, "we have there are 34 arguments explaining ing could be considered a

A dear companion in the face of danger very sophisticated doll. Her arms and legs could move and she

Before leaving Paris, Irene Schwartz gave the family's valuahles to a man who was supposed to return them on the other side of the north/south border. But he didn't, and all that was left of the family fortune was money which Claudine's mother had stuffed

When they arrived at Aurillac, they had to change their identities.

Claudine hecame Françoise Martin, "and I told Colette that was no longer Françoise, to which she retorted "I know. My name is Claudine." But he said, "No, your

After a brief spell in Aurillac.

the family went to Cannes, and from there to Grenohle. In Cannes, Claudine didn't go to school. Her mother taught her at home, "but we occasionally went to the beach where there were German soldiers." In all the places where they hid, they kept Shabbat

In Grenoble, Claudine went to the village school, and to church.

On Thursdays, she went to catechism. Her grandmother made doubly sure that she knew her catechism well, but straight after hearing the daily recital, would teach her about being Jewish. "So

I knew that although I had to hlend in, I was Jewish and differ-

In February 1943, Irene

Schwartz had nothing to give her daughter for her seventh hirthday,

so she cut the hem of her crepe-de-chine nightgown and made an outfit for Colette - which she

AFTER the war, Colette stayed on an armchair in Claudine's room.

But then, aged 20, Claudine married and went to live with her husband Chaim in Toulouse.

"Whenever we visited my mother,

my two older daughters played

Claudine's father died in 1963.

wears to this day.

with the doll."

cut.

kiddush over raisin wine.

oame is Michelle."

could say "maman."

into the doll.

the coexistence of God and evil. Yet still the sculpted hands reach out in vain from the top of the Hall of Names' six pillars. And still the question from the Psalms inscribed on each pillar, "From whence shall my help come?"

goes unanswered. Today, the Pages of Testimony help reunite families, "We recently put together two Russian cousins," Schachter says, "One was living here, the other in Oklahoma City," Then there are those who are only now discovering that they are in fact Jewish. "Often their parents - survivors - converted to protect their children from the next pogrom, Schachter explains. The grandparents died for their Jewishness and the children converted out; that makes the deaths even more painful," He says that there is a support group "for about 900 of these crypto-Jews."

Then there is the question of defining a Holocaust survivor. According to the 1953 Martyrs' and Heroes' Remembrance Law, The task of Yad Vashem is to gather into the homeland material regarding all those members of the Jewish people who laid down their lives, who fought and rebelled against the Nazi enemy and his collaborators, and to perpetuate their names and those of the communities, organizations and institutions which were Holocaust victim." Conversely, an indirect victim "who died of disease in Tashkent or of starvation in Siberia, we put in the exceptions category."

FAR MORE common are visits veierans of the Kindertransport which evacuated 10.000 Jewish children from Germany. Austria and Czechoslovakia to Britain before the war broke out. Many Kindertransport veterans want to know the fate of their loved ones. If these relations were for example sent to the Lodz ghetto, the Hall of Names, which possesses the Association of Lodz Survivors' five huge volumes of names, might be able to help. Schachter asks rhetorically, "Can yon imagine someone seeing the names of his own family members there? It's horrible."

Numerous letters from Yad Vashem's visitors testify to the therapeutic quality of Schachter's counsel.

"I tell them, 'You suffered, you still suffer, hut you may be comforted to know that, in their last view of you, your parents saw that you were safe."

Some, especially American Jews, give the Hall of Names original photos of victims in their families "because, they say, [the photos] will mean nothing to their kids." In this way, even the last

The mental anguish continues

Nine hundred Holocaust survivors remain cooped up in Israeli psychiatric hospitals, with nowhere else to go

STARING straight ahead. "K." took deep drags on his cigarette and spoke in staccato sentences about how the SS shot dead his mother and younger sister in front of him when he was seven.

He escaped from the Germans in 1941, and found refuge with Ukrainian partisans who lived in underground hunkers and taught him how to throw grenades and set explosives. "The Germans killed my mother. It gave me courage," he said.

When the war ended, K. was an 11-year-old combat veteran, orphaned and homeless. He drifted in Europe for three years until he reached Israel in 1948. As a 16-year-old, he joined the IDF, then held odd jobs as a tractor dri-

In 1961, during a stint in the army reserves, K, hroke down, Diagnosed as schizophrenic, he was sent to a mental hospital and has been in institutions ever since. (Nearly one in five chronic mental patients in Israel is a survivor of the Holocaust. Officials allowed some of the patients to be interviewed on condition they he identified only hy initials.)

Today, K. spends his days as a belper in a factory at the Tirat Hacarmel Medical Center for Mental Health, near Haifa.

During a reporter's visit. K. - a stocky 61-year-old with dull eyes and leathery skin - sat on a chair outside the factory director's office, obediently waiting for the next errand.

K.'s fate is shared by 900 other Holocaust survivors who are patients in mental hospitals across the country. Diagnosed with schizophrenia, manic depression and other illnesses, most have been in institutions since arriving here in the 1940s and 1950s.

Others suffered their first pisodes of mental illness only coming too late for those hospitalized for decades.

"We have missed the boat," said Dr. Dan Enoch, deputy director of Tirat Hacarmel. The Holocaust survivors previously were treated just like other chronic patients, without special consideration of their past. "If you understand what they have gone through, and we think that we have done almost nothing to help them, we should feel guilty," Enoch said. Some 250,000 to 300,000 survivors sought refuge here after World War II. They arrived at a ume when Israelis were imbued with the ideology of the proud fighting Jew, and many people did not want to hear about Jews who went to death camps without resistance.

The survivors also had trouble communicating. "They went through an experience that was completely outside that of any normal person," said Benny Morris, a historian, "They couldn't connect with people here."

Still, most managed. Some married quickly to replace the families they had lost in the death camps. Others joined the army and fought in the War of Independence.

But there were those who could not shake the horrors of the past. Tirat Hacarmel doctors said interviews were too painful for most patients hut offered some case histories: A 65-year-old man spent a year in Auschwitz as a 14-year-old. Infected with typhoid, he lost his hearing there. In 1947, he came to Israel, along with other war orphans, and began having para-noid hallucinations. He has been hospitalized since 1950. A 66-year-old patient saw his parents starve to death in a Nazi labor camp. He reached Palestine in 1944 and has been hospitalized since 1949. To this day, he hears commands from a redheaded man

A 70-year-old woman was in Auschwitz for five years as a teenager. In Israel since 1960, she married and had a son, hut then was first hospitalized in 1961 with severe depression. Unlike most survivors, she constantly talks about the camp. When feeling down, she complains that life

In Tirat Hacarmel's ward for the elderly, P., another Holocaust survivor, slumped in his wheelchair. Approached hy a doctor, he hriefly looked up, beat his forehead with his right fist, grimaced

as if crying, and then nodded off again. B., in her 80s, suffers from dementia. Asked about her wartime experiences, she just smiled, revealing a few crooked

Mark. the Health Ministry official, said that even such patients

now is worse than in Auschwitz.

he says lives in the ceiling.

ng

Γa-

sed

the

ms

al-

be ١г.

t's ea

hs

I Jewish victims of the Nazis who have not powerful and more sympathetic been memorialized in the hail. I want to give [all the victims] out become more normal." In the destroyed because they were surviving member of a family Jewish."

American soldier who died fight-murdered by the Nazis can know Thus, Schachter points out, "an that their relatives' lives will be recorded and respected in perpetuity.

after moving to Israel and first spending some productive years here. But doctors believe the Holocaust's horrors still contrihute to their illnesses.

Some remain in hospital only because they had no relatives to care for them once they improved, said Dr. Motti Mark, director of mental health services in the Health Ministry. A ministry survey in 1993 found that 300 of the Holocaust survivors did not need to remain in psychiatric hospitals. In a new approach, the government decided to huild three old-age homes for them close to mental hospitals, with some money coming from the Jewish Claims Conference. which distributes German reparations to survivors' causes.

The remaining 600 are to be moved together into renovated hospital wings. "By letting them stay together, we can enable those who want to speak about their past to be heard," Mark said.

stand a chance of getting better Some psychiatrists are skepuand that everybody has a responsibility to try. "We are telling them, 'We are your family now,' " he said. (AP) cal. They say it is possible to improve the patients' living conditions hut the new treatment is teeth.

'Good Nazi' saved Denmark's Jews

HEN Denmark was occupied by the Nazis, Georg Ferdinand Duckwitz was appointed shipping attaché at the German mission in Copenhagen. Despite being a member of the Nazi party. he was a humanitarian. At the end of 1943, Duckwitz received from his boss in Germany a strictly confidential letter ordering him to prepare four cargo ships to transport all the Danish Jews in one mass deportation. Disregarding the personal danger involved, Duckwitz informed the Swedish amhassador to Denmark, and others, of the danger facing the Jews. The Jews had to be evacuated without delay, the almost insurmountable difficulties notwithstanding. It was in no small measure due to Duckwitz that all the Danish Jews, and even Torah

GITTA AMIPAZ-SILBER sures, were rescued.

Duckwitz's warning preceded the planned deportation of 7,200 Jews by only a few days. Danish sympathizers received the news with great carnestness. It was clear that the saving operation had to be complete and immedi-

ves

OUL

. ín

6-

in

-15

:0

ì

Nevel 1

in a

The early warning made it possible for the Danes to smuggle the Jews into Sweden. Duckwitz met with the Swedish prime minister, Per Albin Hansson, who promised him the full support of his government in saving Danish Jewry.

In saving virtually a whole country's lews, Duckwitz was unique among German officials. The Nazis would undoubtedly have shot him if they had known what he was doing. Duckwitz said: "I do not think that my life is more important than the lives of 7,000 Jews."

Friends forever: Claudine and her doll Colette. (Isaac Harari) reasons for the delay.

- but now 1 am."

its execution took a long time. Claudine did not consciously stop herself from giving up the doll, hut there were all sorts of valid

Carmeli-Peled, who is in charge of collecting paraphernalia related to the Holocaust, asked her to translate a letter into French to send to French Holocaust survivors. The itemized list of mementos included toys. "As l translated I realized that my doll will be in the right place in Yad Vashem. I'm also involved in education, and I realized that the the story of the doll and the doll herself can be a good vehicle to transmit things to children."

Instant though the decision was.

One little girl survived the trauma of the Holocaust with the help of a lifelong friend, Greer Fay Cashman writes herself was the doll. Colette was a

ORE than 50 years ago, Colette was Claudine's closest friend. They were inseparable. It was to Colette that Claudine confided her innermost secrets. "Colette was the one." to whom I used to tell everything ... what happened at school ... that we are Jewish ... everything," recalled Claudine, now a 60-yearold grandmother, as she reminisced in the kitchen of her home in Jerusalem's Old City Jewish Quarter.

They were together during and after World War II. fleeing from the Nazis and rejoicing in the liberation. And when Claudine came to Israel in 1970, Colette came too, and lived with her under the same roof. There was not quite the same degree of closeness as there had been previously, and their relationship deteriorated. It got to the stage that Claudine acknowledged Colette's presence only once or twice a year. But the cruelest cut of all was when Claudine decided to institutionalize Colette. She didn't place her in a home for the aged or a hospital for the chronically ill. She put her in a museum. For Colette is a doll - a very precious doll who figured prominently in the childhood and later years of Claudine Rudel. Colette came into Claudine's life in February 1940, on her fourth birthday. "She's a very nice doll, with a oice face and green-brown eyes," said Clandine fondly. "She has real hair. The hair she has now is mine. I had lovely hair which my father would not allow me to cut till 1947 when I nagged him. My mother kept my hair and took it, together with the doll, to a wig-maker. Colette will always be part of me, and I will be part of Colette.

Claudine's father, Miklos Schwartz, had come from Hungary to study in Paris, because the quota system to which Jews were subjected made it difficult for him to study in Budapest. Her mother, Irene, came to Paris from Transylvania, to improve her chances of marrying a Jew.

In 1937 the French passed a law which called for the expulsion of foreigners who had arrived in the country after a certain date. The family left France for Badapest, but returned within a year. When war broke out, the Schwartzes were vacationing in the south of France. In 1940, when the Germans were approaching Paris, Claudine was sent with her grandmother and two or three other children to Brittany and was brought back to Paris in the middle of 1942.

She was already six years old, and it was therefore compulsory for her to wear the yellow star. Her mother impressed on her that she must never go out without a book or something else to hold against her chest. Her mother bought a clutch bag for herself for precisely that purpose - to hide the dreaded patch.

Meanwhile, her father was active in various Jewish organizations.

French Jews, according to Clandine, refused to realize the extent of their peril until the end of 1941, when the Germans started to arrest Jews.

THE husband of the concierge in the building where the Schwartz to a certain degree, lighting can-dies on Friday night and making family lived was an outspoken antisemite, but he came from Lorraine and hated Germans more than Jews," which proved fortunate not only for Miklos and Irene Schwartz, but also for Jews in other parts of Paris. The man was a bus driver and the Germans used him to transport Jews to the CANIDS.

He was always given his assignment in advance, and he would then tell Miklos Schwartz that he would be in a certain neighborhood the next day. This gave Schwartz time to go to the neighborhood in question and alert the Jews that there would he a roundup. Claudine remembers that her father would leave the house at night just before she went to sleep, and her mother's nervous reaction.

When the situation got too dangerous, Schwartz went to Vichy to prepare a place for his family in Aurillac. In July 1942 he sent the family someone to take them south.

Her mother packed a small suitcase, but all that Claudine took for Public Reladons Department at Yad Vashem. One day, Haviva

hring Colette to Yad Vasheni, she had to give video testimony. She took the doll with her and afterwards, wandered for several hours around the museum, carrying the doll in her arms. "While she was in the suitcase, she was not missing me and I was not missing her scrolls and other synagogue trea-SAVE TIME AND ENERGY

call THE JERUSALEM POST direct Advertising: 02-315608, 02-315637-40 Fax: 02-388408 Editorial: 02-315613 Subscriptions: 02-315610 Fax: 02-389527 Fax: 02-389017

BUSINESS & FINANCE

Peres approves more foreign construction workers

Jersualem Post Staff

This situation would only be altered through "partial industrial-izadon," said Baram.

The association said contractors bave lost NIS 750 million in recent months, which amounts to a construction slowdown to sorce

60 percent of regular activity, largely due to the irregularity imposed on the market following

Housing Minister Binyamin

Ben-Eliezer said the decision to increase the number of foreign construction workers in the countrywas essential since that industry is "a locomotive to the entire

A bousing slowdown might generate price instability, which in turn would be felt throughout the Ben-Eliezer said he sbared the desire to accelerate the construction industry's "industrialization."

adding he will set up a committee economy.

economy, be said.

to look into the matter.

the closure of the territories.

PRIME Minister Shimon Peres yesterday approved the admission into the country of an additional 10,000 foreign workers for the construction industry. Peres's decision was welcomed by the Contractors Association. which had been complaining that the protonged closure of the territories, coupled with the government's restrictions on the importation of foreign workers, inflicted severe damage on the housing and construction industry.

"At this stage it offers us addi-tional oxygen," said Contractors Association managing director Amos Baram, referring to the imminent arrival of new foreign workers.

As for the longer term, however. Baram said the industry must seek ways to attract more Israelis. many of whom shun professions in construction due to their current labor-intensive, and low-paying character.

Bank reform bill likely delayed to next Knesset Likud: Labor giving in to pressure from Hapoalim

GALIT LIPKIS BECK

LEGISLATORS and experts do not expect the present Knesset will manage to turn into taw the Brodet Committee's report, which aims to sharply reduce and cap commercial banks' non-financial hnldings. "I doubt the time at our disposal is sufficient for that purpose," MK Avraham Poraz (Meretz) said yesterday, adding that he hoped the next Knesset would complete the legislation "within months."

Meanwhile, Likud's Dan Tichon, who leads the opposition's activides in the Knessel Finance Committee, charged that the delay in the bill's legislation stems from a ploy between Labor and Bank Hapoalim, which stands to initially lose power after the report's execution.

Representatives of Hapoalim. which has historic ties with Labor, said they were not aware of any lobbying activity on their bank's part concerning the report's implementation.

Earlier this week, Finance Committee chairman Gedalya Gal (Labor) said be is considering splitting up the proposed banking clauses into three categories: noncontroversial, controversial but Brodet-proposed, and those that do not appear in the report and are controversial.

Gal plans to present the Knesset only those parts of the bill which he deems non-controversial.

Capital market sources in Tel Aviv said the proposed reform has "such far-reaching implications on the economy that it would be irresponsible on the part of the Finance Committee to present it for the Knesset's approval on the Gal: No point in approving such an important bill hastily. are clauses which are controversiai.

The proposed reform is intend-ed to reduce the banks' influence over the economy primarily by reducing the banks' share in nonbanking boldings.

But, since the publication of the Brodet Committee's recommendations last fall, additional clauses have been added to the proposed bill.

The bill is challenged mainly by the banks, Association of Life Insurance Agents and the Consumer Council. Gal said be intends to bring the relevant clauses for second and third readings at a special Knesset session on April 29.

"Gal is among the few MK's with integrity," one banking source said. "He realizes that hasty passage of the bill cannot only be harmful to the economy but also to the government, which owns most of the banks."

Speaking at a Finance Committee meeting on Sunday, Gal said there is no point in approving such a structured and important ruling hastily at a time when the majority of the committee members do not have free time to take part in the committee ses-

Poraz, otherwise an avid sup porter of the reform plan, backed Gal's stance, adding that most of the committee members are cur-rently occupied with the elections. Gal's position contradicts Finance Minister Avraham Shohat's stance, as well as other senior officials at the Finance Ministry and Bank of Israel, who contend that voting on the bank-ing bill should not be postponed, since no one knows what will happen by the next Knesset.

Those officials fear that delays in the legislation are likely to torpedo the Brodet Committee reforms, since the next Knesset is likely to experience political difficulties in passing the law. The Association of Insurance Agents bas submitted to the Knesset Committee a memorandum that explains their objections to clause 7 of the bill, which gives the banks the green light to con-trol, or have a controlling interest, in insurance agencies.

"Clause 7 opens the back door for banks to market insurance, and in contrast to the proposals of the insurance sub-committee and warnings of the anti-trust com-missioner, opens up the possibili-ty for banks to gain control of the sector," the association said.

Spokesmen for Hapoalim and Leumi said the banks' representatives expressed their objections to the passage of the law at a Finance Committee session earlier this month, explaining that rushing its legislation and execution would negatively impact on the banking sector.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Tuesday, April 16, 1996

Dmatek, the locally based high-tech company quoted on London's Alternative Investment Market, yesterday announced that its operat-ing subsidiary, Elmo-Tech, has received a $2.7 million order for its "house arrest" electronic monitoring system, EMS-2000, from the Sweden's prison service, KVS.

This is the first major contract for electronic monitoring to be Galit Lipkis Beck awarded in Europe.

Josephthal Lyon and Ross lists eight Israeli bny-rated stocks in a quarterly publication on investment opportunities in US-traded Israeli stocks. The investment consultant recommends that investors

Israeli stocks. The investment consultant recommends that investors purchase the following stocks; Aladdin, Ampal, ECI Telecom, Gilat, Orbotech, Rada, Tecoomatix and Teva. Commenting on the local market, Josephthal forecast that solid economic fundamentals, strong earnings, and increased foreign and local investing should boost the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange's Two Sided Index between 20 percent and 25% this year. Galit Lipkis Beck

TASE has site on Internet: The Tel Aviv Stock Exchange has opened a site, in English, on the Internet in an attempt to encourage foreign investors to invest in the market.

The site will publish the daily trading performance of stocks and general information on the exchange. The address is WWW.tase.co.il. Galit Lipkis Beck

The American Wireless Access has developed a two-way paging and messaging service, using AVX Israel parts. The system allows people to instantly respond and automatically acknowledge pages using a satellitedistributed nationwide paging system. Galit Lipkis Beck

Banks to give northern residents bit of a break: The commercial banks' branch managers in the North have received instructions to handle the accounts of residents there with flexibility. Bank Lenmi said it will not charge interest on overdrafts of NIS 1.000 for one month. Bank Hapoalim is also adopting a flexible approach. Galit Lipkis Beck

J. Malki Product has signed a deal with Tsukasa Corp. a Japanese distributor, to sell its cosmetics products in Japan. According to the deal, Tsukasa has exclusive representation of Malki Products in cer-tain market areas, such as door-to-door sales. Tsukasa will order a minimum of $1 million worth of products in the coming years. J. Malki Products manufacturers totally pure and natural soaps, some of which are sold under the brand name Yarden Galit Lipkis Beck in Israel.

Provident funds suffer 16% rise in redemptions

PROVIDENT funds continued to percent to NIS 456.5 million from NIS 391.8m. in February, as savers continued moving money to bank saving programs, the Treasury reported yesterday. Capital market analysts said the funds' negative real yields continue to encourage the public to leave them and move to more profitable investments, such as saving plans. The remaining funds are directed toward consumption.

GALIT LIPKIS BECK

Bank saving funds accumulated a net NIS 219m. in March, more mulated assets, based on their risk preference and other investment considerations. Operation of the personal funds permission from FDA to market skin resurfacing product eve of an election, so long as there anwhere today.

GALIT LIPKIS BECK

can treat.

Laser Industries gets

LASER Industries, a leader in surgical laser applications, yesterday announced it has received marketing clearance from the US Food and Drug Administration for its FeatherTouch SilkLaser System.

The company said the new product is a breakthrough in the growing laser skin resurfacing market, adding that it allows among leading aesthetic sur-geons," he said. Physicians will now be able to increase their income by substantially increasing the number of patients they suffer large redemptions in March, increasing by about 16

physicians to treat the full spectrum of skin resurfacing cases in significantly reduced procedure time.

The FeatherTouch Laser is optimized to treat fine lines and delicate areas on the face - such as eyelids, wrinkles and scars.

Benjamin Givli, chairman and CEO of Laser Industries, said his company now offers "the most advanced, versatile skin resurfacing laser system available

ANDREW PECK

Reach U.S. markets

Direct Access

by phone or fax from anywhere in the world

Our telephone and fax tines are always open, We can assure you of fast, accurate executions performed by our knowledgeable brokers. Join the

ASSOCIATES INC.

The company said skin resurfacing is a popular cosmetic procedure performed in an office setting and costing between $1,000 and $5,000.

"Advanced screenings of FeatherTouch have already generated tremendous excitement

It has been embraced by about 70.000 plastic surgeons, derma-tologists and opbthalmologists worldwide.

The FeatberTouch SilkLaser system is available in a variety of packages. Prices range from $49,000 to $98,900.

Since the start of the year, provident funds' accumulated redemptions total NIS 1.44b., of which NIS 651.27m. was moved to the saving plans.

Training funds' redemptions increased almost 50% in March to NIS 102.7m. from NIS 69.5m. in February and NIS 37.5m. in January.

than triple the NIS 67m. accumulated in the previous month. Index-linked programs, which promised attractive real yields, bronght in NIS 383.87m. last month and NIS 1.07b, since the week. beginning of the year. In contrast, foreign currency linked saving programs continued to register withdrawals due to the weakness of the dollar. Savers removed NIS 165.1m. from foreign currency linked programs in March, and have pulled out NIS 419.4m. since the start of the year.

in related news, Bank Hapoalim announced plans to introduce a "personal" provident fund into the local capital market, which will allow savers to individually decide how to invest their accuis subject to the approval of Doron Sorer, supervisor of capital markets at the Finance Ministry. Hapoalim submitted a request to approve the fund at the start of the

The bank emphasized that the fund is popular in the US but has never been adopted here.

The bank said the fund will invest in a wide range of financial assets - including shares, shekel deposits, linked deposits, mutual funds and options.

In addition, the fund will offer relatively high flexibility, giving savers the option to make changes in the investment portfolio on a daily basis.

The fund will be managed by the provident fund manager or the saver.

White dust rises as workers shovel rocks from a truck on the outskirts of Hanoi yesterday. The construction industry is booming in Vietnam's vibrant economy, often at the expense of the cuvironment. (Reuter)

Why it Pays to Keep Money in Israel

Israel has emerged as a deposits, in different currencies, leading international banking yielding most attractive returns, as well as current and center. Increasingly, sophisticated checking accounts. These customers from around the balances are transferable to world are choosing Israel as banks anywhere in the world. the place to keep money- In addition, Mizrahi offers a especially at Mizrahi Bank. complete range of private The logic is compelling, banking, investment and trust Non-residents can maintain services all conducted with high interest deposits which complete confidentiality and backed by an impeccable are 100% tax-free. Such accounts are known as record of safety and PATAH (which stands for responsiveness to the Pikadon Toshav Hutz - foreign depositor's individual needs. For further information, resident's deposit.) Mizrahi Bank offers its please contact one of the offices PATAH account holders a listed below, or visit any of our wide range of services, which 90 branches throughout Israel. include short and long-term

MIZRAHI BANK

Tourist and Foreign Investor Centers: 78 Hayarkon Street, Tel Aviv • Tel: 03-5171636 12 Ben Yehuda Street, Jerusalem • Tel: 02-208922 29 Jaffa Road, Jerusalem • Tel: 02-232151 4 Smilansky Street, Netanya • Tel: 09-605555 12 Kikar Haatzmaut, Netanya • Tel: 09-344577

Internet: www.mizrahi.co.il

with Czech Rep., Slovakia FTA signed JENNIFER FRIEDLIN

Two-way trade between Israel

Slovakia totals $100 million, but

INDUSTRY and Trade Minister Micha Harish will sign free-trade agreements with the Czech Republic and Slovakia in May, the Czech Republic or Slovakia. the ministry said yesterday.

The two agreements, which will go into effect on January 1, 1997, represent Israel's first free trade agreement with any Centra European country.

According to the agreement there will be an immediate exemption of certain taxes or some of the goods Israel import from the two countries."

When the agreement goes into effect, additional steps will be implemented to reduce customs taxes until their elimination in January, 2000.

The agreement prevents Israel from increasing the customs tax

"A fax for you" All you want to know about your ecounts, on your lax, within 15 minu officials say potential for trade to develop exist on any food or alcohol exported to

Last year, Israel's exports there increased 25 percent to $40m.

Israel is currently negotiating and the Czech Republic and similar agreements with Poland and Slovenia.

4	NTHS 6 125 750	4.750 4.250	12 MONT
4	125 750	4.250
1.	750
0.		1,750	4.500
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	375	0.375	. 0.625
ne linear these line
Ign Exchan	re Rates*	(15496)
GS AND	*
FERS	BANKNO		Plan.
3,3505	Buy	Sel	Rep.
3.1753	3.07	9.99	8.5250
2.1018	2.03		3.1560
4.7879		4.86	4,7584
		0.63	0.6166
1.8818			2.9087
2.5768	2.49		1.8684
	0.45		2,5806
		0.50	0.4843
	0.52	0.58	0.5411
2.3434	2.28		. 0.8665
2.5134	-243		2.3287
0.7533	0.67		2.4978
1.0237			0.7483
2.9008		3.04	2,9685
		2.05	2.0076
_			4.5131
3.9397			0.9754
4.9407	4.77		3.9127
25187	2.43	2.56	4,9058
	2.63
	Agon Exchany G AND STERS Sell 3,3505 3,1753 2,1018 4,7379 0,6199 2,9260 1,8818 2,5768 0,4718 0,4718 0,4718 0,4718 0,4718 0,4718 0,4718 0,4718 0,4718 0,4718 0,4718 0,4718 0,4746 0,5708 2,33434 2,5134 0,2573 1,0237 2,9369 2,0237	Agent Exchange Rates* CS AND BANKONCI SER Bury 3.3505 Bury 3.3505 Bury 3.3505 Bury 3.3505 Bury 3.1753 3.07 2.1753 3.07 2.1753 3.07 2.1753 3.07 2.1713 2.03 4.7879 4.63 0.6199 0.59 2.9250 2.83 1.8818 1.81 2.5768 2.49 0.45718 0.457 0.45706 0.64 0.3544 0.28 2.5734 2.28 2.5733 0.57 1.0237 0.99 2.9869 2.88 2.0217 1.95	Self BANKONCTES 3:3505

10,000 independent investors and money managers worldwide who currently trade with Andrew Peck Associates. Low Commission Rates Once you compare, why call anyone else? Andrew Peek Associates offer Savings in Size discounts for investors who trade 3,000 shares or more - pay onty 3 cents Listed or 2 cents OTC (minimums apply). Even if you trade less, we will save you money. Our option rates are just as competitive. And Andrew Peck never trades against customer orders.

Compare		1000 Shs @ 530	3000 Shs @ 534	5000 Sha @ 550
Our	Andrew Peck (OTC)	$75	$75	$100
Ratos	Andrew Pack [Listed]	$100	$100	$150
	Charles Schwab	S166	$287	$430
And	Merrill Lynch	$$77	S1230	$2430
Save	Source: Telephone quotus, k	føy 1994

Personal Service

At Andrew Peek Associates, we provide the special treatment you are accustomed to. We have been the leader in international discount brokerage since 1979. Every broker is a partner in the company, with an average of 10 years' experience. Most are Registered Options Principals a distinction held by only 4% of all brokers. We immediately execute your trade and privide confirmation promptly.

For these reasons and more, Andrew Peck Associates is the international investor's choice.

Toll free numbers available from many countries. Call us today for our information kit and account application, or visit out Web site al: http://www.the host.com/peck

Newpon Financial Center, 111 Pavonia Avenue, Jersey City, NJ 07510

Phone 201-217-9500 Accounts Protected up to $25 Million

Fax 201-217-1919 Members NASO & SIPC

.

Eer Post

I

h ria

. .

i(n

a a Newlay

2 U A

1.757 2.75

- 44 (90) 17 - 58 70

7

WWS DO

 $\tau \to 2$ · • • • •

17 1 A 44

.

.

. 2

الا رضاء

• • •

 $\mathcal{O}_{\mathcal{O}_{\mathcal{O}}}$

 $\chi^{(1)}_{i}$

*.*2

2.7%

 $N \rightarrow 0$

541

14 C 1

N 4 N

 $\sim 10^{-1}$

(T, S, S, S)

 $\cdot -$

 $a_{i} = 0$

1.1

. . · ·

.....

2.2

....

.

 $\sim 10^{-1}$

 N^{-12}

· · · · ·

. •

. . .. 1.1.1

100-117

bieth

17

INTE MONEY

The Jerusalem Post Tuesday, April 16, 1996

Sec.1

BUSINESS & FINANCE

ROBERT DANIEL 198.65 188.91 +0.34%+0.04% Two-Sided index Maof Index

The index came in just below expectations of an increase of 1.1%-1.3%. The rise in fruit and vegetables accounted for half the overall increase. Pre-Pessah shopping also boosted prices in the month, analysts said.

On Sunday, stocks dropped on concern over accelerating inflation and the potential for higher interest rates. The Bank of Israel said the M1 money supply rose a higher-than-expected 3% in March from February.

Investors' expectations for the CPI were "not good, to put it mildly," said Moshe Jonas, manager of the Jerusalem office of the securities firm Moritz and Tuehler, and manager of the $2.5 million-asset Svecia Israel Select-

The Maof Index rose 0.34% to 198.65, while the Two-Sided Index tacked on 0.04% to 188.91. The most active stock was Koor Industries Ltd., the country's largest industrial company, which was unchanged as NIS 4.7m. worth of shares were

Across the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange, NIS 7.6m. worth of shares were traded. Nearly five shares fell for every one that rose.

11

uding

I Ta-

: used in the begin arms

ıd al-

n, he four, ations meetport's

tinian

Judea

d for ng of onths.

ionth,

atudy,

was rders

cord-writ-out cling hor-

:wish

5

Tugging the Maof Index upward were Toya Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. and Supersol, both of which gained 0.7%. The CPI and mony supply reports might prompt the central hank to raise interest rates to slow the economy and inflation. Such a response could also further damp investors' appetite for stocks, as higher rates boost companies' borrowing costs, cutting into profits.

The central hank will set interest policy on Sunday. The central hank last changed rates on Fehruary 1, when it raised the rate at which it lends to banks 0.3 percentage point to 14 percent.

Among widely traded stocks, Koor subsidiary Tadiran Ltd. whieb has telecommunications. defense and eonsumer-appliance and consumer-products interests fell 0.8%.

Bank stocks were higher. Bank Hapoalim shares rose 1.9%, Bank Leumi Issue 0.1 tacked on 0.9%, Discount Bank added 0.25%, and First International Issue 5 added 1%.

Foods company Osem lost 1.75%, while Elite, a maker of candy and coffee, slipped 1%. (Bloomberg)

British, German shares close at record highs WORLD MARKET ROUNDUP

Smith, an economist at Credit LONDON (Reuter) - British and German shares zoomed to record highs yesterday, boosted by a huoyant Wall Street and the strength of the dollar against the

THE PEOPLE YOU CAN TALK TO.

mark. London stocks closed at Lyonnais Laing. "This is helping the dollar move higher." The mark was also battered hy weekend - comments from Bundeshank president Hans Tietmeyer, who said he would wel-

State of the second

nble

	MARKETS	ΤĽ		3,790.5 after rising 23.	7 points, or	come a "normaliz mark because it	zation" of 0.63 percent, with the fresh hid speculation		German exports.
p.	Dollar crossrates (US)			able inflation news.		German and Bi ment bonds slipped	ritish gove d hack afte
	Pound: spot		INTERNATIONAL STOCK PRICES	Germany's DAX la closed floor trading	at a record	firm start, slippi	ing in tand
	Jun pature (Chile) 0.0034		The second s	2.545.95, having clin	nbcd 1.36%	with US treasuries. The slide in C	German ho
	Juniane (CME) - 0.8147 -0.0053	14	Name Price chy Neme Price chy Neme Price chy Neme Price chy name	as currency sensitive ceived a shot in the a	rm from the	helped undermine	German e
	CanOir: Spot (CME) 0.000291 -50-006 CanOir: Spot - 1.2669 -0.0003 Jas tanno (CME) - 0.7361 +0.0008 AnnOir: 5001 - 0.0122		125 PLORON COTD 25 +0 Visitory 29,5778 -0.125	dollar's strength.		ties in post hou trade, with the IB	IS DAX In
. un -12"	AnaDar, appr		NEW YORK Chemical Carp 56.625 +1.25 Georgie Pac 72 +1 Matheore 37 +1.25 Places/d Corp -23 +0 Value Value </td <td>Wall Street opened second day, but the</td> <td>rise of the</td> <td>ending at 2540.79.</td> <td></td>	Wall Street opened second day, but the	rise of the	ending at 2540.79.
	httar: spot1574 +0.95 - Mg: spot1.0663 +0.067 - AdSNo: ecot10.6219 +0.0580		App inc 42125 4.025 Carriedor 62125 4.0.0 Goodinia (EF) - 0.025 Hobil Corp 11822 4.225 Hobil Corp 12825 4.1	Dow Industrials was weakness in bonds, w	limited hy	Dealers said w moderate, with inv	vestors cauti
Streps -	Ng: Spot 1.0663 40.097 AuSNg: spot 10.6219 40.5295 Rand: spot 40.577 40.037 ECLL: Spot 10.2817 40.5395 Bonds: spot 40.577 45.039 Bonds: Junitare 64.575 45.15		Active Developed 61,125 40,125 Canad Caller and Call Pactor 10,25 40,125 40 Montante and 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10	suries mostly lower	as European	ahead of the centring on Thursday at	tral bank m
	Bonds Junitature 110.251 +0.376 a and P Junitature 645.75 +5.16 Libor rates		125 625 -0.125 Burs Lee Corp 32.125 Burs Lee Corp 3	markets elosed. Hopes of a Germ	an rate cut	niry of share option	ns and future
	Libol rates		Afflactor 7,125 0 Consister Consister<	this week kept the	dollar hub-	"There are som for a rate cut, but	ut f hope t
				hling against the mark a 14-month high again	inst the Ger-	don't. Most peopl	ole believe
	Delay 3 months 5.5 -0.00213 Delay 9 months 5.525 -0.0023 Delay 12 months 6.0125 -0.0023 Starting 3 months 6.0125 -0.0023 Starting 3 months 6.0125 -0.0023 Starting 6 months 6.0125 -0.0253 Starting 3 months 6.0125 -0.0253 Starting 5 months 6.0125 5 Starting 3 months		Alex & Alex 19 0.112 Cons Edition 30 15 Histor 35,575 0.75 Not Soni 14,375 +0.125 Senvice Corp I 46 +0.25 Without ind 50 +0 Alexing Power 23,375 +0.25 Core Edition 30 15 Histor 35,575 +0.75 Not Soni	man currency. The mark's losses		would be the last could deflate the	market so
	Stering 12 months 1.375 0 S-tranc 3 months 1.875 0 S-tranc 3 months 1.875 0		Along 55 4029 Comminster and 1 40 40 1 40 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	dollar were mirrored	across the	what," a Munich to There was also s	trader said.
	D-mark 3 months 3,3125 0 D-mark 6 months 3,3125 0	ō	America Hiers - 58,625 +0.575 Coors (Adolphi) - 18,375 5 +11 Harring Foods - 74,125 +0 New English E - 35, 12,55 +0.255 5, -2,55 Wooting to 25 +0.55 Wooting to 25 +0.55 Wooting to 25 +0.55 Harring Foods - 74,125 +0.125 News Corp 22,175 +0.125 Signa Agric	board. "People are really	hoping for a	London, despite t	the FTSE's
	D-many 12 months 0.5625 +0.0625 Yen 3 months 0.5625 +0.0625 Yes 6 months 0.6023 +0.0625	5	Andr Europes 48 +1 Cray Header 45.075 +1 NY IPABA 37.125 -0.125 Adva 45.075	cut in German rate and the dollar still	s this week	cord elose - beatin high of 3,781.3 set	t on Februar
	15pot market listings are from approximately 22:50 larget time. All others are closing quotes.)			can much higher agai	inst the mark	The FTSE Mid 24 record of 4,416.7.	50 also set
	Committeek Trading List. (Date 15 APR-08)	•	Amer 7 & T _ 62375 - 625 Amer 7 & T _ 62375 - 625 LONDON	in particular," said trader at MeesPier	son Deriva-	Some traders f	forecast lead
	Foreign financial data courtesy	ot	Annulabilitic 177.875 +0 Diff 27 +0.25 Minore Corp 25.875 +0.125 Montevet (N) -1.115 Active a	tives in London.		stocks would stru out of their rece	ent range
	CommStock Trading Ltd.	1 ·	Andbox Tables Tables <thtables< th=""> <thtables< t<="" td=""><td>Dealers were focu tention on the regul</td><td>sing their at- ar fortnightly</td><td>growing domestic tainties and unstea</td><td>political un</td></thtables<></thtables<>	Dealers were focu tention on the regul	sing their at- ar fortnightly	growing domestic tainties and unstea	political un
	Eutures, Options,		Antipe 1974 - 22 - 22 - 40 100-100 - 22 - 22 - 40	Bundesbank council	meeting on	ing in the hackgro	ound.
R.	Stocks. Bonds	s	Autocond 135 40,555 Dental Equity 62,675 11 mb (Colin Environ 15 - 40 Offic Casulty 25 - 425 Sun Common 31 25 + 40,25 Casult Min 245 - 40,7	Thursday for clues tion of German rates.		"The mood is the market's proha	still good, ably gone a
1.1	34 Ben Yehuda S	ы.,  	Also real and a state of the st	"US rates are lil	kely in move	as it can in the s	short term,
	Tel. 02-244963, 03-5758826 Fax. 02-244876	5		bigher and German Iy to head down,"	said Andrew	lan Williams, su mure Gordon.	LareBier ar
	Fax. 02-2-4010	5	Augin Froductio - 662675 +2 Dutie Power
	INT'L COMMODITIES			Dow s	soars a	s compa	nies
	AND METALS		Bathmone Gas 255 +0.125 Eastmin Kome - 51:25 +0.625 King Word Prod 72 +0.675 Placer m 20.5 +0.25 Temple Intend _ 47.125 +0 Bane One Corp 35 +0.625 Eastmin Corp 51:25 +0.625 King Word Prod 41 +0 Placer m 20.5 +0.25 Temple Intend _ 47.125 +0
	US commodities			repor	t posit	ive earni	шgэ
1.	Lact Chang	-12	Emeri of Bosen, 44.055 Dirad of Bosen, 44.055 <thdirad 44.055<="" bosen,="" of="" th=""> Dirad of Bosen, 44.055<!--</td--><td>V</td><td>VALL STRE</td><td>ET REPORT</td><td></td></thdirad>	V	VALL STRE	ET REPORT
	Coona (Mary) (CEC) 1344 -1 Collee (Mary) (CEC) 114.85 -0 Sugar no 11 (Mary) (CEC) 1167 +0.0 When (Mary) (CEC) 556.75 +4.3 Soyteen (Jul) (CEC) 796 -2 Oringe julico (Mary)(CEC) 130.8 -2 Crudge of light (Jury)(CEC) 22.45 +0.1	44	Barrier Barles	NEW YORK (Rea	uter) – Blue-	average ended up	р 60.33 рой
TRIL	White (Mey) (CSO1) 586.73 Soybeen (Jul) (CSO1) 798 Crange juice (May)(CEC) 130.5 -2 Crange juice (May)(CEC) 130.5 -2 2.48 -0.1	-8 2 15	Bacton Dichoson 73/73 +1 Bacton Dichoson 73/73 Fel Graup2257 Bacton Dichoson 73/75 Fed mit Bion3225 Bereatchi Corp3125 +0.25 Bereatchi Corp3125 +0.	chip stocks soared	yesterday as	5,592.92. In the broader
	London commodities		HA Bab Corp	the first-quarter co ings period started i	in carnest with	ing issues beat	declines 16
116-	Lint Chan	nge .	Benners 11.375 4.125 Fort Bank Sys - 66.825 +0.5 Long Day Stor 45.125 Primote End 24.5 0.25 Toursenating _ 74.15 +0.175 Housing 66 -0.65 Benners 14.25 -0.125 Fort Bank Sys - 66.825 +0.125 Long Day Stor 45.125 +0.25 Primote End 24.5 0.275 Transoc Energy 40.125 +0.375 Primote End 31.95 -5.3 Biotron 40.125 +0.125 Fort Bank Sys - 6.125 Long Day Stor 45.125 Primote End 40.25 +0.375 Primote End 40.125 +0.125 Fort Bank Sys - 6.125 Fort Bank Sys - 6.12	few major disappoin	tments.	moderate volume shares on the N	: of 346 m New York
	Cocce (May) (LCE) 1999 Coffee (May) (LCE) 1999 Brent cutte of (Lun)(PE) 2040	494	Bisck & Decker _ 36.75 +0.25 Prot Interview	Based on early data, the Dow Jo	nes industrial
	Spot market metals (US)		Based Fell 42.75 41.75 Based Alamba Based Alamba <th< td=""><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></th<>
	Last Char		Batt Antria ADR	ALIE	Sr nov		TEQ
	Giver, spot	003	Browning Frenci 2013 Auge Trans 6 McD. Browning Frenci 2013 State 1023 State 1033		RENCY	Shoasaw
	New York metal futures		Burlington Nith223 4.25 , Freeport Michillor 37.875 +0.125 Miestion Corp27.875 +1 Counter Corp21 4.125 Unline INV 715 +0.175 Treacher Bank 76 +0.175 Header State Bank 76 +0.175 Header State Bank 78 +0.175 Header State State Bank 78 +0.175 Header State
- 4 h	(Jac) Char (Jun) 395.5 5.4 -01	.16	CBS inc 17,575 0 Geloob Toys 21,375 +075 Hay Don St 42,75 +0.125 BLR Nathero 77 +0.375 Union Bincht 38,55 +0.25 Luments 246,5 +3.3 CBS inc 17,575 0 Geloob Toys 45,125 +0.75 Hay Don St 1925 0.277 Patton Parine @2.55 +0.25 Union Bincht 38,55 +0.25 Union Bincht 48,55 +0.25 Union		MARK STERL	ing yen s	SFr F
E.	Cold (Jun) 395.5 Shear (Many) 5.45 Platinum (Juny) 4.05 Platinum (Juny) 130 130 5.47	0.038 3.4 -7.25 0166	CPC forem	MARK	0.4381		162/65 3.39
	Pateotum (Juny High-grade cooper (May) 1.1775 -0.0 London metal fixes		But Mars ADR State V PL upp State V	STERLING 2	2.2807/17	10010-1	812/36 7.73 389/84 4.72
	Last Chi		Carpensor 1607 - 71.875 +1.825 Gan Malos 55.725 +3.255 Method Ba		1.3927/43 0.610		369/84 4.72 4.19
	Codd AM & 363.75 - 61 Gold PM & 903.2 Shor & 566.4	-1.55 -3.8	Cardina Corp ST 275 -0.25 Gan Matching -01.75 -01.25 Handling -01.75 -01.25 Handling -01.75 -0.25 -0.125 Unaced Corp		122.40/58 0,536 0.2945/48 0.129		404/07
	ag Saver az Month in parentheses signals contract exp. (Brown Birn All 75 OLES Faile Files Failes Faile Files	FFr (2943(46 V. 120		rines from 23:00 loc
_	(Spot minimi listings are trom sprokladin 23230 insel time. All others are closing quot 23230 insel time. Lit. (Date 19-APR	otes.)
	Compastock Tradlog Ltd. (Date 19-04-1 a andreas and a Nanzana Calana a ser este mark because it would benefit German exports.

German and British government bonds slipped hack after a firm start, slipping in tandem with US treasuries.

The slide in German honds helped undermine German equities in post hourse computer trade, with the IBIS DAX Index ending at 2540.79.

Dealers said volumes were moderate, with investors cautious ahead of the central bank meeting on Thursday and Friday's expiry of share options and futures. "There are some expectations for a rate cut, but f hope they don't. Most people believe that would be the last move and it could deflate the market somewhat," a Munich trader said.

There was also some caution in really hoping for a London, despite the FISE's record elose - beating the previous high of 3,781.3 set on February 2. The FTSE Mid 250 also set a a

Some traders forecast leading stocks would struggle to hreak out of their recent range with growing domestic political uncertainties and unsteady bonds lurking in the hackground.

"The mood is still good, but the market's prohably gone as far are likely in move as it can in the short term," said rman rates are like- Ian Williams, strategist at Pan-> ner . in ն> > iπ

565

ms

ារប

WALL STREET REPORT (Reuter) - Blue- average ended up 60.33 points at

In the broader market, advancing issues beat declines 16-7 on moderate volume of 348 million shares on the New York Stock

Prices from 23:00 local tim

FFr

3.3937/42

7.7397/48

4.7279/10

4,1551/93

-ì le .

12

GONE WITH THE WIND - Vancouver's Pavel Bure trains with two parachntes strapped to his back for wind resistance in preparation for upcoming playoff matchup against Colorado. (Reuter)

Flyers beat Lightning in playoff preview

ST. PETERSBURG (AP) - Eric Lindros scored his 47th goal and added an assist as the Philedelphia Flyers defeated the Tampa Bay Lightning 3-1 Sunday in a preview of the upcoming first-round playoff matchup between the teams, Kerry Huffman and Rod Brind Amour also scored as the Flyers (45-24-13, 103 points) earned the top Eastern Conference playoff spot. moving one point ahead of the Northeast Division-champion Pittsburgh Penguins, The Penguins lost 6-5 to Boston.

Philadelphia will open the playoffs at home tonight against the Lightning (38-32-12), who finished in the eighth spot with SS points

Bruins 6. Penguins 5

Mario Lemieux had a goal and four assists to win his fifth scoring title but host Boston's win cost the Penguins the Eastern Conference's top playoff seed. As the second seed in the East.

Pittsburgh will host seventhplace Washington in the first round.

The victory put Boston fifth with 91 points and a first-round matchup with the Florida Panthers. Steve Heinze scored the game-winner on one of Adam Oates' four assists with 6:06 left in the game.

Panthers 5, Rangers 1 Rob Niedermayer scored a goal Blues ended the regular season in a 1-7-4 skid and were 6-10-5 after trading for all-time NHL scoring leader Wayne Gretzky on February 27.

Bob Probert and Bernie Nicholls scored for the Blackhawks, who long ago clinched the third Western Conference seed and will open the postseason at home tomorrow night.

Red Wings 5, Stars 1

Visiting Detroit wrapped up the most successful season in NHL history by defeating Dallas 5-1 behind big games from Sergei Fedorov. Paul Coffey and Vyacheslav Kozlov, Fedorov had a goal and two assists. Kozlov scored twice and Coffey had an assist and a goal as Detroit closed the regular season by extending its NHL record for victories to 62.

The Red Wings, who went 62-13-7, open the playoffs at home tomorrow. Detroit's victory Sunday was its fourth straight and sixth straight game without a loss.

Sabres 4, Whalers 1 Derek Plante scored two goals to lift host Buffalo in the final game at Memorial Auditorium. Plante's second goal gave Butfalo a 3-1 lead early in the third period, and the Sabres wrapped up their 26th season in the 56-year-old Aud - the only a home victory over the playoffbound Winnipeg Jets.

Although the Mighty Ducks were one of the NHL's hottest teams down the stretch with a 12-3-2 record, they came up just short of earning the first playoff berth in their three years of existence.

Anaheim's 78 points matched Winnipeg, which clinched the eighth and final Western Conference playoff spot by beating the Los Angeles Kings on Friday.

The Jets got the berth over the Mighty Ducks because of more wins - 36 to 35 for Anaheim.

NHL Final Standings EASTERN CONFERENCE

Allentic Division y-Philadelphia 45 24 13 103 282 208 x-N.Y. Rangers 41 27 14 98 272 237 x-Florida 41 31 10 92 258 230 x-Washington 39 32 11 89 234 204 x-Tampa Bay 38 32 12 88 238 248 New Jersey 37 33 12 86 215 202 N.Y. Islanders 22 50 10 54 229 315 Northeast Division

y-Pittsburgh . 49 29 . 4 102 362 284 x-Boslon 40 31 11 81 282 269 x-Montreal 40 32 10 90 265 248 Hartford 34 39 9 77 237 259 Buffalo 33 42 7 73 247 262 Ottawa 18 59 5 41 191 291

WESTERN CONFERENCE Central Division

62 13 7 131 325 181 y-Detroit x-Chicago 40 28 14 94 273 220 34 36 12 80 247 252 x-Toronto

Ajax coach gloomy about chances against Panathinaikos

LONDON (Reuter) - Ajax Amsterdam coach Louis van Gaal gives his European Cup hold-ers only a 30 percent chance of beating Panathinaikos in Athens tomorrow to reach the Rome final next month.

SPORTS

After suffering a shock 1-0 defeat in the home leg of the semifinal, Ajax has struggled to rekindle its form and fitness.

We've got to be realistic. After losing the home leg we've only got a 30 percent chance of getting through to the final," van Gaal said. "What I won't say is that we cannot win in Athens. But it's going to be very tough." Italian champions Juventus look set to secure its place in Rome on May 22, taking a 2-0 lead over Nantes into the second leg of their semifinal tie in France.

Ajax goes to Athens needing to shake off mounting tiredness, reflected in Saturday's uninspired 1-0 Dutch league win over RKC

Waalwijk. Van Gaal said his players, several of whom still have to play the European championship finals in England in June, were almost on their last legs as the season drew to n close.

"It's over," Van Gaal said, "We're running out of gas. It's been an exhausting season, with lots of injuries." Panathinaikos, despite the psychological boost of victory in Amsterdam, is not underestimating its task.

will give it our best shot," said Panathinaikos

Argentine coach Juan Ramon Rocha. "I said before the first leg that Ajax is the best soccer team in the world and we respect them. But the respect ends when the match starts," he added.

Panathinaikos will again be banking on the striking power of mercurial Polish international Krzysztof Warzycha, who hit the winner in Amsterdam, his sixth goal of the campaign.

Inventus faces Nantes after an unexpected 3-0 Italian league defeat by Sampdoria on Saturday but goalkeeper Angelo Peruzzi and defender Ciro Ferrara believe that will not have a negative effect on its European

Three chances for France

PARIS (AP) - France has never had a soccer week exactly like this. The country has teams in the semifinals of Europe's three cups - all playing in France -with a possible final for each in sight.

Bordeaux in the UEFA Cnp today; Nantes in the Champions League tomorrow, and Paris-St. Germain in the Cup Winners competition on Thursday.

Soccer mania is alive and kicking in France.

Shopkeepers in Bordeaux are wearing team shirts as they hand out the morning newspapers or baguettes. Banners are np all over town cheering the locals.

In Nantes, supporters are distributing 30,000 balloons, 20,000 yellow and green ribbons (the team colors), 10,000 stickers, and 20,000 flags.

Teams are giving subscribers and VIPS first chances at tickets and causing problems for fans who would like to see the games but got sbut ont. France has a chance to qualify teams in each of the finals. The emergence of the club level is coming just in time as its national team returns to former heights.

Twice a semifinalist in the World Cup in the 1980s and the European champion in 1984. the French team had fallen on hard times. It missed qualification for the World Cup finals the last two times, including shocking losses to Israel and Bulgaria in 1993.

Recently it has come back. having a non-losing streak of 20 games and easy qualification into the European finals in England later this year. Now the clubs are attempting to continue the success.

Bordeaux carries a 1-0 advantage over Slavia Prague after It won in the Czech Republic in the first leg.

and assisted on two others as host Florida clinched home-ice advantage in the first round of the playoffs.

Scott Mellanby also had a goal and an assist and Jason Woolley had two assists for Florida, which heads to the postseason three years after coming into the NHL.

The host Panthers, daring fate by wearing their red-and-blue away uniforms, scored three goals in the first period to run away with the game. Florida outshot New York 14-7 in the period and 31-19 for the game.

Bines 2, Blackhawks 2 Ed Belfour stopped 50 St. Louis shots but couldn't keep Geoff Courtnall from scoring with 14:54 left in regulation as the visiting Blues rallied for a 2-

2 season-ending tie. Adam Creighton also scored for St. Louis, which needed a victory to have a shot at home-ice advantage in the first round. The building Buffalo has called home. The Sabres are moving into $127 million Marine x-SL Louis 32 34 16 80 218 248 Midland Arena starting next sea-

Buffalo left the Aud with a 581-289-155 record, including 19-17-5 this season.

Kings 5, Avalanche 4 (OT) Yanic Perreault scored the second of his two goals at 4:12 of overtime as Los Angeles won on the road.

Dimitri Khristich scored twice for the Kings, who finished at 3-5-3 in their final 11 games. Chris Simon had a pair of goals for Avalanche, winners of nine of their last 13.

Los Angeles snapped a fourgame winning streak of the Pacific Division-champion Avalanche.

Mighty Ducks 5, Jets 2 Paul Kariya scored twice, with the second goal his 50th of the season, and the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim closed their season with Ray Illingworth yesterday.

the new hall in his hand."

x-Winnipeg 36 40 8 78 275 291 Dalias 26 42 14 66 227 280 Pacific Division y-Colorado 47 25 10 104 326 240 x-Calgary 34 37 11 79 241 240 x-Vancouver 32 35 15 79 278 278 Anaheim 35 39 8 78 234 247 30 44 8 68 239 304 Edmonton Los Angeles 24 40 18 66 256 302 San Jose 20 55 7 47 252 357 v-clinched division title

x-clinched playoff spot

NHL Playoffs First Round (Best-of-7) Eastern Conference Philadelphia-Tampa 8ay (Game 1 tonight) Pittsburgh-Washington (tomorrow) NY Rangers Montreal (tonight) Florida-Boston (tomorrow) Western Conference Detroit-Winnipeg (tomorrow) Colorado-Vancouver (tonight) Chicago-Calgary (tomorrow) Toronto-St. Louis (tonight)

Nantes has a mnch more difficult task. It lost 2-0 in the first leg to Juventus of Turin in the opening leg. Paris-St. Germain is seeking to overcome its semifical jinx. The last three seasons it has heen stopped at the semifinals, each in a different European Cnp competition. It has a 1-0 lead against La Corona Deportivo from the first leg.

Israel's Baruch Hagai coached the Rest of the World team in the Wheelchair Basketball Tournament final against the US national team in Atlanta on Sunday. The US won 49-37. At a recent training session, Hagai instructs Michael Jordan in the finer points of the game.

CLASSIFIEDS ARNONA, PENTHOUSE, 4, suecah balcony, fantastic view, private elevator. Exclusive to Nadian Plus. Tel. 02-6540101

RATES

PRICES ARE AS FOLLOWS - All rates include VAT: Single Weekday - NIS 99.45 for 10 words (minimum), each additional word NIS 8.94 FRIDAY AND HOLIDAY EVE - NIS 152.10 10 words (minimum), each addi-tional word NIS 15.21. MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRI-DAY (package) - NIS 234.00 tor 10 words (minimum), each additional word - NIS 23.40. 23.40.

23.40. WEEK RATE (6 insentions) - NIS 315.90 for 10 words (minimum), each additional word - NIS 31.59. FOUR FRIDAYS (package) - NIS 409.50 for 10 words (minimum), each ad-ditional word - NIS 40.95. MONTHLY (24 insertions) - NIS 643.50 for 10 words (minimum), each additional word - NIS 64.35. Retee are valid until 31.5.98.

DEADLINES offices: Jerusalem - weekdays: 12 noon the day before publication; for Friday and Sunday: 8 p.m. on Thursday. Tel Aviv and Halfa - weekdeys: 12 noon, 2 days before publication; for Friday and Sunday: 4 p.m. Thursday in Tel Aviv and 12 noon Thursday in Halfa. DWELLINGS

General

WHERE TO STAY

JERUSALEM LOBGES LTD. * Short bern rentals * Bed and breaktast * P.O.Box 4233, Jerusalem a1044. Tel. 02-611745, Fax: 02-618541

DWELLINGS Jerusalem

IN MEVASSERET YERUSHALAYIN large cottage, 230 sq. m. + garden, $440,000, Reshet-Nedlen, Tel. 02-679115.

PLEASANT HOLIDAY APARTMENTS tor rent in Jerusalem and Tel Aviv, best lo-cation. Tel. 03-9662070,03-9660512.

ARNONA, PENTHOUSE, 4, succah balcony, fantastic view, private elevator, Exclusive to Nadian Plus. Tel. 02-6540101 (Maldan).

ARNONA, BEGINNING CONSTRUC-TION of high quality epartments, 6, 4 + 2 rooms. Tel. 02-333-808, 052-534-240.

FIVE SPACIOUS ROOMS, quiet, cen-tral (Shai Agnon)., Luxurious building, elevator, Tel. 02-619659.

GERMAN COLONY, 2, quiet, central 20 sqm basement; garden, underground parking, immediate, "ISPABUILD" Tel 02-66657 I

GERMAN COLONY, 3, quiet, cen-trainew building, parking, balconies. IM-MEDIATE- "ISRABUILD" Tel 02-666571.

GREAT OPPORTUNITY, WOLF-SON, 5, 11th floor, view of Knesset, stor-age, parking, $495,000.* ISRABUILD", TeL 02-666-571.

REHAVIA, NEW APARTMENTS for sale, possibility of whole building, view of Knesset, Keys at Nadian Plus. Tel. 02-6540101 (Mub).

YEFE NOF, OUIET, 3 + storeroom, view, privacy. Agemi (No agents!). Tel. 08-936-1418.

DWELLINGS

Tel Aviv FOR SALEVRENT - IN JAFFAI Spacious Arab-style house with view of sea and Old City. 400 m. built. KAV-HAYAM, Tel. 03-5239988.

RENTALS

SEA AND SUN, 5 quart, seaview, NEVE-AVIVIM, 4, specious, rumished. 'Yael Re-altor' (Maldan), Tel. 03-6426253.

SALES

RAMAT AVIV GIMMEL, 5 + balcony lacing Park/Kikar Medina, 4 + terrace, YAEL REALTOR (Makdan) Tel. 03-642-

EXCLUSIVE - SHALOM ALECHEMII 3, huge, Bauhaus-style building. $300,000. Kav Hayam. Tel. 03-5239988.

EXCLUSIVEII QUIET NORTH of Tel Aviv0 Penthouse, 200 sg.m. on a level + 46 sg.m. on root + au pair unit + pool. $1,850,000, KAV-HAYAM. Tel. 03-523-9988.

SITUATIONS VACANT Tel Aviv

HOUSEHOLD HELP

NORTH TEL AVIV, 4 room apartment, big living room, renovated, $410,000. "Girsch". Tel. 03-5444331. ON KING DAVID. PENTHOUSE

APARTMENT, 4 rooms, access to garden, 6th floor, with elevator and parking. Tel. 03-6955515. IMMEDIATE JOBS AVAILABLE friendliest families, best conditions, the agency with a heart for the Au Pairs. Call

DWELLINGS Sharon Area

SALES

CAESAREAL LUXURIOUS HOUSEL

View to seal + pool + sin-conditioning + ve-cuum system. Tel. 06-363261; 050-231725.

CAESAREA, NEW HOUSE, 300 m built + 550 m, property, comer lot, beauti-tuil, pool, covered parking, near golf course. Ready 7:96: Tel, 05:349777.

HERZLIYA PITUAH AND KFAR SHMARYAHU, selection of exclusive, beautiful villes for selectental NURIT RE-ALTY. Tel. 09-556570.

HERZLIVA PITUAR, LUXURIOUS house, pool, breathtaking view to sea. Tel. 09-540994, 050-231725.

HERZLIYA PITUAH. NEW house, quiet street, 4 bedrooms, basement. ILTAM REAL ESTATE. Tel, 09-589-611.

NETANYA, PARDES HAGDUD, exclu-sive neighborhood, amazing villat $750,000. Must seel REGEV INVEST-MENTS. Tel. 09-826-826, 050-267-875.

RA'ANANA. BARGAINI AVAILABLE

immediately, a rooms, roof top apt. $269,000. Tel. 03-642-2577.

BUSINESS OFFERS

Jerusalem

SERVICES

Tel Aviv

HEALTH.

RENTALS

FORGET THE RESTIL We are the bestil The biggest and oldest agency in Israel. For the highest quality live-in jobs phone Au Pair International 03-6190423. HERZLIYA PITUAH. FURNISHED house, 3 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, garden. $2,000: Iltam Reel Estate. 09-589611.

OFFICE STAFF

FRENCH, GREEK AND Swedish speakers needed High salaryi Cali Mik-hael at 03-575-82551 SITUATIONS VACANT

Dan Region

HOUSEHOLD HELP

SEEKING, PLEASANT AU PAIR, $700 + board and lodging, permanent position. Tel. 03-5242085

SITUATIONS VACANT Sharon Area

HOUSEHOLD HELP

LOOKING FOR A pleasant Filipina (F) live out, 5 1/2 days/week, 8 hours, Tel. 09-

PURCHASE/SALES

Jerusalem

WANTED

WANTED: SMALL REFRIGERATOR for office, Call 02-315628, momings uit 200 p.m.

PERSONALS General

PERSONAL

NICE, SENSITIVE LADY, 50's, inter-ested in meeting nice educated man for serious and leating relationship. Letter + photo to: Vera, P.O.B. 6315, Jerusalem 91082

VEHICLES

Jerusalem ARIE PALOGE - QUALITY CARS:

buying, selling, leasing, tracing, 02-6523735, 050-240977.

BOSTON (AP) - Germany's Uta Pippig won her third consecutive Boston Marathon yesterday, com-ing from 30 seconds behind with three miles to go to win by 75 seconds in a time of 2 hours, 27 minutes 12 seconds.

The race drew 38,706 runners. In the 100th edition of the men's race. Kenyan Moses Tanui upset three-time defending champion Cosmas Ndeti.

Pippig was in or near the lead for the first 18 miles before falling hehind Kenyan Tegla Loroupe by as many as 220 yards. But Pippig, the first to win the women's race three years in a row, blew by her as they crossed the Massachusetts Turnpike on their way into Kenmore Square. Tanui finished in 2:09:16 to upset countryman Ndeti.

Ndeti led much of the race but fell behind at the 21-mile mark, just as the racers came out of the Newton climb known as Heartbreak Hill. Of the six Kenyans breaking away, led by 1995 runner-up Tanui, Ndeti was sixth.

, V

panied Cork's selection as his country's Player of the Year following nine months of significant achievement. Illingworth, who helped to judge the award, said at a presentation lunch: "Dominic has turned in great match-winning performances in the last year. He is without doubt as good as any bowler in the world with

Cork marked his Test debut last June with seven for 43 against West Indies at Lord's, claimed a hat-trick against the Caribbean team at Old Trafford a month later, and by the end of the series in South Africa in early January, he had taken 45 wickets in 15 Test innings at an average of 25.46.

LONDON (Reuter) - England paceman Dominic Cork received a check for £7,500 and a few words of high praise from chairman of selectors

The cash, from England's Test sponsors Cornhill Insurance, accom-

In other news, Glamorgan's Dutch pace bowler Roland Lefebvre, who played in the recent World Cup, has been forced to retire from cricket due to injury.

He suffered pelvic damage during a Sunday League match last July and, despite attempting a comeback, has been advised by Glamorgan's consultant surgeon to quit.

Lefebvre, who joined Glamorgan from Somerset for the start of the 1993 season, played two group matches for the Netherlands in the World Cup on the sub-continent.

In his six seasons of county cricket, he took 149 first-class wickets and scored 1,494 runs.

Joseph Hoffman, Sports Editor

HOLIDAY RENTALS SALES

EXCLUSIVE!! ZAHALA!! 1,000 sq.m. plot. 160 sq.m. built. $1,200,000. KAV-HAYAM. Tel. 03-523-9988.

NEW FLOOR OF OFFICES for sale in very futuations building, view of Old City. Plans at Nadian Plus, Tel (02)-6540101 (Shlorm).

FOR HEALTHY BODY & a happy mind, have a professional massage or shlatau.

CLASSICAL

MUSIC

MICHAEL AJZENSTADT

ISRAELI violist Gilad

Karni, who at 27 is the youngest member of the

. . . .

- 221

÷

25 ATT (15 CA)

:e

187

. .

14 2

고고라로 -

1 2 2 3

. care 3.

. . .

. . .

- a.

4.75

1. S. C. S. L.

1.2

1 12 A.S.M.

- 2.2

15

. .

- 7 - - -

- -- :

: .. .

1.1

HENT LOF

1 $\mathbf{r}_{\mathbf{k}}$

- the 1.5

.

) = 1 1

12

العربي

.....

بالمع مع مع مع مع مع

.....

224

and the second second

2.

¢

.....

. .:

24.

e fa a

12.2.2

The Jerusalem Post Tuesday, April 16, 1996

CRITIC'S CHOICE

WHAT'S ON

CHANNEL 1

6:30 News in Arabic 6:45 Exercise Hour 7:00 Good Morning Israel

EDUCATIONAL TV

8:00 Tha Sun Shines Again - documentary on war refugees filmed in Poland during 1946 -1949 8:40 The Mission of Raoul Wallenberg 10:00 Family Ralations 10:30 Schacko Klak (1990) - When the Nazis conquer Luxembourg in 1942, an 11year-old boy grows up very quickly. Starring Michel Klis. (82 mins.) 12:00 Holocaust education through jour-neys to Poland 12:30 The Holocaust from the personal perspective of survivor David Bergman 13:00 The Holocaust and Israeli Society 13:30 Together Again - Dutch Television roduction about Dutch Jews sepa-rated by the war, who were reunited in Israel 14:15 A Hell Called Transvestria 15:00 New to the Eyes Holocaust Memorabilia

15:30 French feature film about the Nazi conquest seen through the eyes of two young Jewish boys 16:59 A New Evening with Dan Margalit 17:34 Youth Assembly at Yad Vashem 18:15 News in English ARABIC PROGRAMS

18:30 Apropro 19:00 News in Arabic HEBREW PROGRAMS 18:30 Touching Memory 20:00 Mabat News 20:45 Reunion (1989) ~ An elderly Jewish man journeys back to Stuttgart, Germany, to seek out a boyhood friend he hasn't seen since leaving for the US in 1933. Staming Jason Robards and Christien Anholt. (106 mins.) 22:35 Roughnecks 23:30 News 00:00 Verse of the Day

E CHANNEL 2

13:30 Yiddishe Mema – sensitive documentery about the wartime experiences of actress Minam Fuchs and her famity 14:00 Open Wounds – interviews with grandchildren of Holocaust survivors 15:00 Lifeline – documentary about the daring rescue of Hungarian Jewish youth 16:05 Black and White is Color - documentary about works of art by Jewish children during the Holocaust years 17:00 News megazine with Refi Reshef 17:30 Live broadcast of youth assembly at Yad Vashem 18:10 Children of the War - the stories of four people raised by non-Jews 19:00 Survivors of the Holocaust - the Spielberg Testimonies Project 20:00 News 20:30 Mengele - documentary 21:45 Guilty as Sin (1993) - a young

WHERE TO GO

Notices in this feature are charged at NIS22,08 per line, including VAT, Insertion every day of the month costs NIS520,65 per line, including VAT, per matthe

FAMILY CHANNEL (3)

HOROCALIST MARTYTS

tradition

19:30 Look For Me - local broadcast STAR PLUS

Family Channel and Movie Channat resume their independent broadcasts lawyer obsessed with winning har cases, takes on a client accused of murdering his wife, and learns that she may be his next victim. Starring

Rebecca De Mornay and Don Johnson 00:00 News 00:05 Night

17:00 French programs 19:30 News headlines 19:35 Encounter 20:00

Home Improvement - comedy 20:20

Life in the Freezer - documentary

20:45 Milner Fenwick - documentary

21:10 Harry - drama 22:00 News in English 22:25 The Bold end the

Beautiful 23:10 Phanlom of the Opera (1843) - starring Claude Rains, Nelson Eddy and Susanna

14:00 700 Club 14:55 Escape from Death Row – a prisoner helps e mob-ater get back on the streets to take revenge on his brother's killer 16:30

Dennis the Menace 16:55 Mask 17:20 Fables of the Green Forest 17:45 Another Life 18:10 Earth 2 19:10 The A-Team 20:00 World

News Tonight (Arabic) 20:30 CNN Headline News 21:00 America's

Funniest Home Videos 21:30 Sta

Trek: The Next Generation 22-20

Father Dowling 23:10 700 Club 00:00 Special Program

CABLE

17:00 Cartcons 17:30 Hela and the Dervishes 18:30 From Day to Day 19:00 News in Arabic 19:30 International magazine on the ans 20:00 Mabat News 21:00 Blah Blah - joint radio and TV chat show 22:00 Showman 22:20 Cinome managing

Showcase 22:30 Cinema magazine 00:00 Closedown

15:30 Hidden Children - two who lived under false identities In the south of France 16:00 My Jewish Grandlather - film made by a young

Dane in search of his family roots 17:00 A Hell Called Transvestria - documentary about the suffering of

Romanian Jewry during the Holocaust 18:00 Seven Minutes

(1989) - Feature about the failed attempt by a Munich walchmaker in 1939, to assassinate Hitler (92 mins.)

19:30 | Wasn't an Orphan -Psychologist Prolessor Shlomo

Breznitz and his sister were hidden in a Catholic monastery during the war

20:00 A New Evening with subtitles in Russian 20:30 Holocaust and

Artist - Interview with playwright Nissim Aloni 22:30 Moses in Jewish Remembrance Day - the Family Channel and Movie Channel present combined broadcasts until 20:00

10:00 Children of the Holocaust

(1994) - moving British documentary based on interviews with four people who wera saved 10:50 Genocide - documentary (rpt) 12:15 Liberation

(1994) - documentary reconstruct-ing, with the help of rare fcotage and the Edge of the Shelf

I JORDAN TV

Foster

ITV 3 (33)

ETV 2 (23)

MIDDLE EAST TV

Encounters 00:40 Nurses 1:05 On 20:00 Celasta 20:50 Beverly Hilla 90210 21:40 Daddy - TV drama. A successful advertising man suddenly finds his life coming apart when his wife leaves him to return to atudy and 14:00 Iris, the Happy Professor 14:14 Captain Planet 14:40 Jonny Quest 15:00 Alf - comedy 15:20 his children blame him for the breakup of the family. With Patrick Duffy. 23:10 Sapir - Israali series Scientific Eye 15:40 The Bob Morrison Show 16:10 TAO - drama 23:20 Mad About You 23:45 Sislers 00:35 Countar Offansive 1:25 Knots

E MOVIE CHANNEL (4)

Landing

Hotocaust Martyrs' and Heroes' Remembrance Day - the Family Channel end Movie Chennel present combined broadcasts until 20:00. See details above.

20:00 The Generation After 21:00

Jericho Fever (1993) – A terrorist band kills Israelis and Palestinians negotating in Mexico and flees to the US spreading e fatal virus. With Stephanie Zimbalisi (85 mins.) 22:30 The Avenging Force (1986) - Retired secret agent helps a black Netreo secret agent helps a black politician in a mayoral campaign. (98 mins.) 00:15 The Owl (1993) – a karate expert foils the plan of drug gangs to flood the streets with a new, lethal drug 1:40 Toy Soldiers (1991) – college students outwit Latin Amaximum temperta (mt) American tarrorists (rpt)

CHILDREN (6)

6:30 Cartoons 8:05 Sadaku and the 6:30 Cartoons 8:05 Sadaku and the Thousand Cranes (rpt) 8:40 The Heart (rpt) 8:15 The Path of Anne Frank 9:50 Holocaust Remem-brance Day In Kibbutz Lohamei Hageta'ot (rpt) 10:30 Max Glick (rpt) 10:55 David – film (rpt) 13:00 Pinocchio and the Emperor of the Night 14:35 Stories to Remember 15:10 The Heart 15:45 Holocaust Remembrance Day – Yad Mordechai Remembrance Day – Yad Mordechai 16:10 Little House on the Prairie 17:05 Holocaust Children – British documentary 18:00 Alan and Naomi - drama set in the 19409 in Brooklyn. A high-school student befriends a girl Holocaust survivor 19:30 Mignon - a young French girl goes to live In Italy, in her uncle's home, after her lether is imprisoned 21:00 My Big Brother Jack 21:30 Cheers

SECOND SHOWING (6)

22:00 The Story of Adele H. (1975, French) - Melodrama of the life of the daughter of the author Victor Hugo, whose frustrated love for a British officer led her to spend the last 40 years of her lile in an Insane asylum. Starring Isabelle Adjani. Directed by Francois Truffaut. (93 mins.) 23:35 Five Evenings (1978, Russian) – drama of the renewed meeting of a man with a woman after 17 years of separation (97 mins.)

DISCOVERY (8)

Remembrance – panel discussion 21:00 A Day in the Warsaw Chetto – tha photographic journal cf an ordi-nary German soldier 21:30 Life of an 11:30 Oskar Schindler (rpt) 13:00 Antisemitism: Part 1 (rpt) 13:55 Antisemitism: Part 2 (rpt) 14:45 Antisemitism: Part 3 (rpt) 16:00 Another Train Ride (rpt) 16:00 Return to the Warsew Ghetto (rpt) 18:00 Goathe and the Ghetto (rpt) 19:00 A Land of Beitune – the bistory Professor 7:00 Bevarty Hillbillies 7:30 Yan Can Cook 8:00 Entertainment Tonight 8:30 Gabriella 9:30 Santa Barbara 10:30 The Bold and the Baautiful 11:00 Oprah Winfrey 12:00 Remington Steele 13:00 Yan Can Cook 13:30 El TV 14:00 Teenage Mutan! Ninja Turtles 14:30 New Adventures of Lassie 15:00 Black Stallion 15:30 Batman 16:00 Home and Away 16:30 Entertainment Tonight 17:00 Entertainment Tonight 17:00 Entertainment Tonight 17:00 M*A*S*H 17:30 The Flying Doctors 18:30 The Extraordinary 19:30 The Bold and the Beautiful 20:00 Santa Barbara 21:00 Hard Copy 21:30 Baywatch 22:30 Andros Tergels

6:00 Aerobics 6:30 The Artist and the begin I arms 1d al-23:30 Ententainment Tonight 00:00 Oprah Winfrey 1:00 Hard Copy 1:30 Home and Away 2:00 The Sullivans •n, he ifour,

uding

I Ta-

: used in the alions

meetport's

stinian

Judea

ed for reling bor-lewish

-5

nbl

SCS

7715

our

DUT

. in tī-

in 16 зn

in a

10

- ì le

13

Broadcasts resume following Holocaust Martyrs' and Heroes' Remembrance Day 20:30 English Soccer League – sum-mary 22:00 Argentine Soccer 23:30 Coca Cole Soccer League

E CHANNEL 5

EUROSPORT

ing of 9:30 Weight Lifting: Europe Cup from Norwey (rpt) 10:30 Fast World: Motor Sports Magazine 11:30 Sumo Wrestling 13:00 Eurogoal: Soccer 14:00 Boxing 15:00 Boston Marathon (rpt) 16:30 Eurogoal: Soccer 17:30 Aerobics 19:30 Archery 20:30 Sports Magazine 21:00 Sumo Wrestling 22:00 Boxing 23:00 Soccer: European Semifinai 1:00 Spocker: European Semifinai aonths nonth. study. s was orders ccord-: wril-1:00 Snooker; Europe League d out

PRIME SPORTS

6:00 Chinese League Soccer 6:30 Cricket – Pepsi Cup, summary 7:30 Asian Sports 8:00 Spanish Soccer Leegue 8:30 Cricket: Pepsi Cup, India vs. South Africa – live 16:30 Futbol Mondial 17:00 Motorcycle Racing 19:00 Cricket – Pepsi Cup, summary 20:00 Heavyweight Boxing 22:00 Thai Boxing 23:00 Soccer – Chinese League 1:00 Motorcycle Racing Racing

BBC WDRLD

News on the hour 8:05 Panorama News on the hour 8:05 Panorama 10:15 Panorama (rpt) 11:30 London international Boal Show (rpt) 12:30 Tomorrow's World ~ documentary (rpt) 15:15 The Money Programme (rpt) 16:15 World Business Report 16:30 Asia & Pacific News 17:30 Travel Magazine (rpt) 18:15 Panorama (rpt) 19:30 Time Out: Film '96 (rpt) 22:35 Panorama (rpt) 23:30 The Clothes Show – From The East The Clothes Show - From The East 00:00 International Business News

VOICE OF MUSIC

6:06 Morning Concert 9:05 Delalande: Miserere, Psalm 51; Mozart: Adagio In B minor K540 (Barenboim) 10:02 Beethoven: String quartet In F minor op 95 "Serioso" (Pstterson Qt); Mahler: Symphony no 6 "Tragic;" Yiddish songs (Ora Zitner) 12:00 Light" Classical – slow movements from chamber music by Schubert 13:00 Saxophonist Jan Garbarek – 14th-and 15th-century vocal music and 15th-century vocal music arranged for saxophona; Garbarek plays his own works 14:06 Music for Strings - Leonard Bernstain conducts works by Mahler, Barber, Vaughan Williams 15:00 From the Racording Studio – Ada Shor (mezzo-soprano), Anat Sharon (piano). Pavel Haas: Sonata for piano op 13; Hans Krasa: 5 songs; Viktor Ullmann: 5 songs; Songs from the Ghetto 15:00 Music for the Ghetto 15:00 Music for Holocaust Martyrs' and Heroes' Remembrance Day 18:00 A. Scarlatti: Cain, or the First Murderer, oratorio 20:05 From the World'a Concert Halls – Radio Stuttgart Symphony Orch, cond. Heinz Holliger. R.A. Hartman: Concerto Funebre for violin and orch (Zehetmair); Schoenberg: Survivor from Warsaw; Haydr: Mass in time of war 22:00 A Musical Journey

Gilad Karni takes a break from the New York Philharmonic Orchestra to perform a recital in Tel Aviv.

. Bach masterclasses at the Jerusalem Music Center daily until Wednesday at International Federation of Film Archives (FIAF). 10 a.m. and 3:30.

198). Dreyfus also presents

., DANCE

MICHAEL AJZENSTADT

BORIS Eifman's St. Petersburg Ballet Theater makes its local debut performing Eifman's theater-of-the-absurd version of Don Quixote tonight. in Netanya, Wednesday at the Jerusalem International Convention. Center (Binyenei Ha'uma). Thursday at Tel Aviv's Mann Auditorium, Friday in Karmiel, Saturday in Beersheba and next Sunday at the Haifa Anditorium. All shows are at 8:30.

TO coincide with the annual conference of the

The series begins tonight at 11 with A La Recherche des films perdus, a French film about the bunt for long-lost films. One of the week's gems is to be screened at 7 · movies.

which is being held in Israel for the first time, the Jerusalem Cinematheque is presenting 11 special programs over the next six days. These include documentaries, independent films, newsreels. silent films, avant-garde works, travelogues and classic nuggets of restored footage which were often painfully pieced logether from flaking fragments of uncompleted films, p.m. tomorrow with the showing of 100-year-old footage shot after the Lumiere brothers seot a cameraman to Palestine, producing the first cine-matic images of the Holy Land. Another highlight, at 9:30 p.m. on Thursday, is Visions of Light: The Art of Cinematography, an absorbing and amusing documentary io which some of the world's top filmmakers discuss their favorite films and pay tribute to the pioneer cinematographers of the past. It includes clips from over 100

CRYPTIC CROSSWORD

who lives on charity (9)

dealing with derailments

DOWN.

I Instrument oeeded to get

ACROSS

- .23 English country property 1 Scant regard from redhead in a mini-dress (5,6) 26 Expect a delay (5)
- 9 Cheat high churchman of 27 Self-confessed recidivist
- keen intellect (4-5) 10 Fruit in Antigua varies by 28 Simplified procedures for
- the season (5)
- 11 Bishop has stylish leather boot (6)
- 12 Satire we misconstrued, so
- to speak (2,2,4) 13 Inclination to get T-shirt of
- the highest quality (6)
- 15 As the boss, I name the price (2,6)
- 18 Rough but otherwise excellent lad (5-3)
- 19 Customer bas right to
- property in Connecticut (6)
- 21 Impatient order to be more ectiva (8)
- -3 Irritable about (9)

(6)

(11)

- 4 Chief man is on active duty (4)
 - 5 Grand declaration by a
 - working model (8)
- sherry cask raised (7) 2 Some of the morris men made a bloomer (5) one Scotsman giving evidence
- 6 Parsimonious drunk (5)

7 Inviting glance pleesed onlooker (4,3)

8 Unconcerned because treatment costs nothing (8)

14 Guiding rule for Arctic and 16 Make no move to detain

17 He uses articles to study

the area around Ur (8)

18 Constant flak causes local whisky manufacturer (4.5)

Antarctic sailor (4,4)

DRUISTUCK PCU E II DC GODOWN DALLERINA SWA UDN VSTRANO EUGPETER H RO VWR NCANDER A DUATISUN DEFINITEABTICUE V D STRAINE N H RESTRAINE TREBUE FA E A PI COUPDETAT CREENSIC NI E G E ADVENTURE

Yesterday's Quick Solutioo CROSS: 1 National, 7 Press, S Talegraph, 9 Eat, 10 Ship, 11 Leaner, 13 Cigara, 14 Bounty, 17 Savage, 19 Agog, 20 Sea, 22 Dandelion, 23 Cargo, 24 Bandages. DOWN: 1 Notes, 2 Talking, 3 Orgy. 4 Amazed, 5 Defer, 9 Ashtray, 7 Phantom, 12 Brawndo, 13 Cassock, 16 Nagging, 19 Agends, 17 Sabre, 19

Genus, 21 Heed.

QUICK CROSSWORD ACROSS DOWN 5 Retinoe (5) 1 Scratchy (5) 8 Moderated (8) 2 Greek letter (5) 9 Shrew (5) 3 French onion 10 French Protestant seller's cap (5) 4 NE Italian city (6) 11 Shatter (5) 6 Rare (8) 14 Passing fancy (3) 7 Amulet (8) 16 Edible 17 crustaceans (6) 12 Acclaim (8) 17 Open admission 13 Trading centre (8) 14 Tell lies (3) 18 Quick curtsy (3) 15 Expert (3) 20 Punctuation mark 19 Aural inflammation (6) 1 1 1 (5) 24 Non-military (8) 21 Middle-Eastern 25 Andalusian port rug (5) (5) 22 Red Sea resort (5) 26 Party to lawsuit (8) 27 Small crowbar (5) 23 Concord (5)

لأحد بالبنين الرزار بالساحيات

Conducted Tours HEBREW UNIVERSITY. Tours of the Mount Scopus campus, in English, daily Sun-Thur, 11 a.m. from Brontman Secontion Centre, Sherman Administration Bidg, Buses 4a, 9, 23, 26, 28. For info, call 882819. HADASSAH. Visit the Hadassah installa-tions, Chagall Windows. Tel. 02-416333, 02-776271. spiron

TEL AVIV

IERUSALEM

TEL AVIV MUSEUM. Micha Uliman, TEL AVIV MUSEUM. Micha Uliman, Drawings 1994-5 New Hortzons: Sculpture; Micha Bar-Am - The Last War, Photographs; Tiranit Barzilay, 1995; Miriam Cabeèsse, PaintingsYeacov Dorchin - Blockad Welt; Feec to Face; The Museum Collections. HELENA RUBIN-STEIN PAVILION FOR CONTEMPO-RARY ART. Sophie Calle, True Stories. Hours: Weekdays 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Tua. 10 a.m.-10 p.m. Fn. 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Sat. 10-3 p.m. Meyerhoff Art Education Center, Tel. 6919155-8. WIZO, To visit our projects call Tel Aviv e923818; Jarusalem 256060; Haifa 388817. 388817

HAIFA WHAT'S ON IN HAIFA, dial 04-374253.

GENERAL ASSISTANCE

EMERGENCY

DUTY HOSPITALS

Netanya: Lanlado.

Magen David Adom

POLICE

FIRST AID

FIRE

346789.

service 02-247876). Netanva: Laniado tanya: Laniado.

851-1707.

archival material, the story of the lib-eration of the death camps by the Allied forces 13:30 Starting at 1:30 (rpt) 14:15 Wiesenthal – Story of a Nazi Huntar: Part 1. Docudrama of Nazi Huntar: Part 1. Docudrama of the life of Simon Wiesenthal, starring Ben Kingsley 15:40 Wiesenthal: Part 2 17:10 A Day in October (1992) – A Jewish girl saves a Danish resis-tance lighter, bringing him home. The relationship between them develops against the background of the war. With Kelly Wolf and D. B. Sweeney. (97 mins.) 18:45 Oskar Schindler – They Call Him Father Courage (rpt) They Call Him Father Courage (rpt)

CINEMA

and daily life of the Jewish communi-ty in China 20:00 The Island of Museums in Berlin 21:00 Prince of tha North Pola - story of tha snow owl 22:00 The Red Bomb - Stolen Secrets 22:50 Law of the Jungle 23:50 Open University

SUPER CHANNEL

6:00 The Selina Scott Show 7:00 NBC Naws with Tom Brokaw 7:30 ITN World News 8:00 Today: International Magazine 10:00 Super Shop 11:00 European Money Wheel 16:30 Morning Raports live from Wall Street 18:00 US Money Wheel 18:30 FT Business Tonight 19:00 ITN News 19:30 Adventures 20:30 The Sellos Scott Show 21:30 Busels News 19:30 Adventures 20:30 The Selina Scott Show 21:30 Russla Now 22:00 Europa 2000 22:30 ITN News 23:00 Gillatte Sports Magazine 23:30 Motor Magazine 00:00 The Tonight Show with Jay Leno 1:00 Late Night with Conan

G.G. GIL 1-4 = 404729 Sabrins@Got Shorty@Copycal 9:45 * Casino 9:30 NETANYA G.G. GIL 1-5 = 628452 Twelve

G.G. GiL 1-5 ± 628452 Twelve Monkeys@Sabrina@Get Shorty @Copycat 9:45 * Heat 9:30 * RAV CHEN Before and After 7:30, 9:45 * Broken Arrow 9:45 * Toy Story (English dialogue) 7:45 * Sense and Sensibility 9:45 * Mighty Aphrodite 7:45, 9:45 OR AKIVA RAV CHEN Sense and Sensibility @Englan arrow 9:15 * List 0:15

HAV CHEN Sense and Sensolity •Broken arrow 9:15 * Heat 9:15 OR YEHUDA G.G. GIL Sabrina®Twelve Monkeys 9:45 * Casino 9:30 * Copycat 9:45 PETAH TIKVA G.G. HECHAL Twalve

G.G. RAM 1-3 = 9340818 Get Shorty 9:45 + Copycat 9:45 + G.G. RAM 1-3 = 9340818 Get Shorty 9:45 + Heat 9:45 + Casino 9:30 RA'ANANA

CIN-MOFET Smoke . a:30 * PARK Sense and Sensibility 7:45. 10:15 * Copycat 7:45, 10:15 * Mr. Holland's Opus 7:45, 10:15 * Broken Arrow 10:15 * Toy Story (English dialogue) 7:45, 10:15 RAMAT GAN

After 7:30, 9:45 * Mighty Aphrodite 7:45, 9:45 * Toy Story (English dialogue) 7:45, 9:45 * Sense and Sensibility 9:45 Sabrina@Copycat 7:30, 9:45 * 8roken

CHEN 1-4 = 362664 Sabrina II Postino 9:45 * Copycat 9:45 * Toy story (English dialogue) 10 * Toy Story

GAL 1-5 ± 9619669 Before and After 9:45 * Thumbellina * Heat 9:45 * Twelve Monkeys 9:45 * Casino 9:45 * Ace Ventura 9:45 * HAZAHAV Sabrina 9:45 * A Gooty Movie * Twelve Monkeys@Copycat 9:45 * RAV CHEN = 9670503 Before and After@Broken Arrow 7:30, 9:45 * Toy Story (English dialogue) 7:45, 9:45 * Sense and Sensibility 9:45 * Operation Dumbo Drop@Ace Ventura@An Indlen in the Cupboard 2:30 * Gal Shorty@Tha Bridges of Madison County 9:45 * STAR 1-4 = 9619985-7 27 Lishinsky St. Sense and Sensibility@Mr. Holiand's Opus 7:15. 10 * Dead Man alking@Broken Arrow 7:30, 10 YEHUĎ

RAV-CHEN Savyonim Before and After@Mighty Aphrodite 7:45, 9:45 * Sense and Sensibility 9:45 * Toy Story (English dialogue) 7:45, 9:45

Phone reservations: Tel Aviv 5252244 Phone reservations: Halfa 728878 Il times are p.m. Unless otherwise Indi-

JERUSALEM CINEMATHEQUE Flat - Program no. 1 11 G.G. GiL JarusalemMall (Malta)  788448 Twelve Monkeys@Copycat@Gel Shorty@Leaving Las Vegas_Sabrina 9:45 * Dead Man Welking 9:45 * Heat 9:30 * Casino 9:30 * JERUSALEM THEATER 20 Marcus SL * 817167 Leaving Las Vegas 7. 9:30 * Antonia's Line 7, 9:50 * RAV CHEN 1-7* 792798 Credit Card Reservations# 794477 Rav-Macher Building, 19 Ha'oman SL, Tsipiot Toy Story (English dialogue) 7:45, 9:45 * Before and After 7:30, 9:45 * Mighty Aphrodite 7:45, 9:45 * Sense and Sensibility 9:45 * Broveheart 9:30 * Star Man 7:30, 9:45 7:30 + Copycat 7:30, 9:45 ASHDOD G.G.GIL Get Shorty@Laaving Las Vegas@Broken Arrow 8:45 + Sabrins e45 + Mr. Holiand's Opus 9:45 + S.G. DRI 1-3= 711223 Heat 8:45 + Twelve Monkeys@Copycat 9:45 ASHKELON G.G. GIL Twelve Monkays Consumers of Monthe Sabrins 9:45 +

* Sense and Senaibility 9:45 * Braveheart 9:30 * Star Mari 7:30. 9:45 * Broken Arrow 7:30, 9:45 TEL AVIV CINEMATHEQUE 2 Sprinzak St. # 5772000 Ulysses' Gaze 6. 9:15 * Salvatore Glutlano 7:30 * Les Favoris de la Lune 10 DIZENGDFF Leaving Las Vegas 7:45, 10 * Show Girls 7:45, 10 * A Man of No Importance 7:45, 10 * DRIVE IN Dangerous Minds 10 * GAN HA'IR = 5272215 71 Ibn Gabirol St. Priscilla 7:30, 9:45 * GAT Sensa and Sensibility 9:45 * HKKOLNDA # 6959341 26 Ibn Gabirol St. Mr. Holland'a Opus G.G. HOD 1-4 = 5226226 Hod Passage, 101 Dizangoff St. Twelve Monkeys 9:45 * Mr. Holland's Opus 9:45 * Dead Man Watking 9:45 * CopycateSabrinaeGet ShortyeTwelve Monkeys 9:45 & Mr. Holland's Opus 9:45 * Dead Man Watking 9:45 * CopycateSabrinaeGet ShortyeTwelve Monkeys 9:45 & Heat 9:30 * RAV-CHEIN* 5292288 Dizengoff Center Before and After 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Toy Story (English diakgue) 7:45, 9:45 * Toy Story (English diakgue) 7:45, 9:45 * Pocaohntas (Hebrew dialogue) * Broken Arrow 7:45, 9:45 * ACe Ventura 7:45, 9:45 * Seven 9:45 * The Usual Suspects 7:45, 9:45 * Star Man 7:45, 9:45 * Braveheart 9:30 * Star Man 7:45, 9:45 * Br Jerusalem: Bikur Holim (internal, obstat-rics, ENT); Shaare Zedek (surgery, ortho-pedics, pediatrics); Hedeasah Ein Karem (optimiamology). Tel Aviv: Tel Aviv Medical Center (pedi-anics), ichilov (internal, surgery). Netamer Lanizio 100 102 101 Magen David Adom In emergencies dial 101 (Hebrew) or 911 (English) In most perts of the country. In addition: Ashdof 551333 Ktar Sava" 902222 Ashlesion 551332 Nahariya" 60444 Beat Shemesh 623133 Petah Tikva" 9311111 Dan Region" 5793333 Reinova" 451333 Etter 332444 Richon 9643333 Jenucelem 523133 Tol Aviv 5660111 Karmiel" 985444 Tibertas" 792444 * Mobile Intensivo Care Link (MICU) service in the area, around the clock. Hanavi St. Casino-Bunderground 9:45 + Dead Man Walking 9:45 + G.G. TEL AVIV = 5281181 65 Pinsker St. Twelve Monkeys@Sabring 9:45 + Get 9horty 9:45 + TEL AVIV MUSEUM = Medical help for tourists (in English) 177-022-9110

9.45 * TEL AVIV MUSEUM * 6961297 27 Shaul Hamelakh Boulevard Before the Rain 7:45, 10 HAIFA ORLY* 381868 Sense and Sensibility 8:15 RAV-GAT 1-2 * 674311 [OS] Before and After 9:15 * Broken Arrow 9:15 * RAV-MOR 1-7 * 416899/8 [OS] Sense and Sensibility 9:15 * Mighty Aphrodite@Before and After 9:15 * Braveheart 9 * Broken Arrow@Ace Ventura 9:15 * RAV-OR 1-3 * 246553 [OS] Mighty Apriodite 9:15 * Toy Story (English dialogue) 9:15 * Ace Ventura 8:15 The National Poison Control Center at Rambam Hospital 04-8529205, for emer-gency calls 24 hours a day, for information in case of poisoning. Eran – Emotional First Aid. Jarusalam e10303, Tel Aviv 5461111 (children/youth 6961113), Haits 86722223, Beersheba 281128, Natanya 625110, Kermiet 9888410, Kfar Sava 7674555, Hadera 346780 Wize hotlines for bettered women 02-6514111, 03-5461133 (also in Pussian), 07-376310, 08-550596 (also in Amhanic).

07-376310,08-500506 (also m Aminanc). Rape Crisis Center (24 hours), Tel Aviv 5234818, 5449191 (men), Jerusalem 255558, Haita 8660111, Ellat 31977. Hadassah Medical Organization -Israel Cancer Association telephone support AFULA RAV CHEN Before and After 9:30 * oken Arrow 9:30 + Copycat 9:30

ARAD STAR = .950904 Casino 2:30 * Mr. Holland's Opus 7:30 * Ace Ventura

G.G. Gill Twelve Monkays •CopycateGet Bhorty@Sabrina 9:45 * Heat 9:45 * RAV CHEN = 711223 Broken Arrow@Before and Atter@Mighty Aphrodite 7:30, 9:45 * Toy Story (English dialogue) 7:45, 9:45 * Sense and Sensibility 9:45 BAT VAM RAV CHEN = 5531077 Sabrina 9:45 * Before and After 7:30, 2:45 * Broken Arrow 7:30, 2:45 * Copycat 7:15, 9:45 * Ace Ventura 7:30, 9:45 * Toy Story (English dialogue) 7:45, 9:45 * Twelve Mankeys 9:45 BEERSHEBA G.G. Gill, Twelve Monkeys-G.G. GiL Twelve Monkays-Copycat@Sabrina 9:45 ★ Get Bhorty 8:45 ★ RAV-NEGEV 1-4 ± 235278 Before and After@Broken Arrow 7:30, 9:45 ★ Toy Story (English dialogue) 7:45, 4:45 ★ Sense and Sensibility 9:45 DIMONA UECHAL HATARBALIT Surface

HECHAL HATARBAUT Sudden Death a EiLAT KOLNOA EILAT Il Postino 7:30, 10 *

Copycat 7:30, 10 * LEV 1-4 Sabrina 5, 7:30, 9:45 * Toy Story (Hebrew dialogue) 5 * Antonia's Line 7:30, 9:45 * Mortal Kombat 5 *

Ace Ventura 4:45 * Copycat 7:30, 9:45 * Toy Story (English dialogue) 5 * Broken Arrow 7:45, 10 HERZLIYA COLONY CINEMA 1-2 (MANDARIN) COLONT CALLEND 12 (MARAY)
 COLONT CALLEND 12 (MARAY)
 10:15 ★ Star Man & 10 ★ STAR±
 59968 Copycat 9:45 ★ Toy Story
 (English dialogue) 8 ★ Toy Story (Hobrew dialogue) 10 ★ Before and After 7:30, 9:45 ★ Ace Ventura Sebrina 7:30,
 10 ★ DANIEL HOTEL Mr. Holland's
 Deve Tid + Deve Marking 10

Copus 7:15 * Dead Man Walking 10 KARMIEL CINEMA 1-3 * 887277 Broken Arrow 9:30 + Before and After 9:30 + Toy story (English dialogue) 9:30 KFAR SAVA

G.G. Git. Copycet@Get Shorty 9:45 * Sebrina 9:45 * Twelve Monkeys 9:45 * Heat 8:30 * Cosino 9:30 * Heat 9:15 * Heat 2:30 * Classic 3:00 * Heat 3:10 * Casino 9:15 * KIRYAT ONO MATNAS The Usual Suspects 8:30 KIRYAT SHEMONA G.G. Gill Twelve Monkeys 9:30 * Heat

9:30 * Copycat 9:30 STAR Brokan Arrow 7:16, a:45 * Casino 9:45 * Hest 9:45 * Ace Ventura

Casho 3.45 * Net 3.45 * Act ventur UPPER NAZARETH G.G Gil Casino@Heat 9:45 * Twelve Monkays@Copycat@Sabrine@Gat Shorty 8:30 * Dead Man Walking 9:30 NESS ZIONA

Arrow 7:30, 9:45 REHOVOT (Hebrew cialogue) RISHON LEZION

Dinitz convicted of fraud; sentencing next month

BILL HUTMAN

FORMER Jewish Agency chair-man Simcha Dinitz was found guilty yesterday of fraud and abuse of public trust for purchasing persooal items at the agency's expense. Sentencing was set for next month by Jerusalem District Court.

14

Dinitz was cleared of charges of misusing his agency-issued American Express card. The court accepted his defense that, while he bought personal items with the credit card, it was the job of Agency bookkeepers to deduct the payments from his salary.

The personal American Express charges amounted to $15,400, according to testimony at the nearly two-year long trial. Just over an bour after Dinitz left the courtroom, the trial of another former agency official, Likud MK Meir Sheetrit, began. He is also charged with using agency funds for personal expenses. Sheetrit served as agency trea-

The charges Dinitz was convict-

Dinitz was defended by Uri Wagman, who also declined to comment.

ed of relate to his use of a credit After reading his decision, card from the Syms clothing store in New York, whose hills, adding up to $6,700 for personal items, the agency paid. "The behavior of the accused in the Syms case was shown to be an extreme case of 'closing one's eyes' that constitutes criminal actinn," Judge Shalnm Brenner wrote in the 152-page decision.

"A person of such standing and with such a position, who is an example to others, must show more awareness and less apathy, and not simply ignore details, Brenner wrote, rejecting Dinitz's argument he thought agency bookkeepers would deduct the expenses from his salary. Dinitz, 66. was accompanied in the courtroom hy his wife and children. He showed little emotion as the verdict was read.

"I need to study the decision before I can comment," Dinitz said as he left the courtroom.

Brenner suggested Dinitz be sentenced later in the day. But he accepted Wagman's request to put off sentencing until May 3. Wagman said he would bring witnesses to testify on Dinitz's behalf at the sentencing hearing. Itim adds:

Jewish Agency Treasurer Hanan Ben-Yehuda said the agency leadership had just heard of the decision from the media, and that a special meeting would be devoted to it after there was time to study the particulars.

He noted, hnwever, that the agency had already drawn the lessons from the affair, and had instituted new procedures, including the cancellation of all institutional credit cards and a more stringent expense accounting system for all employees and emissaries, including board members and senior staffers

Yehezkel denies guilt of fraud, other charges

RAINE MARCUS

LABOR MK Avi Yehezkel, indicted on charges of breach of trust, fraud, falsifying documents and attempted fraud in the 1992 elections, pleaded not guilty in Tel Aviv Magistrate's Court yesterday. After the hearing Yehezkel said he feels like the scapegoat of the whole affair.

years I have been left alone," he said after the hearing. His lawyer, Amnon Zichroni, hinted that his line of defense would be that Yehezkel only conformed with the behavioral norms of large organizations. Zichroni slammed the police for what he described as an improper investigation, saying the indictment never should have been filed Yehezkel was indicted at the beginning of February after his parliamentary immunity was lifted hy the Knesset House Committee. According to the indictment, from January until July of 1992. when Yehezkel was the administrative and personnel director of the Histadrut and chairman of the Histadrut-affiliated Re'ut foundation, he fraudulently tried to obtain Histadrut funds for his own primary campaign.

He is accused of instructing former Mifal Tarbut Vehinuch director Uzi Fassa to hill the Histadrut and Re'ut for his campaign expenses by issuing false invoices. Mifalei Tarbut Vehinuch is a Histadrul-owned company which carries out printing and publicity work, including organizing events. Fassa was responsible for taking orders, assigning work, and mak-ing and collecting paymeets for services.

Fassa, whu turned state's witness in the case, was sentenced on Sunday to six months' community service after a judge accepted a plea bargain. Fassa is the chief prosecution witness against Yehezkel.

indictment The accuses

Yehezkel of ordering Fassa to fool

Tarbut Vehinuch to organize four

The case caused a stir within the Histadrut and scores of people, including Transport Minister

Yisrael Kessar, were questioned.

Last week Attorney-General

Michael Ben-Yair ruled there was insufficient evidence to indict

Kessar, although hc did say there were irregularities in his behavior.

Zichroni also accused the press.

acting on leaks from police, of Lezion Country Club.

Sneh proposes policy allowing Ethiopians to donate blood

Navon Commission says his plan contradicts experts' recommendations

JUDY SIEGEL

perceot were infected. Last year,

30,000 Israelis were tested for

AIDS, including 1,757 Ethiopians. A total of 64 HIV car-

Health Ministry officials, as was Ethiopian olim checked, eight declared.

the directive to hush up the rela-tively high rate of infection among the community. "If the ministers were not told.

by these top-ranking officials,

Osaac Hanni

MDA is not to blame," he solidarity. He said there was no point in agreement

ast week.

ARIEH O'SULLIVAN and news agencies. OC Air Force Herzl Bodinger will not visit Turkey tomorrow, despite announcements" from Ankara to the contrary, a security official said yesterday. "He's not going to, to leave in the middle of an intense IDF operation," the official said Reuters reported that; Bodinger was to visit Turkey today to implement a military exchange accord that much of the Moslem world has attacked as betrayal of

Tuesday, April 16, 1996

5emar 13-24

Dead Sea 18-33

Beersheba 15-30

19-3

AROUND THE WORLD

Winning cards

IN yesterday's Mifal Hapayis daily Chance card draw, the lucky cards were the queen of spades, 10 of hearts, jack of diamonds, and 8 of clubs.

Bodinger

postpones

Turkey visit

The Jerusalem Post

Diplomatic sources said Israeli pilots have already begun training

.

. .

25

1.1

.

Pe

Li

isl pc

fo

in,

co

C

Pi

pL

ro

wi

ш;

Pa

th

0:

in

"All down the line and for many

NEWS

BO

Pip

Bo:

ing thr

sec

mir

រៃ 1

race

thr

Co

for fall

Loi

But

wo

IOW

the

the ups

Т

Labor MK Avi Yehezkel leaves Tel Aviv Magistrate's Court vesterday.

convicting his client before he was even indicted. (Alon Ron/Israel Sun)

Peres and Netanyahu to address Agudat Yisrael conference

SOME 300 Agudat Yisrael activists will gather at the Kinar guest house on the Kinneret today for three days of discussions which may help determine whether Shimon Peres or Binyamin Netanyahu will carry the haredi vote in the prime ministerial election.

Both Peres and Netanyahu are scheduled in address the conference tomarrow. This is the first time Agudat Yisrael has invited "outside politicians" in address its annual conference. The exception was made because these elections are "fateful," said Zvi Hasid, one of the conference organizers.

Both Netanyahu and Peres are courting the haredi vole, estimated at 200,000-250,000. Polls have given Netanyahu a commanding lead among haredi voters, but he is concerned that leading Aguda rabbis may advise their constituents

HERB KEINON not to vote for non-religious candidates, which would be a boost fur Peres.

Shas mentor Rabbi Ovadia Yosef said recently that he will not endorse either candidate, something welcomed by Likud activists, who interpreted this to mean that the Shas faithful will be free to vote for whomever they want. The Shas constituency, according to party head Arych Deri, strongly favors Netanvahu.

The Aguda conference will also be addressed by Housing Minister Binyamin Ben-Eliezer and Arie! Sharon, who served as housing minister under the last Likud govemment. They are slated to discuss proposed solutions to the naredi housing crunch.

The ranbis of Aguda's Council of Sages will be at the conference's

Transportation Ministry to assign brush-up courses for new drivers

opening session today. The session will honor the late Gerer rehbe. Pinhas Menahem Alter, who died last month. The rabbis, who eventually will decide whether to endorse a candidate for prime minister, are not scheduled to be at the conference for the politicians' speeches.

Hasid dismissed criticism leveled against Agudat Yisrael for convening the conference on Holocaust Martyrs and Heroes Remembrance Davi

"There will not be any orchestras or belly dancers." he said. "The opening session will be dedicated to the late Gerer rebbe, so the tone will be mournful."

The meeting was originally scheduled for March 12, but was postponed after Alter died on March 7. Alter was co-chairman of Aguda's Council of Sages.

Sneh, appearing for a second the bill fot much of the private time before the commission work for his campaign, instead of formed two months ago to investipaying it himself. He hired Mifalei gate the Ethiopian blood donation affair, suggested blood banks not events at the beginning of 1992 accept donalions from anyone and hilled the company for a vicwho spent more than a month in tory party held at the Rishon the past three years in an area where AIDS is endemic.

one in this high-risk group.

HEALTH Minister Ephraim Sneh

yesterday proposed a much-liberalized policy for blood donations

by Ethiopian immigrants that shocked Navoo Commissioo

members, whom experts had previously told that blood donations could not be accepted from any-

These areas are the countries of Central America; Brazil; Thailand: and all African countries except for Egypt, Libya, Tunisia, Algeria, Morocco, and South Africa.

In addition, blood would not he taken from anyone who had sex with a resident or former resident of one of these countries, or someone who is in a high-risk group for HIV, such as homosexuals, drug addicts, and hemophiliacs.

The Sneh proposal would, in effect, allow Ethiopian immigrants to donate if they immigrated over three years ago and did not have an Ethiopian as a sex partner, hut had been infected with HIV from a needle.

Members of the commission, headed by former president Yitzhak Navon, hombarded him with questions.

Health Ministry spokeswoman Yifat Ben-Hai said Sneh consulted a number of medical experts on the proposal, hut she would not disclose their names. However, it was learned that no blood experts from MDA - which is responsible for the safety of the nation's blood supply - were involved in its preparation.

At yesterday's session, Prof. Edna Ben-Porat, director of the microbiological lab al Rambam Hospital in Haifa, said there is a "continuous increase in the rate of HIV infection within the Ethinpian community. In the past three mooths, of 175 former

Jerusalem bomber had stolen passport

A MAN whose legs were blown off when the bomh he was apparently preparing in a Jerusalem hotel exploded last Friday was carrying a stolen British passport. the British Foreign Office said yesterday. The document was in the name of Andrew Newman, said a Foreign Office spokesman. "But it was a stolen document and we know it is not linked to the man," said the spokesman, "We know he is not British."

riers were ideotified, of them, 54 were Ethiopian immigrants.

Dr. Amnon Ben-David, the director of MDA's blood services, testified for the first time before the commission. Tens of thousands of immigrants have demanded he be dismissed for approving the policy in which their blood was secretly destroyed. His appearance was sion decides what to do:

made possible after the High Court of Justice decided in Ben-David's favor and ordered Adisu Massala, head of the Ethiopian Immigrant Association, to step down from the seven-member commission because he had previously called for Ben-David's dismissal Throughout his testimony, the audience, excluding journalists and officials that came to testify, consisted of one middle-aged Ethiopian immigrant.

Ben-David told the commission that MDA's policy of not accepting blood from any Ethiopians or members of any other high-risk group - was dictated by senior

AN

CC No.

Name

City.

continuing to take blood from flights in Turkey under the agree-Ethiopians and then destroying it. ment without informing them. Turkish military sources said eight According to MDA, six Israeli pilots had arrived for train-Ethiopians have donated blood. ing flights, but would not confirm when they arrived. since the affair crupted. The blood they donated has been frozen, by Israeli technicians are to upgrade Sneh's order, until the commismore than 50 Turkish F-4 fighterbombers as part of the cooperation

Ben-David said that designating a group as high risk for AIDS was Foreign Minister Emre Gonensay unfair to individuals, but that this rebuffed criticism by the Arabs could not be avoided in efforts to and Iran. "Turkey does not have to protect the general public from account to anybody for agreements that increase its own defense capabilities," Anatolian getting deadly transfusions that would give them AIDS. Only if the "window" of time between infection and the appearance of HIV antibodies in the blood could be closed, so that any carrier could be identified with certainty, even if infected only the day before donating blood, could donors be viewed on an individual basis.

The Turkish Foreign Ministry said Until then, blood should not be that Egyptian Foreign Minister accepted from any Ethiopian Amr Moussa's cancellation of a immigrant or member of any other visit, set for today, was due to the high-risk group.

fighting in Lebanon and not part of the row over the accord.

news agency quoted him as say-

Anger at the deal, signed in February but only leaked to the press two weeks ago, has increased since Israel's air and artillery blitz on Hizbullah began

AN ANC	IENT LA	NGUAGE - MODERN A	PPROACH
	Status and a second second	Now that you've finished the Ulpan, you LEARNING Hebrew. Tired of the duil dri right verb? Confused by many meaning same root?	I? Can't find the s derived from the
	ALLAN A VIEWS	 a manual for mastering Hebrew gran a verb dictionary and computerized v self-teaching aid a new method for quick learning and material, and much more. 	rogram - is: mmar verb tables memorizing the
		Produced by Rolnik - Something Different Shalom From Jerusalem series for learn cooperation with The Joint Authority for The kit includes 3.5" diskette, user's ma	Zionist Education.
EBREW TogestivePortes anguage of Yoday	Never Gefore Has it Bee So Easy to Learn.	Casic Pockar Hantaw-English/English-He	ebrew dictionary.
softverbs		System requirements: IBM PC 286 AT or compatible, with VGA/EGA/SVGA screet MS DOS 3.3 or higher.	r higher, or n and card
		JP Special: NIS 279 Incl. VAT, p & h in	israel
To: Please send ma Enclosed is my o	a cooles of SC	ost, POB 81, Jerusalem 91000	CHORE EY PHONE OF LAT

IN No

	03078	EY 3	10.5	04	1
	(\mathcal{C})	02	-24	12	8
_ `	101	Fax	:02-	241	21
vis.

THE Transportation Ministry announced yesterday that it intends to require new drivers to take a brushfell up course two years after getting their licenses. just Ne[.] According to existing regulations, new drivers had to take a brush-up course after three years. In the past Hei year, however, a growing number of new drivers put

Keı off taking the course, the ministry said. 195 Now new drivers are to be issued restricted licenssixt is, valid for two years. If during that period the driver commits a major violation, such as failing to stop for a stop sign or crossing an unbroken line on the highway, the ministry has the option of making his license renewal dependent on passing written and driving tests, or passing an evamination at the Medical Institute for Road Safety. In addition, no license is to be renewed after the two years pass, unless the driver actually passes a brush-up test. However, soldiers in obligatory service may take the course three years after getting their Haim Shapiro license.

VISA DI ISRACARD DINERS DAMEX Addires Code Tei. (day). Signature